PREFACE

It has been the design of the author to bring together in a comprehensive manner the facts pertaining to the Hansfords of York County and surrounding areas. On several occasions she was contacted by people from distances who manifested interest in the family, and in each instance, she was unable to lend assistance, due to lack of knowledge on her part.

However, in the summer of 1956, after one of these inquiries, her interest was stimulated. She realized that being a native of York County, Virginia where the records have been well preserved, and having the use of the library at nearby College of William and Mary, the project of collecting and assembling the available data was hers. To Mr. Charles Hansford Powers of Georgia goes credit for this initial incentive.

Mrs. John Wesley Ironmenger, mother of the author, because of her interest in old records in general, has in her possession copies of records from the Bibles of Mr. Baker Hansford, Mrs. Mollie Hansford Richardson, Mr. William Crutcher Hansford, and Mr. Belivar Sheild. Also, during the lifetime of Mr. Baker Hansford (who lived to be ninety-three years of age) and Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Ironmenger had interviews and wrote down facts which they gave her from their memory. These formed the nucleus from which the author began this work.

Hours have been engaged in searching original records in the following counties in Virginia: Warwick, Elizabeth City, Gloucester, Middlesex, Isle of Wight, Surry, James City, Spotsylvania, and York; records of Hampton, Newport News, and Williamsburg have been read. At the State Library (and through their lending service) general research was engaged in. Hundreds of loose papers from York County which are kept in the archives there, were handled and scanned for pertinent information.

Some correspondence has been carried on and the author is most appreciative of aid rendered in this way. Heartfelt thanks go to Mrs. Sherry Lewis Hansford of Richmond and Mrs. Floyd Brooks of Fredericksburg, Virginia.

It would be amiss to overlook the assistance contributed by Mr. Robert Lee Hansford, the husband of the author, for accompanying her on innumerable occasions when she visited church yards and cemeteries, looking for the name Hansford or that of some kinsman. This was his way of showing a mutual interest in his family, past and present.

Through these months of studying records and assembling the material, it has been evident that the Hansford family, from the time of the immigrant father to the present, has been an honorable one. The record speaks for itself.

To some readers portions of the records included here may seem lengthy. This was done purposely, in order that people today may have deeper understanding of the circumstances of the times in which each lived. America, as we know it, is the product of the thoughts and actions of our forebears.

To you, Hansfords of York County, and your kinsmen and especially to the author's own Robert Wesley Hansford, this compiled record of your family is presented.

Since writing this book, I have learned that I, too, descend from John Hansford through his youngest son Charles² Hansford. So, I join the other members of the family in researching our family

The first of the Hansford lords who appears in the pedigree of the family, as given by George Ormerod in History of Cheshire is Henry de Honefort, (1) who received by deed (1233-37) Bosden, a hamlet in Cheshire. His son, Henry de Honeford (note spelling) was the father of a third Henry de Honeford, who was living in 1270. The last named Henry de Honeford was father of three sons : John, Robert, and Geoffrey. John de Honford (note spelling) appeared as a witness in matters relative to charters, dated 1315, and it is believed that he died young, leaving a son by the same name---John de Honford.

Geoffrey de Honford was slain by William de Hide before 1370. (There was a feud between the two families for more than seventy-five years). His daughter and heiress, Katherine, married Robert de Legh Junior and her husband received wardship and custody of her lands January 13, 1360/1.

John de Honford (son of Henry de Honford) married Margery, daughter and co-heir of William de Praers of Baddiley, and widow of Hugh Holt. They had two sons, Sir John de Honford and William de Honford. By this time the family had vast estates, holding the manors of Honford, Bosden, an interest in Chedle, Torkynton, and Offerton. After Margery's death (ob. 2 Richard II.), he married Elen, widow of Hugonis de Clayton. John de Honford, Lord of Honford, died May 1393.

His son, John de Honford, was knighted and received an annuity of one hundred shillings for life as a retainer for his services to the King. He likewise, became the possessor of Honford, except for one hundred and ten acres and two messuages and November 8, 1398 he had a license for an Oratory on his manor of Honford. He married Elizabeth-----and died 2 Henry IV., leaving as his heir Sir John de Honford and a daughter Joan, who became the wife of Hugh Calvyligh of Les.

The last named Sir John de Honford of Honford was a collector of a subsidy in 1416. He is spoken of as "gentilemon" and "became a captain of so much distinction in the wars of Henry VI. that it is difficult not to speak of him as one of the most eminent warriors of his age", said Dr. Ormerod. He was knighted because of his services to the King during the reign of Henry V. and "at the great battle of Verneuil as John Handeforthe, Knight, he had the King's grant----- (1425)-----of one hundred pound des tornois of yerely revenewe". His duties carried him to France and he may have been there during the sieze of Orleans (1430 where Joan of Arc made history). In 1433 he was in command of the bridge at Roven. The garrison roll states,

"Pons de Rove super aquam de Sayne, Johannes Hauneforde, chevalier, held the place in the name of the King. locum tenens domini regentis". He had " j lanceam equestrem; 11j lanceas pedestres et XX. archers".

He appeared in France again in 1449 as "Messire Johan Hauneforde, chevalier" and was assigned to report certain outrages to the King. He last appeared in the Plea Rolls as Jonis Honford 31 Henry VII. and he died leaving issue : John, Thomas, and Robert.

John Honford, Esq. (son of the distinguished soldier) was about fifty-five years old when he died in 1473. He married Margery, daughter of Sir Lawrence Waren of Polyton, a knight, and they had two sons : John and William. John died without children and the manor of Honford passed to his brother William, who had married Sybil, daughter of -----Scargeel. He was slain in the battle of Floddens, September 9, 1513, in the war against the Scotch Kings. His only child and heiress was Margaret Handford, Lady of Handford, who married Urian Brereton, Knight. She died on the estate before May 1 Edward VI. and the manor passed into the Brereton family.

In reading the records, the name is spelled Hanford as often as Honford, and even Hanfford (Hansford) and Handford.

In 1486 Robert, son of William de Honford of Chorley, gave his lands to his son and heir Robert, who married Agnes-----and had issue Anne Honford (married first, John Stanley and second, Thomas Davenport). Robert Davenport was her son, and Chorley Hall stayed in that family for four generations.(2)

Chorley Hall too, was an ancient mansion located within a moat, in a quiet part of the township, west of Alderlt Edge. A narrow bridge connected it with the surrounding area. It was constructed of stone and timber and had bay windows and pointed doorways. Within the center of the house was a great hall, as was the custom in the better homes of that time. A hallway crossed the lower end, from the interior of the quadrangle to the outside of the building.

In the Church of Cheadle, dedicated to Saint Mary, is a large altar tomb within the Handford chancel. On this are recumbent figures of two knights in rich plate armour. One is bare-headed; the other wears a helmet decorated with a wreath, and a fillet. Farther to the north side of this is another tomb having the figure of a third knight in armour; his head rests on a helmet ornamented with a plume.(3)

In another church within the shire, there is the Etohell Chapel dedicated to the Blessed Virgin. According to the will of Robert Hon-

ford dated 1527 (proved at Chester), he gave to the chapel some of his lands and "his goblett of silver and three of his 'worst silver spoons' with all his silver plate on his horns toward making a challice for the chapel". (4)

In The Visitation of Cheshire 1580, made by Robert Glover, (Somerset Herald for William Flower, Norroy King of Arms, edited by John Paul Rylands; London: 1882, p 45) a part of the genealogy for Brereton of Monford is given. This also shows how Margaret, the sole heir and daughter of William Hanford married Urian Brereton of Hanford, younger son of Sir Randall Brereton. Their sons Randall and William lived at Hanford; there were three additional children. The crest of William Hanford (being an ancient one) was "allowed to Randall Brereton of Hanford to Beare and use by me R. Glover, Somerset in May 1584" since William Hanford's sole heir had married Sir William Brereton.

Another estate of great beauty which has been in the family for centuries is Wollashull (spelled numerous ways). The History of Worcestershire edited by J.W. Willis-Bund and others and published by Westminster A. Constable and Company, London, Vol. IV. tells rather fully about the family for several generations and also describes the manor house. It is most likely that the manor of Wallashull is a part of the land in Eckington which was bequeathed by Wulfric in 1002 to Morcal. Thomas Hanford, who had married Margaret Hugford, was granted a third interest in the estate by Sir Thomas Baskerville and Anne, his wife in 1567. This gave him a total of two thirds interest which he held until 1578, when the crown confiscated his property to satisfy his fines as a popish recusant.

(4) Ibid. p. 618.

Margaret Hanford died November 8, 1594, siezed of her third of the manor; Thomsa Hanford continued to live there until his death. They left a son John Hanford, who in 1611 built the present hall (description to follow). This John Hanford died there August 17, 1616 and his son Francis Hanford heired the property. Records show that Francis Hanford had disputed with Sir William Russell and Richard George, and other tenants of the manor over the common use of pastures in 1630 and 1642. Following the death of Francis Hanford in 1643, his widow Elizabeth, who had married Ayliff White, a barrister-at-law in 1648, appeared before the courts as claimant for the estate of her late husband.

Francis and Elizabeth Hanford had a son Walter Hanford, who died July 16, 1679 leaving three sons: Francis, Henry, and Compton Hanford. Francis settled the manor in 1680; he died in 1682 leaving as his heir a daughter Frances. Henry Hanford, who was unmarried, had died in 1681. The manor of Wallashull became the possession of Compton Hanford, who had married first, Elizabeth, only daughter and heir of Sir Robert Slingsby, baronet of Newsells (Herts) and niece of Francis, Earl of Derwentwater. In 1711 he settled the manor and chief manor house upon his son, Edward Hanford. When Compton Hanford died in 1722, Edward Hanford inherited Wallashull and lived there until his death in 1766, then being succeeded by his son, Edward, who died unmarried in 1797. Charles Hanford, a brother of the last named Edward, handled the manor then, but he too, died childless in 1816 and the estates went to a cousin, Charles Edward Hanford. In 1854, Compton John Hanford succeeded his father, Charles Edward Hanford, and lived four years there until his death in 1860. Being unmarried, the property was heired by his only surviving sister, Frances who had married William Lloyd Flood of Formley (County Kilkenny). Mr. Flood assumed the Hanford name in 1861; he died May 3, 1892. Mrs. Frances Hanford-Flood died February 21, 1875. Surviving was a son, Col. John Compton Hanford C.B., who by royal license in 1893, also assumed the Hanford name and arms. He lived until 1911 and was succeeded by his brother, Major Robert Thomas Hanford-Flood, who like his relatives also assumed the Hanford name and arms in 1912. He is the present owner of Wallashull.

Woollass Hall, built on Wallashull Manor in 1611 by John Hanford, stands high on the north slope of Bredon Hill. It is an L-shaped structure, built of stone and faces the north. The principal front part is three stories high, broken by a deeply projecting porch with a large gable to the east of it and two smaller gables on the west. On each end of the front are screen walls beginning with the level of the eaves and reaching to the ground in a series of curves. On the round-headed doorway of the porch may be seen this inscription: "Memorare novissima 1611". A single story wing had been added to the west side of the great building.

Among the interesting features within the hall is a fireplace above it a panel with a large achievement of the Hanford arms. There are likewise, some interesting portraits.

The stables to the east of the main house were constructed in the 17th century, as was also the brew house. As has already been stated, this property is now owned by Major Robert Hanford.(5)

Within Holy Trinity Church in Worcestershire is a Jacobean monument to John Hanford of Wallashull, who died in 1616, and Anne, his wife, who was daughter and co heir of Richard Bake of Allbury. This is located against the north chancel wall. There is a rounded arched canopy of Corinthian columns supporting an entablature and beneath, at a prayer desk, are kneeling figures of a man and wife. Around the base, in high relief, are kneeling figures of eight daughters and five sons. The shield of the Hanford arms, and also those of the Bake family, adorn the center of the cornice and the spandrels. That of a third family is behind one son.

In the tower of the church one finds a ring of six bells. On the first is inscribed "Edward Hanford, Esq. Flock Kendrick 1721".(6)

Also included in the property of Sir Thomas Hanford was the manor of Birlingham, which was siezed in right of his wife Margaret Hugford on June 19, 1575. When Margaret Hugford Hanford died November 18, 1594, the property was still held by her. This manor was a part of the possessions of John Vampage.(7)

Humphrey Hanford and Margaret Langford were married January 31, 1624 according to a record in the registers of St. Benet and St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, London and given in Vol. 39 of the Harleian Society Publications. This may have been his second marriage since another record shows that "Sarah, daughter of Sir Humphrey Handford of London, Knight and Alderman," married Thomas Smyth (age 30) of Wychem 1623. (The

The mother, Mary Handford died March 21, 1726, age thirty-nine years and was buried March 27, according to Westminster Abbey Register (Vol 10, Harl. Soc. Pub., p 334, 317).

In Muggrove's Obituaries (Vol. 46, Harl. Soc. Pub.) these death notices are given:

John Handforth, London March 25, 1782.

There are many Hansfords (Hanfords) in England and the loose items are numerous. These few have been included here because some-one might wish to "put together" the facts and prepare a genealogy of the family in England.

In the Lineage Book of the National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America Vol. XX. page 249, we learn that the Reverend Thomas Hanford, a divinity student, came to Scituate, Massachusetts from England in 1643. He was a Freemason of Plymouth Colony in 1650. He was the first minister at Norwalk, being ordained in 1654. A line of his descendants for eight generations is given in the named source book.

A will, a copy of which is printed in the Virginia Magazine of History Vol. 13, page 199, give the reader further insight in the family group living in England around the time that this country was being started. It follows: "John Handford of Ludlowe, county Salop, Esqr. will dated September 17, 1669; proved January 24, 1670. To my son John Handford gent., my manor of Shobden and the avowson of said Parish in county Hereford. County Winchester, Knight, the Lady Winford, his wife (my wife's sister) and to Mrs Mary Williams, another of my sisters, and to her kinswoman, Mrs. Eleanor Williams five pounds each. To every servant living with me at my death forty shillings each. All the rest not bequeathed, I give to my wife.

Witnesses: Richard Wright, John Edwards, Henry Brown, and John Brown (P.C.C.Penn).

A footnote on page 200 of the same book (Virginia Leg. of His. Vol. 13) refers to Nash's Worcestershire, Vol. II. p 180-182, which tells more about the Handfords of Wallashull. Thomas Hanford or Handford ("stated to be descended in the 8th generation from Sir John Hanford of Cheshire) married Margaret, daughter and co-heir of William Higford, of Mafford, and had issue: Margaret, married Thomas Copley of Norton; John, married Anne, daughter of Richard Rake; Catherine, married -----Whittington of Norgrave. John and Anne (Rake) Hanford were the parents of Francis Hanford (living at the time of Charles I.) who married Elizabeth, daughter of Walter Gifford of Chillington, and was the father of Walter Hanford, who married Frances daughter of Sir Henry Compton, Knight of Bath. Walter and Frances (Compton) Hanford had issue: (1) Compton, who married 1st. Chaumont and had no issue, and 2nd -----Slingsby; (2) Edward, who was the father of Charles Hanford of Rid Marley. Compton and -----(Slingsby) Hanford had issue: (1) Edward, married Elizabeth Hurst of Haverhill, Essex; (2) Charles; (3) Elizabeth. Edward and Elizabeth (Hurst) Hanford had issue: (1) James; (2) Edward; (3) Charles; (4) Eleanor.

The name appears to have been spelled indifferently Hansford, Henford, or Handford. Sir Humphrey Hansford or Handford of London was an active member of the Virginia Company and John Hansford of London, merchant tailor, was also a member. See Brown's Genesis.⁽⁸⁾

Tobias Hansford received a grant for three hundred and twenty-four acres of land in Ware Parish, Gloucester County, Virginia dated January 8, 1666. This was located at the mouth of Deep Creek in Mob. jack Bay and extended toward the bay, thence along land of Christopher Robins and reaching to the mouth of Fenohe's Creek. There was also granted to him another tract of three hundred twenty-four acres on the east side of Wolf Creek starting at a marsh which divided this tract from land belonging to Col. Augustine Warner.

Some years later---October 24, 1673---Tobias Hansford, with Philip Ludwell and Robert Whitehead renewed a grant for twenty thousand acres situated on the southside of the Mattaponi River, in New Kent County, "due to the unportation of four hundred persons into the colony."

Tobias Hansford evidently married and had a family in the New World. In 1699 a man named Sampson Darell came into possession of five thousand acres on the Pamunkey Neck joining land owned by Major Burwell on the Mattaponi River etc. This was supposed to be a part of the twenty thousand acre tract given Philip Ludwell, Tobias Hansford, and Richard Whitehead in 1673. Sampson Darell acquired this land "by right of intermarriage with Elizabeth Hansford, the daughter and heir of the aforesaid Tobias Hansford." (Land Patent Book IX, p 217)⁽⁸⁾

Hansford Coat of Arms

 Records and Portraits, Colonial Dames, Vol. II.; also in A History of Worcestershire edited by Willis-Bund and others, Vol. IV. page 73; and in The Visitation of Berkshire, Vol. I, page 39 (Vol. 56 Harl. Soc. Pub.) It is described thus:

Arms : Sable. A star of eight rays argent.

Crest : On a chapeau gules, turned up ermine, a wyvern of the first,
 wings expanded argent.(9)

Here is an explanation of the Heraldic terms used in describing the Arms and Crest:

Argent-----silver

Gules-----red

Azure-----blue

Sable-----black

Gules may be "parallel lines drawn in Pale."

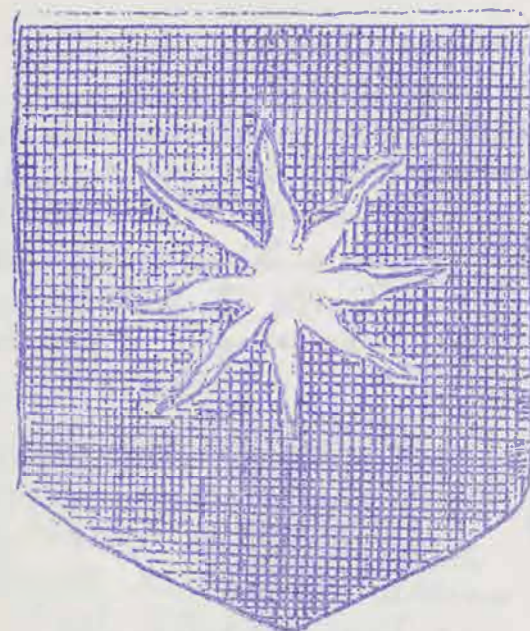

An ancient custom of covering bucklers with skins of animals as a protection from arrows and missiles may account for the use of furs in heraldry. Ermine was the fur used by the Hansford family.

The wyvern is different from the cockatrice, having the head of a dragon, and is usually without spurs. The wings of the dragon, griffin, cockatrice, and wyvern are represented as addorsed.

The chapeau or cap of maintenance was formerly worn by dukes and even by kings, but it ceased to be regarded as an emblem of dignity. However, a few families continued to hold it as a charge; and it is generally seen supporting the crest in the place of a wreath.(10)

HANSFORD

As is evident by the material given in this chapter, the Hansford family was one of the most prominent in England. Such background substantiates the fact that the colonial settlers of America were among the best in their native homeland. This, in part, was a contributing factor toward the development of a wilderness into the great nation we have, for the thoughts and ideals of a people prompt their actions.

Minutes of the Council and the General Court of Colonial Virginia p 69: A receipt dated November 1624 "Received of Dictoris Christmas and John Hassarde for the use of Southampton hundred four barreles of Corne by the appoyntment of Mr. John Powntis" signed: John Litle Court held July 21, 1625

"Received the 9th December 1623 for the use of Mr John Powntis in part of a more some one hundred and four pounde of tobacco. I say (have) received of John Hassarde, The same.
Nathaniel Basse.

P 77. "Whereas John Litle, gent. deposeth that the bond wherein John Hassarde, Dictoris Christmas and Mr Jonas Stogden stand bound to Mr. John Powntis, Treasurer of Southampton Hundred was for the discharge of the said John Hassarde and Dictoris Christmas for the service of Southampton Company. It is ordered that John Hassard and Dictoris Christmas having discharged their bond to Mr Powntis shall have their freedom according to agreement as other tenants have had.
November 28, 1625".

(This is the earliest date I have seen for John Hansford of York Co., Va. for York Court records begin with July 1633 when Court was held in the home of John Litle. Christmas and Litle were both York County residents. Seems no reason to doubt that Hassarde (Hansford) is not our John Hansford who was really one of the first Justices for York County as was John Litle in whose home York's first Court session was held. (area of Cheat Ham Annex while Hansford was on Felgatis Creek inside Wagon Station) Sheila Hansford, June 1979.

From a record in St Mary's, Maryland:

"Thomas Weston - a London merchant settled first in Massachusetts second in Virginia, served in House of Burgesses 1628 Land in York 1637; died in Bristol, England 1647, His estate in Maryland was settled by John Hansford of York County, Virginia, who exhibited his will in Provincial Court at St Mary's July 5, 1648 - his plantation was descended to his daughter Elizabeth who married Roger Conant, was sold to John Hansford.

It has been said that the first white settlements in York County were made in 1630. Hansfords may be classified as being among the first of these settlers as a county record bearing the date August 12, 1645 states "whereas by an order of the Counsell of Warr-- there are nineteen days work yet due from John Hansford, Elias Richardson, Thomas Moreland, William Reynolds, Niche Steelwill, Robert Holt, James Harris, Henry Lee etc.----- The Court doth therefore order that said parties make payment of the said work-----according to one man's due share and parte."(II)

Records also show that John Hansford was ordered to take a list of tithables in the several parishes and deliver this to the sheriff by June 25th, 1646. Included in this list would be all cows three years old, horses, mares, and geldings three years old and upward, sheep, and goats.(I2)

John Hansford was a Justice for York County Court May 8, 1652⁽¹³⁾ and again January 25, 1657.(I4) He was commissioned a Major, because after his death "Elizabeth, widow of Major John Hansford" married Edward Lockey.(I5)

John Hansford's patent was issued December 14, 1658. This is mentioned in a legal transaction dated August 24, 1698 and says

"granted by patent the 14th of December 1658 to the said John Hansford and by his last will given unto etc. (16) Earlier in 1651, a patent grant was issued to a Richard Hansford for property on West's Creek in York County and he gave as head rights John and Elizabeth Hansford. The patent John Hansford received was in the same vicinity. In 1663 he obtained another grant for nine hundred and fifty acres in Gloucester County. (17) There is a belief that John and Richard Hansford may have been brothers.

Mrs. Annie Tucker Tyler in her article "Thomas Hansford, the First Native Martyr to American Liberty", published in The Virginia Historical Society Collection, Vol. II pp 193-201 says that "John Hansford might have been a son of the merchant tailor of London of the same name mentioned by Mr. Alexander Brown in his 'Genesis' as entered in a list of the Virginia Company in 1620, and who was probably brother of Sir Humphrey Hanford, Handford, or Hanforth, as the name is variously written." The Hansfords were interested in the New World even as early as May 23, 1609 for on that date a document reads "The second Charter to the Treasurer and Company for Virginia, erecting them unto a corporation and Body Politic, and for further enlargement and explanations of the privileges of the said Company and the first Colony of Virginia etc.-----" and John Hansford's name was among the list of persons given in the second Charter of the Company. (18)

John Hansford's will was written May 9, 1654 and proved November 24, 1661. (19) This and the inventory given show him to have been a man of considerable wealth. (20) Among his possessions were fourteen slaves listed by name, silver tankards, silver cups, silver spoons, sixteen pewter trench plates, silver sack cups, ten leather chairs, cattle, heifers, a young mare, and a looking glass. Besides naming his wife Elizabeth, he named his children: 1. John²; 2. William²; 3. Elizabeth²; 4. Thomas²; 5. Mary²; 6. Charles²; 7. Margaret².

(~~and before 1667~~). Also mentioned was Robert Jones, the tutor for his children. Margaret² Hansford married Edward Taylor of Surrey Co. Va. and had 6 children. She m. early William Harris - He was as Margaret Harris is in Surrey Co. Va. J.H.

After the death of Major Hansford, the widow married Edward Lockey, as has been stated before. One finds that on April 24, 1667 "I, Edward Lockley (or Lockey) of York Parish, have given, granted, bargained-----to Thomas Hansford of York-Hampton all the estate right and interest-----lying and being in York-Hampton which afore belonged-----right of Elizabeth my now wife, which she inherited from John Hansford Sr.-----land unto the said Thomas Hansford of York-Hampton Parish be one of the sons of John Hansford, deceased." (21)

Regarding the property which he had, the record says "whereas Mr. John Hansford Sr. formerly of Chiskiack, County of York, Virginia, by his last will----did thereby give and bequeath unto his oldest sons, John and William six hundred acres of land on Claybank Creek-----and to his two younger sons, Charles, land on Felgate's Creek which he bought of Mrs. Weston's daughter-----and Thomas etc.----" (22) These younger sons inherited six hundred and fifty acres "lying and being in York and Warwick Counties" (23) and situated near Felgate's Creek.

Elizabeth (Hansford) Lockey's will was written December 24, 1675 and was probated January 16, 1675/6. In this she named her Hansford children and several grandchildren. (24) In part the will states "my grandchild, Elizabeth, the daughter of my son William Hansford, one silver---being marked E.H.---

---my grandchild, John Robins, one Negro by the name of Black Betty
----I give unto Walter Robins and his heirs the first child that the said Negro shall (bear)--- a prominent merchant in York County and was brother to John Lockey, a merchant in England. He was administrator of Capt. Francis Morgan's estate in York Co. in 1657. In 1659 he married Elizabeth, widow of John Read, deceased; Oct. 10, 1661 he married Elizabeth, widow of Major John Hansford. He died without children and left a large estate to collaterals; he gave a plantation called Morgan's Plantation to his "cousin" (a term which usually meant "nephew") Isaac Collier, son of Isaac Collier Sr.; Read's Plantation was lent to wife Elizabeth for life - then to Isaac Collier Jr. also to him a plantation - 320 A. - at Mattapony, bought of John Madison (in King William Co.) - legacies were left to Isaac Collier Jr. to the 3 daughters of his nephew Edward Lockey viz: Mary, Anne and Judith Lockey & to Wm Carter, son of Francis Carter.

So Elizabeth lived at least 6 years at the Read Plantation. It was there that her son Thomas Hansford was arrested and "taken" by Gov. Berkeley's forces during Bacon's Rebellion. (I. H.)

Part II. Children of John and Elizabeth Hansford

I. ² John ^I Hansford, son of John Hansford, inherited land in Gloucester on the Claybank Creek from his father. He married Rebecca -----and died before 1671, because Thomas Sewell married the widow of John Hansford before that date. There were several children. (25)
 This record bearing the date September 22, 1671 is self explanatory:
 "Whereas Jno Hansford deceased did by his will give and bequeath unto William Hansford and John Hansford his two sons and to their heirs forever six hundred acres of land at Clay Bank Creek in Gloucester County. And whereas there was no division made between them before the death of Jno Hansford the sonne who by his will gave the same to Rebecca his wife with whome Thomas Seawell intermarried and whereas William Hansford sued the same Seawell in this court for possession of the said moiety of the said land do to him as survivor. It is after much debate ordered that an equal division according to value be made of said moiety of the said land into three equal parts and the said Seawell to have first choice in right of Dower for his said wife and that the charges be drawn up of plaintiff and defend-ent and to be equally borne between them."

Elizabeth Hansford Lockey remembered "Mary Hansford, the natural daughter of John Hansford." John Hansford had already died because the grandmother desired her own daughter, Mary Robins to accept the responsibility of the previously mentioned Mary Hansford, after her death.

wise was given land in Gloucester (the father had nine hundred and fifty acres there and these two sons received the bulk of it) by his father's will. Since most of Gloucester County records were destroyed during the War Between the States, there are few facts available concerning Gloucester Hansfords. Elizabeth Hansford Lockey (mother of William and John) named "Elizabeth Hansford, daughter of my son William Hansford" in her will. In Petsworth Parish Book 1677-1793, page 3 a William Hansford is listed as a vestryman under date of August 4, 1677. It indicates on page 116 that the vestrymen were trying to agree with Charles Hansford to get two hundred acres of land and the date was September 22, 1713. A little later, October 2, 1728, Elizabeth Hansford was paid three hundred pounds for keeping and boarding Ruth Robaton. (page 207)

Polly Cary Mason in Records of Colonial Gloucester County Virginia has contributed the following disconnected facts about Hansfords in that area:

Elizabeth Jones Hansford's will (York Co. Va. Deeds, Orders, Wills No 6 p 39)
"My son William Hansford - that estate of land now in the possession of William Coman, lying, situated, & being in Bruton Parish, being my right and divided as being the surviving child of Mr Richard Jones, my father, deceased.
I give unto my daughter Elizabeth Hansford and her heirs forever, that estate of land now in the possession of John B., situated, lying and being in Hampton Parish adjoining on the land of Mrs Thomas Barbour, due to me as the surviving child of my above mentioned father, Mr Richard Jones, deceased.
I give unto my son Thomas and daughter Mary Hansford their estate of land whereon I now live, whereof is in the possession of William Hatton, my now tenant, to them & their heirs forever.
I give to my son John Hansford that estate in New Kent County wherein patented by my mother Elizabeth Jones, in the right of my brother Richard Jones deceased (doth now descend to me as his only sister)

I give and bequeath to my kinsman William Coman, the benefit and profit on that plantation whereon he liveth for seven years - my will is that out of the estate he purchased one woman servant to attend (to wait on) my son John Hansford, whom it hath pleased God to disable - that 500 pounds tobacco - cash. be paid annually to William Coman for his care in looking after him - after his decease to be void.

As to my personal estate I devise my will that the same be equally divided among my children
As to my children considering their ages, not proving who is better to place them, having now allowed - viz: To Mr William Coman my son John; to my beloved Brother Mr Charles Hansford - Thomas and Mary; to Mr David Condon - my daughter Elizabeth; my son William whom I declare awfully to look after them - to bring them up in the nurture and fear of the Lord -

I do appoint my loving Brother Mr Charles Hansford, my loving of neighbors Mr David Condon, executors of this my last will and Testament; Mr John Barbery to be overseer of this will ¹⁶⁴⁵ Thomas Hansford, the third son of John Hansford, was born about 1646. A court order dated April 24, 1667 (26) shows his step-father, Edward Lockey, who was his guardian, relinquished all claim to Thomas' property. Also another court order dated November 12, 1667 indicates that he was of age and took possession of his estate both real and personal. A deposition he made dated January 9, 1671/2 states that he was twenty-five years of age.

Thomas Hansford married Elizabeth Jones and there is a letter relative to this written June 15, 1659. (27) A court order was issued April 10, 1667 against Mr. John Roberts, guardian of Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Richard Jones, deceased, telling him to give his ward's estate to Thomas Hansford since he had intermarried with the said Elizabeth. (Richard Jones' will was proved November 12, 1660 in York County). Elizabeth Jones Hansford heired considerable property because her brothers, Gabriel and Richard Jones died without issue and she became "the sole heir of Richard Jones." (28)

Thomas Hansford petitioned the General Court of Colonial Virginia, asking that he be given the estate of "his wife's brother Richard Jones---lately deceased before he came to full age and leaving an estate behind him." This request was granted by the Court and Thomas² Hansford and Elizabeth Jones were married before April 1667 and both were dead 1676 and by Feb 1677 so within a nine year span the five children were born (1667-1676) that would make William³ Hansford, the oldest, born around 1667-1668.

(Note the unhappy situation of the family: The husband killed for belief in representative government; 5 orphaned children and one of these afflicted; family debts; a home to be completed; personal and real estate confiscated (the latter given back) by a tyrannical Governor; a sick wife/widow and mother. and he was directed to "take unto his custody ye estate and that he enjoy the same". March 4, 1674/5 (29)

A later record concerns a case between Thomas Hansford and Mrs Mary Huberd probably over a debt of Gabriel Jones, his brother-in-law. The Court decided that Richard Jones' estate was not liable for Gabriel Jones' debts. (30)

Thomas Hansford was Commander-in-chief of four counties and President of the Court of Sequestration. (31) He is known in history as an active participant in Bacon's Rebellion and as having been a martyr to the cause of American liberty. An excellent article written by Mrs. Annie Tucker Tyler, which has already been mentioned, pays high tribute to Thomas Hansford. Her treatise is a compliment to the Hansford family. Several historians, this year (1957), have written most favorably about the participants in Bacon's Rebellion and classroom textbooks are giving more emphasis to the stand the Virginians took in the interest of liberty and their right as Englishmen at that period in history.

Bacon's Rebellion was the first attempt of the American Colonists to resist with the use of arms, the designated authorities of the Mother Country. This happened nearly one hundred years prior to the adoption of the Declaration of Independence. The rebellion was not an attempt to establish a new or independent form of government, but was an armed objection to the policy of the Governor, Sir William Berkley, who would not make any redress for certain grievances suffered by the Colonists. Indian massacres along the frontier occurred and the Governor refused to have punished the savages. Navigation laws which gave England a monopoly over the Anglo-American trade caused discontent among the colonists. Religion also played a part and the York County records show that on September 10, 1659, the sheriff and his deputies were ordered to prevent all private and other meetings of the "turbulent people" called Quakers. Any violation of this order meant imprisonment, yet some continued to exercise their convictions and when Court convened in York County August 26, 1661 two persons complained that "several Quakers met the 25th instant in the woods" to which the Governor ordered "if these hereafter offend in like kind the said order be put in effectual execution against her".(32)

It was for such causes as these (inalienable rights we call them today) that Thomas Hansford united himself with several other leaders to protest openly against England. Nathaniel Bacon--the leader---died very unexpectedly, and Thomas Hansford was captured in Yorktown at the home of Col. George Reade. He was carried to the Eastern Shore of Virginia where he was tried, convicted, and hanged November 13, 1676 (33) and we are told he "professed repentance and contrition for all the sins of his past life, but refused to acknowledge what was charged against him as rebellion to be one of these sins, desiring the people present to take notice that he died a loyal subject and lover of his country and that he had never taken arms but for the destruction of the Indians who had murdered so many Christians."(34) He further begged that he be shot like a soldier and not be hanged like a dog.

Issue of Thomas Hansford were: 1. John³, who was afflicted²⁵ and died young; 2. William³; 3. Mary³; 4. Elizabeth³; and 4. Thomas³.

On March 31, 1676/7 the York County records show that the Governor ordered that the county court be held "in the house lately belonging to Thomas Hansford, whose estate for his rebellion and treason is forfeited to his sacred Majesty." This however, was not taken from his widow and children as the Commissioners sent here from England to find out the true conditions, in their report beseeched the King to restore to the families of those executed in the rebellion their homes. So, on November 13, 1678 a Commission of Administration for the estate of Thomas Hansford was named and Mr. Charles Hansford (a brother of the deceased one) and Mr. David Condon assumed this responsibility. (Charles Hansford and David Condon had already qualified for settling the estate of Elizabeth Jones Hansford, for she lived less than a year after the death of her husband and her will bears the date February 8, 1677/8)(35) Probated April 24, 1677 - but she died in February -

An agreement, dated February 26, 1677/8 was made between the administrators and the Justices representing the County by which the house "lately belonging to Mrs. Hansford" was leased to the county for one thousand pounds of tobacco a year, an agreement which continued until January 20, 1679/80 when the place of adjournment was changed to the French Ordinary not far distant, on the York Road half way between Williamsburg and Yorktown. Hence the Halfway House in York records & even today on the Meapora Station.

Folliott who died in York County in 1690.(37) Charles Hansford was a Justice of Peace in York County and is mentioned in the court proceedings September 15, 1698 as such.(38)

The office of Justice of Peace during Colonial times carried responsibility and prestige. A Bullitin of the Virginia State Library Vol. XIV. Nos. 2 and 3 (edited by H.R. McIlwaine, 1922) had an article on "Justices of Peace of Colonial Virginia" written by Edward Ingle. This explained how the appointment was made by the Governor. The writer stated that the "tendency of the office of Justice of Peace to become by custom only, hereditary was to some extent apparent. That was natural in a social Constitution such as that which developed during a century and half of land acquisition in Colonial Virginia---". He further said that judging from the list of names "belonging to the years immediately preceeding the American Revolution, the Colonial Justice of Peace fairly met the requirements of the Act of Assembly in 1662 that they were to be 'of the most able, honest, and judicious persons of the County'." (Hening II. p 62) "Justices of Peace, in positions of honor and service and not emolument, represented the genuine Aristoi of Colonial Virginia."

He is spoken of as "Captain Charles Hansford" and he was still Justice of Peace February 24, 1701 and heard a complaint between Thomas Hansford and Edward Preser.(39) He died before July 24, 1702 when his will was proved.(40)

Hansford and his wife, Elizabeth Jones Hansford, ³ B. about 1667-68 (parents married Aug 1664)

William Hansford, the eldest son, as the document states, married Mary Morce, who may have been a sister of David Morce, since William called him "brother-in-law" in his will. (42) This will was written October 8, 1708 and was probated July 25, 1709; in it the writer named his wife Mary and his four children: William⁴; Thomas⁴; David⁴; and ~~Elizabeth~~ ^{Elizabeth} Hansford. All of these were under age when the will was written. Here are parts of it:

"William Hansford of Bruton Parish, in York County-----

My will is that my now dwelling plantation and the land thereon belonging be equally divided between my two sons William and Thomas and their heirs forever, lawfully begotten of their bodies, when they shall accomplish the age of twenty and one years. My will and desire is that my eldest son shall have his first choice when division is made-----if either of my said sons, William and Thomas happen to depart this life either before he accomplishes his age of one and twenty years or have issue of his body lawfully to be begotten and to enjoy the same, then I give and bequeath their part unto my son David Hansford and his heirs lawfully begotten of his body, provided my loving wife, Mary Hansford is to enjoy her thirds of my said plantation and land during her natural life.

My will is that-----no manner of waste of timber-----whatsoever shall be made use of but what is necessary for the plantation use and my will is that after my decease none of my lands shall be cleared till my two sons come of age.

I give and bequeath to my four children my Negroes as followeth : Mingo, David, Venus, Robin, Moll, Tom, and Gabe equally to be divided between my four children as they come to their respective ages or day of marriage which shall first happen-----and my four children shall be maintained out of the labor of the afore said Negroes.

I give and bequeath unto my loving wife, Mary Hansford my two Negro men as followeth: Jack and Robin.

My will is that thirty pounds sterling be paid to my daughter Elizabeth Hansford and thirty pounds sterling to my son David Hansford when they come of age or marry, this sixty pounds to be paid out of my estate before a division is made.

All the rest of my estate not herein and hereby given and bequeathed I leave to my loving wife and to my aforesaid children to be equally divided.

My plantation where Gabriell Maupin now lives be equally divided between my daughter, Elizabeth Hansford and my son David Hansford-----my beloved brother-in-law William Hewitt and my beloved brother-in-law David Morce and my friend Richard Kendall overseers of this my last will and testament-----that if my loving wife should depart before my children come of age then my aforesaid overseer shall take my children and their estate into hand.

Thomas Hansford as next friend of William Hansford, deceased, by his petition, set forth that Richard Hall, who intermarried with the relict and executor of said William, doth daily destroy and embezzle the orphans' estate without having given any security for the same; it is therefore ordered that the sheriff summon said Richard Hall to appear at next Court ----- January 25, 1711

p. 131 (Ibid.) same case came up Feb 8, 1711/12 and said Hall was destroying the timber trees & other trees growing on the land and making sales thereof - embezzling the orphans estate - without rendering account - Hall said this was false charge about selling timber but admitted to giving no security for the children's estate Court ordered him to do this.

The appraisal and inventory of William Hansford's estate was recorded August 24, 1709. (43)

William Hansford was a vestryman at Bruton Parish Church as shown by the minutes of May 22, 1704. His death (1709) is likewise registered in this book. (44)

There is a deed between William Hansford and Mary his wife of Bruton Parish and James Whaley for thirty-one acres of land for which thirty-one pounds ^{sterling} were paid. The date was January 4, 1699. (45)

Another deed tells something of the area where he lived: date January 22, 1708 "James Hubbard of Bruton Parish and Elizabeth his wife and William Hansford of the same parish, for the sum of five shillings of lawful money of England to them paid by the said William Hansford ----- one tract of land lying and being in the aforesaid parish and county, containing sixty acres, being bound----- a deed of bargain and sale made between the said William Hansford and Mary his wife of the one part and said James Hubbard of the other----- that tract or parcel of land adjoining to the plantation of the said William Hansford being bounded as follows: beginning at the first great bottom betwixt the said Hansford and the said Hubbard's plantation, the said bottom to be the dividing line, until it meets with the line of William Harris and go along the said Harris' line til it meets the line of Richard Kondall, thence along that line into the said William Hansford's line, which said tract or parcel contains by estimation sixty acres (more or less) together with all buildings, barns, stables, orchards, gardens, and woods, pastures, underwoods, waters etc.----- to the only use and behoof of the said William Hansford and his heirs forever-----" (46)

Let us consider the children of William Hansford:

⁴
I. William Hansford was under age when his father died in 1709. ~~He was born probably around 1690.~~ He married Mary Holt, daughter of Captain Thomas Holt and Mary Holt his wife of Surry County. In Thomas Holt's will proved March 17, 1730, he named his daughter Mary as wife of William Hansford; also his grand-daughter Martha Hansford. (47) William and Mary Hansford were cousins. He died before August 20, 1733 because on that date "on the recommendation of William Robinson, Gent. it is ordered that Mary Hansford, relict of William Hansford, deceased, be summoned to appear in next court to prove her said husband's will." (48) Under the date November 19, 1733 "Mary Hansford made oath that William Hansford departed this life without making a will as far as she knows or believes and on her motion and-----bound for her just and faithful administratrix of the said deceased ones estate-----." (49) On the same date (November 19, 1733) the settlement was made and signed by Mary Hansford .(50) The widow Hansford later married----- Steele and in her will dated October 30, 1765 and proved July 20, 1767 she named her Hansford heirs: "I give and bequest to my dutiful son, Lewis Hansford, all and every Negro I am now possessed of----- all my household goods-----and if he dies, the above named articles are to be divided between his four children or the survivors of them". (51) She named Lewis Hansford as executor.

William⁴ Hansford was probably born around 1690, was married to Mary Holt when Thomas Holt wrote his will March 1730 and there was one child Martha Hansford by this marriage then. This would indicate that William Hansford and Mary Holt were married around 1728-30.

The widow was somewhat aggressive when William's estate was settled 1733 and "didn't know anything about a will —"
Lewis Hansford was born between 1731 and 1733 (Lm's death)

When Captain Thomas Holt made his will (referred to earlier) he named his granddaughter, Martha Hansford and it appears that Lewis was not born then; when Mary Holt Hansford Steele made her will, she did not mention a daughter, which leads one to believe that the girl had died.

⁵ born between 1731-1733 (grandfather's will + father's death.)
 Lewis Hansford moved to the Norfolk area; he also was engaged in the mercantile business in Smithfield. He married Anne Taylor, a widow with a son, Robert Taylor, October 3, 1753.(52) In the William and Mary College Quarterly, Vol. 13, series 2, page 154 the author says that Anne Taylor was the widow of Archibald Taylor of Norfolk and probably a daughter of Richard Blaws.

 Lewis Hansford's name appeared often in the Virginia Gazette. An article appeared in the December 13, 1770 issue stating that a piece of land would be "sold by public vender on Thursday the 27th at the borough of Norfolk-----a lot of land at the lower end of the said borough, near Town Point, joining the land, late the property of Col. Robert Tucker and the land whereon Mr. Lewis Hansford now lives, bounded on the south by the main street and on the north by the back creek; sixty-five feet wide on the main street and holds same width to the back creek and is between three and four hundred feet long. Credit until the first of June will be allowed for one half the money and until October 10 following for the remainder."

Lewis Hansford went to London for five or six months.(53) During this time Mr. James Holt and Mr. Robert Carter Nicholas, acting by their power of Attorney and "by his particular desire" from York County records: "Lewis Hansford, apprenticed to Samuel Gordon, merchant, 1740."

(In 1786 when he wrote his will, one learns that he followed the mercantile business - had a store in Smithfield, Isle of Wight County, Va.)

offered at public auction "one lot of land with the appurtenances whereon Mrs. Steele lately lived, situated on the main street below the Capital, in the City of Williamsburg, the sale to be on the premises. At the same time and place will likewise be sold a plantation belonging to Mr. Hansford containing about one hundred and fifty acres, lying in the County of York, and adjoining the land of the Hon. John Blair, Esq. and Mr. Frederick Bryon-----also two other tracts of land containing four hundred acres each, the one lying in Albemarle County and the other is Louisa." This appeared in the May 31, 1767 edition of the Virginia Gazette and the auction was to have been June 5th.

The November 5, 1767 issue carried another item which stated that Lewis Hansford had for sale about one thousand acres of "extraordinary good land" in Albemarle County and within a few miles of Charlottesville; also he had for disposal a new house and lot in Williamsburg next door to Mr. Lewis' store."

Norfolk County records show that Thomas Williamson of Norfolk left "to his good friend Lewis Hansford four hundred acres of land in Louisa and four hundred acres in Albemarle". (Will proved April 16, 1752) Some of the land auctioned off on June 5, 1767 apparently were these tracts.

This notice of interest was in the April 4, 1766 issue of The Virginia Gazette: For London, "The ship Union burthen 360 hogsheads, now lying at Norfolk, will take in tobacco, on liberty, at seven pounds sterling a tun or six pounds if delivered along side at Norfolk. She will certainly sail sometime in May."

signed---Lewis Hansford and Co.

Lewis Hansford died in Smithfield, Virginia and his will dated May 24, 1786 was proved July 6, 1786.(54) He named his wife Anne; his son Cary Heslot Hansford; and his daughter Anne, wife of Phillip Barraud of Williamsbury. The executors were: son, Cary; friends, Robert Taylor and James Taylor.

The appraisal of the goods in his store filled seven pages in the large record book in Isle of Wight County Clerk's office; this was recorded February 1, 1787.

Although Lewis Hansford named only two children in his will, his mother Mary Holt Hansford Steele remembered his four children in hers. I believe his issue was as follows because of the accompanying evidence:

1. Cary Heslot Hansford (M.D.), named in his father's will, was born around 1759. He is buried in St. Paul's Churchyard in Norfolk, Virginia and the inscription on his tombstone states: "Cary H. Hansford M.D. obit 29 Oct., 1801, aet 42." Dr Hansford served three years in the State Navy as a Surgeon's Mate. He received four thousand acres of land in recognition for his services during the Revolution.(55) He married Judith-----. In Norfolk Borough Court January 25, 1802 there is recorded this: "On motion of Judith Hansford, together with Robert Taylor and Phillip Barraud as her security, she entered into bond as administratrix of the estate of Cary Hansford deceased." He had a son, Lewis Hansford

2. Anne Blaws Hansford, named in her father's will, married Dr. Phillip Barraud July 22, 1783. She was born about 1761 and died November 6, 1836.(56) I have several later generations for her line in my own notebook. They lived in Williamsburg.

~~Dr.~~ Lewis Hansford married Maria Pennock, daughter of William Pennock April 17, 1805; Phillip Barraud gave security (Norfolk Marriage Bonds). William S. Forrest wrote "I confess it is with pain that I cannot point to a male descendent of Lewis Hansford. The late Dr. Hansford, a practicing physician and an accomplished gentleman, was the last of his name in active life. He died in middle age about the year 1822, leaving two sons, of whom Casey (Carey) a promising youth, died before he reached maturity, a midshipman in the Navy; the elder resides in Philadelphia." (57) Dr Forrest also related about a group assembling in Norfolk to organize the Sons of Liberty and Lewis Hansford was a signer of the petition.

d. 1816-17
Dr. Lewis Hansford had ~~two~~ children:

(1) William Pennock Hansford, born January 14, 1813 and baptized February 11, 1813. (58) He moved to Philadelphia according to William S. Forrest.

(2) Casey (Carey?) Hansford died a young man.

December 1832-----"The heirs of Carey Hansford are allowed L.B. for service as a Surgeon's Mate in the State Navy for three years. John Floyd, Governor."

"Norfolk County Court 17 December 1832-----certified that Maria T. (P?) Hansford and William P. Hansford are the only heirs at law of Carey Hansford, Surgeon in the State Navy and are entitled to land in the proportion of one fourth to Maria and three fourths to William Hansford." Maria Hansford is mother and not sister (Hansford)

Thomas Hansford (This is the Thomas believed to have gone to Birdie, N.C. - son
Jenkins
Hansford)

There seems to be little information about Thomas Hansford, son of William Hansford and Mary Morce Hansford, his wife. According to his father's will, he was left land, but the record in York County does not indicate any disposition of this. One wonders if he moved away or if his family died out. There is neither a will nor an inventory for him or his wife. Was Edward Hansford whose will was proved February 15, 1779 his son? (Mention of a will is in the Orders Book, but the will itself is not on record in York County.) Was Henry Hansford, who obtained an attachment against the estate of Anthony Forch and for four pounds five shillings and six pence, March 19, 1764 another son or relative? (This fact also is in an Orders Book---1760-1765, page 174, but we have not seen his name mentioned any where else.)

In Seventeenth Century Isle of Wight by James Bennett Boddie on page 708, there is a statement that Thomas Hansford was one of the Justices of Peace in Bertie County, North Carolina in 1739. It further explains that although these men served or worked in North Carolina, some of them resided in Isle of Wight, Virginia. Could this have been the Thomas Hansford who had lived in York County, Virginia? After all, he had relatives in that part of Virginia. Any additional information would be appreciated. (Incest several generations m.n.c.)

David Hansford and Elizabeth Hansford were the other two children of William and Mary Morce Hansford. In studying carefully for months the records of York County, Virginia, at no time have I found David Hansford mentioned except in his father's will. The early records of neighboring James City and Warwick Counties and the City of Williamsburg were destroyed during the Civil War; so we have no way of knowing if he lived in this area of Virginia, if he died young, or if he moved away. Nor do we know anything else about Elizabeth Hansford. she married son John

Thus ends the line of William Hansford, oldest son of Thomas Hansford and his wife Elizabeth Jones Hansford.

Mary³ Hansford and William Hewitt were married before or by 1698 (a deed)

Using Hansford-Jones land for proof:

1. Francis⁴ Hansford — 200A probably the oldest since Warwick land & mill for younger brother was entrusted to him until brother of age.
2. James⁴ Hewitt — tract on Felgate's Creek.
3. John⁴ Hewitt — 200A
4. William⁴ Hewitt — the mill & Warwick tract — under age in 1731
5. Lucy⁴ Hewitt
6. Martha⁴ Hewitt married to — Wade by 1731
7. Frances⁴ Hewitt

Francis⁴ Hewitt married — and had 3 children for deed given by daughter Ann Hewitt who married Matthew Burt shows she received $66\frac{1}{3}$ acres, being $\frac{1}{3}$ of a tract.

Note: Francis⁴ Hewitt had 200A in Yorkhampton Parish

Part II. The Line Through the Daughters of Thomas² Hansford

Mary³ Hansford^I, daughter of Thomas² Hansford (John) and his wife, Elizabeth Jones Hansford, married William Hewitt, Junior. A transaction dated August 24, 1698 regards the settlement of Thomas Hansford's property and "land on the north side of the York River" was given to William Hewitt, Junior "in the right of his wife." (59)

William Hewitt and Richard Burt signed the inventory for the estate of Barthellemew Valentine, December 19, 1720. (60) William Fuller named William Hewitt and Charles Hansford as "overseers to see this my will is fulfilled." (61) A witness to the will was James Hewitt. It was written July 17, 1720 and probated September 24, 1720.

An abstract of the will of William Hewitt follows which gives the names of his children: "----my tract of land and mill situated in Warwick-----in possession of my son Francis Hewitt for bringing up the said William Hewitt until he be of age----- (something about grand-son but mutilated and hard to read)

My son James Hewitt----tract of land on Felgate's Creek now in the tenure-----of James Brooks

----my son John Hewitt the remaining two hundred acres----

----my daughter Lucy Hewitt---

----my daughter Martha Wade---

Richard⁴ Burt married Catherine Moody, daughter of Philip Moody
On June 15, 1719 "Philip Moody came to Court and made oath that Richard Burt departed this life without making a will as far as he knows and believes and he, having together with John Sedbome, Philip Lightfoot his securities entered into & acknowledged their bond — for his just and faithful administration of the Burt estate." (York Co. Va. Record no 15 1716-1720 part 2 p. 438)

Later, in the same year, (November 6, 1719) Philip Moody wrote his own will and in this he made provisions for his three Burt grandchildren. He expressed a desire that they be brought up to read and learn those things fitting for women "out of the profits of the estate that belongs to them". This will was probated the following March.
(York Co. Va. Orders & Wills 1716-1720 p 577.)

-----rest of my estate I give to my children James Hewitt, Francis Hewitt, Elizabeth Hubbard, Mary Powel, Lucy Hewitt, Martha Wade, Frances Hewitt to be divided among them."

Written November 23, 1731; probated February 19, 1732. (62)

Assuming that Mary Hansford was the only wife that William Hewitt had, this will indicates that they had at least nine children.
Francis Hewitt's inventory was made in York County in 1741. The Charles Parish Register carries this information:

John Hewitt, son of John by Martha, was born July 30, 1743

John Hewitt, son of John, died October 7, 1743

William Hewitt, son of John and Martha, died September 12, 1751

Elizabeth Hansford³, daughter of Thomas Hansford (John² I) and Elizabeth Jones Hansford, his wife, married Richard Burt. Note

Cosby and Judith his wife to Samuel Hill "land in possession of

This transaction is self explanatory.

Elizabeth³ Hansford Burt (Thomas², John¹) had one son, namely Richard⁴ Burt.

Richard⁴ Burt and Catherine, his wife had three children:

1. Judith⁵ Burt, who married John Cosby
2. Elizabeth⁵ Burt, who married William Fuller⁽¹⁾ Samuel Hill II.
she died 1793 + left a will in York Co. →
3. Martha⁵ Burt, who married first ----Garra (Garrow) and second, -----Mackintosh (also written MacIntosh) of Warwick.

The marriages of the last two women are proved by a legal transaction when William and Elizabeth Fuller and Martha Macintosh asked for a division of the tract of land heired by them and their sister Judith. She and her husband, John Cosby, sold their share to Samuel Hill as has been stated here before. Samuel Hill died and his son, Samuel Hill heired his portion; yet the property had never been divided as late as June 16, 1746. Thus, these people asked for a division. The Court named commissioners to do this and named a guardian, John Hansford, to act in the behalf of the younger Samuel Hill, who was under twenty-one years of age. At a court held September 15, 1746 the commissioners made their report and a division of the property which actually amounted to two hundred and forty acres, was satisfactorily made.(64)

Such statements as these are in the last named legal transaction: "your crators, William Fuller and Elizabeth his wife of this county and Martha Mackintosh of the county of Warwick---widow--"

Garra, Judith Cosby, and Elizabeth Fuller. (65)

³After Elizabeth Hansford Burt (wife of Richard Burt, the Elder) died, he evidently married again, because he named two sons and many grandchildren in his will which was proved November 18, 1745. The court record given here states that Richard the younger was her "sole and only heir."

⁵Judith Burt, who married John Cosby, had four children:

⁶(a) John Cosby

⁶(b) James Cosby

⁶(c) Mary Cosby

⁶(d) Charles Cosby (Judith ⁵₁, Richard ⁴, Elizabeth ³, Thomas ², John)

We learn about these children from a court proceeding in York County dated July 20, 1752 which states in part: "We whose names are underwritten did meet and according to the best of our judgement did divide the slaves and personal estate of John Cosby, deceased to the tenor of the said order in the manner following viz:

To the widow as her right of Dower two slaves Peter and Dinah--

To John, the eldest son of the deceased-----

To the second son, James-----

To Mary, the daughter-----

To Charles, the youngest son of John Cosby-----

To the widow and her four children -----."

(a) ⁶John Cosby ⁵(⁴Judith Burt Cosby, ³Richard Burt, ²Elizabeth Hansford Burt, ¹Thomas Hansford, John Hansford) wrote his will March 22, 1788 and it was proved April 22, 1788. In this he named his children:

- a. ⁷Susannah Cosby
- b. ⁷Martha Cosby
- c. ⁷Samuel Cosby
- d. ⁷Frances Cosby (67)

Samuel Hill, in his will, left money to help with the education of Susannah Cosby, daughter of John Cosby.(68)

(b) ⁶James Cosby ⁵son of ⁴Judith Burt Cosby (³Richard Burt, ²Elizabeth Hansford Burt, ¹Thomas Hansford, John Hansford) has issue:

a. ⁷Mark Cosby. This is told in the following deed: "July 5, 1796-----Mark Cosby---of Williamsburg---and Rowland Williams of York-Hampton---tract containing ninety acres---bounded on the North by land of Elizabeth Cannon, on the South by lands of John Moore, West by lands of James Hubbard, and on the East by lands of Elizabeth Wright-----it being the tract-----which James Cosby, father of the

Part III. The Line Through Thomas Hansford

³Thomas ²Hansford¹, youngest son of Thomas Hansford (John¹) and Elizabeth Jones Hansford, married Sarah-----. Issue of these were:

- ⁴1. Thomas Hansford
- ⁴2. William Hansford
- ⁴3. Elizabeth Hansford
- ⁴4. Sarah Hansford
- ⁴5. Mary Hansford
- ⁴6. Martha Hansford

³Here is a portion of Thomas Hansford's will:

"Item. I give my soul unto the hands of Almighty God, my Savior, and my body to the earth from whence it came to be buried in Christian burial as my executors hereafter named shall think fit.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son Thomas Hansford the seat of land that I now live on in York County, to him and his heirs forever and a feather bed and furniture and two cows and calves.

Item. My will and desire is that my wife sell my land in Warwick County for money to pay my debts and for she and my children.

hand and seal the 24th day of December 1719."

"This last will and testament of Thomas Hansford was presented in court by Sarah and Elizabeth Hansford, executors therein named----- and proved June 20, 1720."(70)

When court convened on July 18, 1720, they presented an inventory of his estate.(71) Because an inventory helps the reader have a better understanding of articles used by our forefathers and the value placed upon such, this one is being included here:

Thomas Hansford's inventory:" 4 feather beds with ruggs, blankets, sheets, and pillows; 2 falling tables; 1 large table and form; 1 small square table; 4 leather chairs and 4 rush leather bottom chairs; 3 chests; 2 trunks; 1 desk; 1 pale; 2 piggins; 1 butter tub; 2 spinning wheels and wool cards; cart wheels; 3 iron pots; 2 pot hooks; 2 spits; large iron dog; 2 pair fire tongs; 1 spice mortar and pestle; 1 brass chafing dish; 1 iron pestle; 1 frying pan; 6 hoes; 2 axes; 1 brass skillet; 3 brass candle sticks; 2 dozen glass bottles; 2 earthen butter pots; 3 earthen pans; 5 tin pans; 8 pewter dishes; 13 plates; 2 dozen spoons; 1 large pewter basin; 1 poute pad; 1 tankard; 1 salt seller; 1 looking glass; 6 books, the half of an old seine; 4 old fishing lines; 1 tobacco cask; 1 powdering tub; 7 bread trays; 1 saddle; a case of grisballs and holders; a sword and a pair of boots; a suit of Drugget cloth, 1 Camblet coat; 1 linen waistcoat and breeches; 1 loose coat; 1 pair leather breeches; 1 hatt; a periwig; 2 tablecloths; 6 napkins; 2 towels; small silver cup; 13 head of cattle; 1 spade mare; 11 head of hogs; 1 razor and hone; 1 comb; a Negro man named Jo; a Negro girl named Kate; 9000 syprress shingles;

At the court held December 19, 1720, the above inventory and appraisement was presented and admitted to record.

Record shows that Thomas and Sarah Hansford each were due money for attending court and serving as witnesses in a case.(73) Other instances when he appears in the court records are November 19, 1716 when he was a witness to Robert Harris' will.(74) On July 20, 1719 he and two others were named to make an inventory and settlement for Abraham Smith, deceased without a will.(75)

Consider now the children of Thomas³ Hansford (Thomas², John^I) :
⁴Thomas Hansford married Elizabeth-----. She was tried in York County court July 19, 1725 and fined for singing a song against the King. A note about this incident in Tyler's Historical and Genealogical Quarterly Vol. 2, page 159 says she was the "wife of Thomas who was grandson of Thomas in Bacon's Rebellion." There are also records which show that Thomas⁴ and Elizabeth Hansford sold land to John Hansford. These read : a deed between Thomas Hansford of York-Hampton Parish and John Hansford dated October 3, 1729----- "that Thomas Hansford for divers good causes and considerations and the sum of five shillings to him paid by John Hansford----- (page badly mutilated)-----William Hewitt on the Northeast side----- bounded by the main road which said parcel of land was given to the said Thomas Hansford by his deceased father Thomas Hansford's last will and testament as records of York will make appear-----". It also states that "at a court held for York December 15, 1729 Thomas Hansford presented and acknowledged his deed of release for lands in this county to John Hansford at whose motion the same was admitted to record.-----Elizabeth the wife of the said Thomas Hansford being first examined privily voluntarily relinquished right of dowery---"---and the deeds were admitted to record.(76)

(76) York County Deed Book No. 4 (1729-1740) p.6.

" between John Hansford of York-Hampton and Thomas Hansford of the same area-----Thomas for and in consideration of five shillings paid by John-----hath bargained and sold to John Hansford a parcel of land seventy-five acres bounding on William Hewitt on the South-west side lying and being in York which parcel or tract of land was given Thomas by his deceased father, Thomas Hansford's last will and testament-----to have and to hold the said tract of land forever--"

Court held December 15, 1729,(77).

(This seems to indicate when ownership of the land granted by the original patent-----Felgate's Creek and Upper York County area--went out of the Thomas Hansford branch of the family, while the other Hansfords still maintained large tracts. From that time to the present time, Thomas Hansford⁴ descendents have lived in the middle and lower part of the County of York.)

In June 1742, the York County court ordered John Hansford, Charles Hansford, Issac Collier, and Nathaniel Buck to see about the estate of Thomas Hansford, deceased.(78) A later account shows that Sarah Hansford, widow of Thomas Hansford, received nine pounds, eight shillings from the estate. The inventory gave the date March 21, 1742 and the total value placed on the estate was 107 pounds, 8 shillings, 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ pence and was entered to record.(79) I have no record of Thomas Hansford's marriage or marriages, but I am accepting the fact that he had two wives until I find proof to refute this. He died before March 21, 1742.

⁴ Thomas Hansford did not leave a will and there is not available at this time a complete list of his children. However, on September 9, 1760, in the York County court records, we find that Matthew Hubbard, Thomas Hansford, Junior and Young Moreland were named to appraise the estate of Mary Evans, deceased.⁽⁸⁰⁾ The Evans and Morelands were families who lived "down the County" in Charles Parish where ⁴ Thomas Hansford had moved. Since there were no other Hansfords in that part of the county at that time (Charles Parish), it is conclusive that ⁴ Thomas Hansford had a ⁵ son Thomas Hansford.

⁵ Thomas Hansford married Hannah Howard, the widow of Henry Howard before September 1764. In York County Orders 1760-1765, page 284 this is recorded: "an assignment of Thomas Hansford and Hannah his wife her dower in the slaves of her late husband Henry Howard deceased was returned and established by the court." The date was September 17, 1764. (The Howards also lived in the lower part of the county.)

In the August 1, 1777 issue of the Virginia Gazette this item appeared: "Ten pounds reward. Lost by the subscriber on Friday the 4th instant (July) a red Morocco leather pocketbook with about twenty eight pounds paper currency, besides accounts and other papers of consequence, amounting in the whole to upwards one hundred pounds, one five pound bill of the James River bank notes, one bill of thirty dollars, one of ten dollars, one of eight dollars, one of seven dollars and one of six dollars. Thomas Hansford.

Among the taxpayers 1782-87, Thomas Hansford and Thomas Hansford, Junior of York County are both listed. (81) In the list of taxable property in the lower precinct of Charles Parish- for 1784, Thomas Hansford had two slaves, namely Grace and Joe. Thomas Hansford, Junior had one slave, Hannah over 16 years of age; and one named Rhoda under 16 years of age. (82)

This tax list is significant in that it shows Thomas⁵ Hansford had a son, Thomas⁶ Hansford. Other proof of this fact is in a York County court order dated April 1, 1784 "on motion of Thomas Hansford and Thomas Hansford, Junior witnesses for John Goodwin at the suit of Jane Powell, they are due fifty pounds of tobacco." (83) Also in the Charles Parish Register when children were born to the younger Thomas there was written "-----the son of Thomas Hansford, Jr. and Martha-----".

There is no will, but the York records show that his estate started to be settled October 1785 with Elizabeth Hansford, his wife administratrix.(85) This was completed July 17, 1786 when John Patrick, William Robinson, Willis Wilson, and Thomas Hunt or any three of these were asked to appraise the estate.(86) An expense account shows a balance of two hundred forty-six pounds, eleven shillings, and seven pence due the estate. This inventory is included because it shows items considered important in those days. Also names of people indicate associates of the deceased one.(87)

Concerning Elizabeth Lilburne Hansford, York County records show that Elizabeth Presson married Reuben Lilburne May 14, 1772 (York Marriage Bonds) .He died August 1780 according to the Charles Parish Register. On November 24, 1785 "on the motion of Elizabeth Hansford who made oath according to the law and with William Patrick and John Hay as security entered into and acknowledged their bond in the penalty of five hundred pounds conditioned as the law directs, certificate is granted her for obtaining letters of administration on the estate of Thomas Hansford deceased, her deceased husband , in due form."(York County Orders Book No. 5, 1784-1787, page 253) In the same Orders Book on page 340, this is found: "on motion of Elizabeth Hansford, it is ordered that Merritt Moore, Robert Sheild, William Patrick, and John Patrick or any three of them do examine state, and settle an account of the administration of Reuben Lilburne deceased and make a report thereof to the court." At the same court session "on motion of Elizabeth Hansford it is ordered that Herritt Moore, Robert Sheild, William Patrick, and John Patrick or any three of them do examine, state, and settle an account of the administration of Thomas Hansford estate and make report thereof to the court." Then on page 404 (same Orders Book) on February 19, 1787 this statement was made : "Testaments of the Estates of Thomas Hansford and Reuben Lilburne deceased were returned and ordered to be recorded."

Elizabeth Lilburne Hansford was the daughter of Thomas and Margaret Presson of Charles Parish. Note these passages from the will of Thomas Presson: "I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Lilburn one heifer-----; I lend unto my dearly beloved wife Margaret Presson all the residue-----of my estate-----". This will was written February 10, 1774, and was probated May 15, 1786.(89)

⁶ Thomas ⁵ Hansford (Thomas ⁴, Thomas ³, Thomas ², John ¹) married Martha-----, who may have been a Hopkins. Mrs Levenia Hansford Gage told the writer that she has always understood that her great, great grand-mother was a Hopkins and that her brother had something to do with the erection of Johns-Hopkins Hospital in Maryland.

⁶ Thomas and Martha Hansford had the following children:

 1. Lewis Hansford, born September 3, 1783; baptized March 7, 1784.

(89) York County Wills and Inventories No. 23 (1783-1811) p.110.

2. Thomas Hansford⁷, born September 14, 1784; baptized June 26, 1785. (Charles Parish Register)

3. Elizabeth Hansford⁷

4. Hannah Hansford also called Joanna (note her grandmother's name was Hannah!)⁷

All four of these children were named in court proceedings when their father's estate was settled.

Thomas Hansford did not own land until after he was married some time. During the time he rented and here is given record of this fact: January 1, 1787 a transaction between James Dixon of the Parish of Charles, and the County of York, planter and Elizabeth his wife of the one part and Thomas Hansford of the same parish and county, tailor, of the other part-----

Witnesseth for and in consideration of the yearly rents, covenants, and agreements hereinafter mentioned to be done, performed, and fulfilled by said Thomas Hansford, they the said James Dixon and Elizabeth his wife have granted, bargained, leased. and to farm-----

To Thomas Hansford one certain tract, piece, or parcel of land and plantation whereon William Morris lately lived and containing by estimation fifty acres-----in aforesaid Parish---- bounded "at a corner pine between James Dixon, Willis Wilson, and Thomas Hunt's land and running thence down a drain to the head of a branch of Robert's Creek thence down a branch to said Creek thence up said Creek to the land marked between Dixon and Hunt, thence along said line to the beginning with all houses----etc". To have and to hold all and singular----for and during the term of fourteen years--he can fell or get timber for the use of said plantation and also liberty of felling and clearing all or any part of said land for fourteen years from the first day of January 1787-----paying four pounds current money-----. This indenture was proved and recorded after a court held February 19, 1787.(90) Later he bought land.

In the York County tax lists 1782-1799, there is stated that Thomas Hansford and Robert Tompkins had forty acres in 1796; but the next year (1797) only Thomas Hansford owned the forty acres. The deed for this land was effected May 13, 1796 between Robert Tompkins and Anne his wife, and Thomas Hansford of the same County (York). For fifty pounds he purchased the tract "lying in York-Hampton Parish and the County of York, forty acres bounded on the North and West by lands of the representatives of William Stevenson deceased, of Harwood Burt, and of the representatives of Benjamin Lester deceased, on the East by Crab Neck Road, generally called Stevenson's Road, and on the South by another branch of the said Crab Neck Road, being a part of a tract of land which formerly belonged to Anne Tompkins, wife of Robert and was conveyed by said Anne by indenture bearing date (no date given) to Mathew Wade of the County of James City, and by said Wade to said Robert Tompkins, one of the parties hereby--- etc."(91)

Then in the Land Books for York County for later years, we find Thomas Hansford given as the owner; from 1802 to 1806 he is credited with forty acres, but in 1807 we find Thomas Hansford estate with forty acres. As late as 1813 the county was still carrying "Thomas Hansford estate, forty acres." It may be concluded from this that Thomas Hansford died in 1806 or 1807. Another explanation of the location of this land, found in the land tax lists, indicates (in 1813) "Thomas Hansford's estate bounded on the North by Caleb Fisher, (90) York County Deed Book 6, p.336.

(91) York County Deed Book 7, 1790-1809, pp192-193.

on the West by the estate of Harwood Burt and Edward Wright, on the South by Fisher and on the East by the same." This forty acre tract of land was valued in 1801 for taxation at $1.54 an acre making total value of $61.60; the tax rate was .40 every one hundred acres, so Thomas paid .30 taxes on his land that year.

(I have included this land value and tax information because now in 1956, it is hard for one to believe such rates, especially since land in Bowler's Swamp (York County) is selling for one thousand dollars an acre and the taxes for middle class people with only small lots, amount to several hundred dollars a year.)

Also another proof that the death date of Thomas Hansford is between 1806 and 1809 is shown in this excerpt from York County records : "Hannah Hansford, orphan of Thomas Hansford, deceased, to Seaton Elliott, guardian-----; by cash received of Lewis Hansford, administrator of Thomas Hansford, deceased the orphan's part of said Hansford's estate-----nineteen pounds. September 18, 1809 (92) Likewise, one pound six shillings were paid Lewis Hansford, administrator-----"this being the proportion the above orphan had to pay for claims brought against the deceased estate after the division of bonds etc. had been made among the persons entitled thereto, ^{one} pound, six shillings. September 17, 1810."(93)

Included in the loose papers from York County, now kept in the Virginia State Library in Richmond, I found this document: "George Fisher and Hannah his wife, once Hannah Hansford and daughter of Thomas Hansford, deceased, that sometime in the year-----a certain Thomas Hansford of the County of York died of full age and intestate leaving four children to wit: Lewis, Thomas, Elizabeth who has intermarried with a certain Edward Wright Jr. and your oratorix, Hannah who has intermarried with George Fisher and siezed and possessed of a tract of land lying in said County and containing by estimation forty acres more or less; that your orator and oratorix are anxious for a division of said land equally between the said four children of Thomas Hansford, deceased which they are informed is in conformity with the laws of the land and with that in view have made frequent applications to the other parties with a view of obtaining that object with which most reasonable request they have refused to comply manifestly for the purpose of denying your orator and oratorix of their just rights all which is manifestly contrary to equity and good conscious-----."

As a result of this action, Peter Manson, William Tabb,----- Crockett, and Kemp Charles were named for any three to act as commissioners."At the Rules held in the Clerk's office in York County the 6th day of August 1821, George Fisher and Hannah his wife against Lewis Hansford, Thomas Hansford, Edward Wright Jr. and Elizabeth his wife defendents, the bill of complaintants in this cause being filed, they must appear for a hearing and settlement." A copy of this was sent to each of them. On the back of the document was written "May 8, 1822, I acknowledge to have received a true copy of the written order." It was signed by Lewis Hansford. (It is fascinating to handle and read the actual papers used and signed by those long departed members of the family.)

Grafton Christian Church Register has this:
"Lewis Hansford died May 1850 in the faith."

Lewis Hansford, son of Thomas Hansford and Martha Hansford, was born September 3, 1783. He married Ann (Nancy) Jordon, April 16, 1813 according to York County Marriage Bonds, page 151. A legal transaction in York County shows that on March 15, 1819 Lewis Hansford and Nancy his wife sold land to George Fisher. (94) Children born to this union were:

1. Lewis⁸ Hansford Jr.
2. Mary⁸ Hansford
3. Thomas⁸ Hansford
4. Martha⁸ Hansford
5. Richard⁸ Hansford
6. Sarah⁸ Hansford
7. Elizabeth⁸ Hansford
8. Eliza⁸ Hansford (Lewis' child by a second wife after the death of Nancy Hansford, his first wife.)

The names of these children of Lewis Hansford were supplied by his grand-daughter, Mrs Mary (Mollie) Hansford Richardson and at the time her comment was, "I certainly ought to know the names of my uncles and aunts." However, in searching the records, I have found additional information to substantiate the proof of the parentage of Lewis Hansford's children.

Lewis Hansford died ^{May} 1850, ~~most likely November 28 or there a-~~ ~~beats~~, for among the loose papers for York County (now kept in the State Library) I found that "Lewis Hansford, Thomas Hansford, and Richard Hansford gave bond for the sum of four hundred dollars for Lewis Hansford to be administrator of all goods, chattles, and credit of Lewis Hansford, deceased." Then in the records at Yorktown there is

(94) York County Deed Book No. 8, p. 484.

settlement of the estate, the account beginning June 18, 1850 with Lewis Hansford, Junior as administrator. The commission stated that there was due the estate two hundred sixty six dollars and seventy-two cents which would bear interest from June 18, 1851. Among the items in the account was six dollars and fifty cents paid for a coffin November 28th; also ten dollars paid Richard Hansford for services in attending the crop.(95)

There was a law suit in relation to the settlement of the estate and the York County records show that "Richard Hansford, Lewis Hansford, Mary Hall, James Wright and Sallie his wife, John Foster and Elizabeth his wife, and Eliza Hansford, an infant of tender age by Washington Howe her friend, plaintiff versus Thomas Hansford.(96)

Consider now the family through the children of Lewis Hansford:

I. ⁸ Lewis Hansford, son of Lewis ⁷ and Ann (Nancy) Hansford, married Elizabeth Ann Mason and the Rev John Shields performed the ceremony. This is proven when a son of this couple (Jefferson Hansford) secured his marriage license. His daughter (Mary) said that he died during the Civil War and is buried in Richmond, Virginia. Then the widow married secondly, Thomas Hogg; there were no Hogg children born to this union. The Civil War records in Richmond at the State Library, Vol. 3, page 498 indicates that Lewis Hansford was in the 32nd Regiment, Company F. It states that he was "honorably discharged" No date is given; he may have been discharged and died before he got home. There is also listed L.H. Hansford in the 32nd Regiment. (Vol. 3 page 509.)

2. ⁸ Mary ⁷ Hansford, the second child of Lewis Hansford and Ann Jordon Hansford, his wife, was born 1816 (1850 census). She married John Hall.

In the loose papers of York County (kept in the Virginia State Library) this was found : November 18, 1850, Mr Lewis Hansford, administrator of Lewis Hansford, deceased to Mary Hall "to amt due me as one of the legatees of my father Lewis Hansford, deceased $34.50.

Rec'd in part of the above am't $17.36½, balance due me on the above $17.13½" signed Mary Hall.

About the remaining $17.13½, on January 26, 1852 she wrote, "I assign to Thomas Hansford for value rec'd to whom you will please pay am't and his receipt shall be good against me for the same." That also was signed by Mary Hall.

Mary Hansford Hall and her husband, John Hall had one child, namely, ⁹ John Hall, born 1839 according to the 1850 census.

We do not know when either she or her husband died.

Sarah Hansford is buried in Oakland Cemetery, Hampton, Virginia. Record on her tombstone states:

" Sarah Hansford
June 1, 1825 "
May 14, 1908 "

This birth date coincides with the record of 1880 census. Her sons, Lewis and Talbot, moved from York County, Lewis going to Hampton and later to Norfolk, and Talbot residing in Newport News. Lewis is buried in St John's Cemetery in Hampton. Apparently, his mother moved to Hampton with him and died there. (T. J. H.)

3. Thomas Hansford, second son and third child of Lewis Hansford and Ann Jordon Hansford, his wife, was born 1818, according to the 1850 census, and he died before 1878. He married Sarah Ann Patridge of Baltimore, Maryland. She was born 1825 (1880 census). A grand-daughter of Mrs Hansford supplied the maiden name of Thomas Hansford's wife and said that she was named for this relative. A son, Lewis Hansford, gave the names of his parents as such when he obtained a marriage license in York County. Thomas Hansford was spoken of as a junior in several records, an example being the 1850 census; he was a grandson of a Thomas Hansford, but a son of Lewis Hansford. The older people gave him that title to distinguish him from his grandfather, so say relatives.

This incident is given here because of its interest; it was found among the loose papers of York County: 1854, "Two centers to build a potato house taken without my permission, in front of John R. Chandler's and I do not wish to receive them any more; they were given to me by Sam B. Wright when he moved to Petersburg." Thomas Hansford brought charges and named the person whom he believed had the "centers". Continuing we read, "Received of K. Charles, constable the amount due me ($5.00) on the within judgement full---August 5, 1854." Signed by Thomas Hansford.

There is a deed made March 5, 1878 "between Mrs Sarah A. Hansford, widow of Thomas Hansford, deceased, a party of the first part and John K. Dillard, trustee etc.----". (98)

Children of Thomas Hansford and Sarah Ann Hansford, his wife were:

(98) York County Deed Book 19, p. 150.

- (2) Thomas⁹ Hansford
- (3) Diademia (Demma)⁹ E. Hansford
- (4) Allie Ann⁹ Hansford
- (5) Talbert⁹ Hansford (also spelled Talbot)

Consider the line through the issue of Thomas⁸ Hansford now.

(1) Lewis W. Hansford⁹, born 1840 (York Marriage Register gives age and parentage; the 1850 census indicates that he was born 1841). He married Mary Jane Stokes, daughter of Kiah Stokes and his wife, Margaret Stokes of Gloucester County, Virginia, July 25, 1872. She was born in 1852.

Lewis W. Hansford was in the War Between the States on the "Roll of Company I., York Rangers, 32nd Regiment, Hunter's Brigade, Virginia." An article relative to volunteers in the Army of the Confederate States of America says this record was copied by Mrs. Conway Sheild from the records in York County Clerk's office.(99) The Civil War records in the Virginia State Library, Richmond, coincide with this statement and show that he enlisted May 27, 1861 in Williamsburg, Virginia.

York County records reveal that on December 11, 1878 he claimed the Homestead Exemption Act benefits.(100) Then on August 22, 1879 there was a deed made between him and his brother, Talbot (spelled several ways) Hansford -----land bounded on the North by John K. Dillard, on the East and South by Talbot Hansford, and West by Christopher Curtis----- certain ten acres being the same conveyed to Talbot Hansford by Sarah A. Hansford, February 12, 1878.(101)

(99) William and Mary College Quarterly, Vol. 14, series 2, p.236.

(100) York County Deed Book No. 19, p.233.

(101) Ibid. p.316.

Judging from the following deed, Lewis Hansford moved to Hampton: "We, Lewis Hansford and Mary his wife, of the Town of Hampton in the County of Elizabeth City "-----for $100 sold to John W. Dutton of Grafton District, York County ten acres bounded as follows: North by land of Ben D. Spencer; East by Sarah A. Hansford and said Spencer; South by land of Sarah A. Hansford; West by land known as the Christopher Curtis tract-----"I, the said Lewis Hansford, for myself and my heirs do covenant and agree to and with the said John W. Dutton and his heirs and assigns that I am now the owner of the said premises and siezed of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein and I have full right and power to sell and convey the same in fee simple, absolute etc.-----." March 26, 1884.

The Notary Public, Mr. William J. A. Cumming stated that Mary J. Hansford, wife of Lewis Hansford appeared before him and agreed to the above named sale. (102) So this land which Lewis Hansford sold was a part of his inheritance. Later he and his family moved to Norfolk. He is buried in Hampton. He died 1898. (from his tombstone in St. John's cemetery)

Talbot Hansford sold his property in York County. Here is a part of one of the deeds : December 5, 1884 between Talbot Hansford and Elizabeth Hansford, his wife of the first part and Thomas Hansford of the second part, all of York County-----for one hundred and fifty dollars for fifteen acres in Grafton District, bounded on the North by land of John Dunting (presume should be Dunton) on the East by a branch of Chisman's Creek; on the South by land of Talbot a widow, daughter of James Moore and his wife, Annie Moore, March 22,

This ends the material collected concerning the line of the family through Thomas⁸ Hansford. (Lewis⁷, Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵, Thomas⁴, Thomas³, Thomas², John^I Hansford.)

 The next part of the family line to be developed will be that concerning the fourth child of Lewis⁷ Hansford.

4. Martha Hansford⁷, fourth child and daughter of Lewis⁷ Hansford and his wife Ann Jordon Hansford, was born 1820. (From 1870 census.) She married James Hogge of Gloucester County. A court record dated April 21, 1851 states that Martha Hogge, guardian of Baker and Sydney Hogge, orphans of James Hogge, deceased needed an allotment from the estate to care for them. (110) This record tells the names of her issue:

*She was baptized December 30, 1835 and united with Hrofton Christian Church
 (I. I. 4.)*

(1) Baker⁹ Hogge

(2) Sydney⁹ Hogge

Both of these young men died rather young unmarried.

After her first husband's death Martha Hansford Hogge married James Rowe, December 22, 1867. (York Marriage Register) . The parent-age is given for each of these, but the ages are omitted. The 1870 census shows James Rowe as being born 1828.

This completes the line of Martha Hansford Hogge Rowe, since both of her children died without issue.

Thomas, Thomas, Thomas, John Hansford)

5. Richard Hansford, fifth child and third son of Lewis Hansford and his wife, Ann Jordon Hansford, was born 1821, according to the 1880 census. His parentage and age are recorded in York Marriage Register Number I, page I, line I5. Further proof of his parentage may be found in Deed Book I5, page 259, York County, where it states that on March I5, 1852, Richard Hansford sold to John Foster his interest in real estate left him by his father, Lewis Hansford.

He married first ^{of} Raney Cleveris of ~~York~~ ^{York} County, Virginia ^{daughter of John Gilbert Cleveris.} and after her death he married Sarah Stroud, daughter of William and Frances Stroud, April 7, 1855. She was born ^{1827 (mar. record; 1850 census)} ~~1827~~. He served in the Civil War. He is buried in the Stroud-Hansford burying ground in Seaford, but sad to say, this is unkept today.

In the Grafton Christian Church Register, it is recorded that he was baptized April 25, 1843 and was admitted to membership April 30.

An interesting contract found among the loose papers of York County, kept in the State Library follows:

"On or before the first day of January next, we promise and oblige ourselves, our heirs, and administrators to pay to Mrs. Lucy Moreland-----the sum of fifteen dollars for the hire of one Negro boy-----said slave to be furnished with a summer and winter suit---hat and blanket, and returned -----at the end of this year clear of all charges, doctors fees excepted----- witness our hands and seals this first day of January 1855." Signed by Richard Hansford and James Wright. (These were brothers-in-law.)

Richard Hansford served in Civil War. He died April 1892 and Sarah Stroud Hansford died October 1900 (from Zion Meth Church record.)

Groves officiating. She was born 1877. His marriage license, issued in Gloucester County, state the parentage and place of birth of both. (Gloucester County Records, Marriage Book 2, page 22, line 109.) He resided and died in Gloucester County.

Children of Jefferson D. Wright include:

(5) Sarah Wright, daughter of Sarah Hansford Wright and her husband, James Wright, was born 1864. She married Andrew Swartz, August II, 1886; an inventory for his estate begins with the date June 28, 1889. (York County Will Book I5, page 77.) She married secondly, John T. Bunting, January 30, 1900. He was born 1869, (1870 census.) She had no issue.

Here are two records of interest about James Wright, the husband of Sarah Hansford Wright:

January 4, 1859, James Wright and Sarah, his wife, and Martha Wright (his sister) sold a small piece of land left them by their father, John Wright, Senior to William Wright, their brother. (York County Deed Book I6, page 292.) James and Sarah Wright were selling for Martha Wright, but the record shows that she gave her consent. On the following page in the same deed book (p 293), James and Sarah Wright sold the share he "inherited from his father's estate" to William Wright.

James W. Wright died before November 15, 1869 when the inventory for his estate was made. (III) William Wright was named guardian of a child, Sallie (Sarah) Wright and he presented to the court an account of the expenses for this child from September 7, 1871 to September 7, 1873. This account states that she was the orphan of James Wright, deceased. (II2)

8. Eliza Hansford, daughter of Lewis Hansford and his second wife, ~~Zena~~⁷, was born April 6, 1834 and died October 30, 1863.

(Dates were taken from her Bible now in the possession of a grand-daughter, Mrs. Mollie B. Dawson.) In the Guardians Bonds of York County (pages not numbered) it is recorded that on July 15, 1850, Washington Rowe was named her guardian and she is referred to as "orphan of Lewis Hansford". Washington Rowe soon died and she chose George Teagle Martin her guardian. (II4)

She married George Teagle Martin, son of William B. Martin. There is a deed dated March 5, 1856 between George T. Martin and his wife, Eliza one part and Sarah Ann Hansford second part, for fifty acres of land. (II5) Another deed was effected for forty-two and two thirds acres between the same parties August 7, 1856. (D.B. 16, p. II0) retired in 1967 as Assistant Supt of Coal piers at C. & D. Railway Co.

survived by widow Geraldine Burroughs Martin and a brother Douglas E. Martin of California. Graveside services at Greenwood Cemetery

The next to be considered is Thomas Hansford (see page 57).

He married Elizabeth Manson before June 24, 1812, according to the following information given in Orders Book, April 1808-1818 page 341, Elizabeth City County:

Thomas Hansford and Elizabeth his wife versus Thomas Manson, Peter Manson, Richard Manson, and Mary Houghton, Elizabeth and Robert Manson by Mary Manson their guardian, James Moss and Micheley and John Moss by the said James their guardian-----dated June 24, 1812. The issue was over a tract of land containing one hundred and fifty acres. A report was made and returned "agreeable to an order of Elizabeth City County Court bearing date June 24, 1812, we the subscribers being appointed by the said court commissioners to sell the land of Robert Manson and after first duely having advertized the same met and did sell the land to William Hawkins."

This is recorded in Yorktown : "Elizabeth G. Manson, infant orphan of John Manson (II6) deceased with the consent and approbation of the court chose Peter Manson for her guardian, where upon, the said Peter Manson together with Thomas Hansford and William Tabb his securities entered into and acknowledged their bond in the penalty of four thousand dollars for securing said orphan's estate."(II7) On the same page this is written : "a division of the estate of Robert Manson deceased between Peter Manson and Thomas Hansford and Elizabeth his wife, late Elizabeth Manson was this day returned and ordered to be recorder. Date February 19, 1816.

(II6) This is certainly an error in the name here and should be Robert Manson instead unless he was named John Robert Manson.)

(II7) York County Orders No. 9 (1815-1820) p.69.

There is also recorded a division of the slaves of Robert Manson's estate " equally between Peter Manson and Thomas Hansford in right of his wife Elizabeth, late Manson, which said Peter and Elizabeth are the only surviving children of the said Robert Manson, deceased having due regard in such division as well to number as to the value of the said slaves." The slaves were each named and valued and divided into two separate groups. Lot one was drawn by Thomas Hansford; lot two fell to Peter Manson. In each group were twenty-six slaves with a value of eight hundred and forty-six pounds.(118)

Also on record in Yorktown is the settlement of Mary Manson's estate May 31, 1815.(119) Her relationship to the Hansfords is not stated; a portion of the inventory is included for obvious reasons:

More follows; Thomas Hansford bought a total of sixteen items including the Prayer Book and Bible; and Thomas Hansford, Junior bought four items.

These records at York County show that Thomas Hansford, by virtue of his marriage into the Manson family, received a sizable amount of wealth. Also, recorded are instances when he was in debt to other people; the reasons and circumstances are not given. On June 8, 1825 Elizabeth Hansford gave as security to Mr. Robert Sheild, to whom her husband was indebted, a lien on property which she heired from her brother, the late Peter Manson.(120) (Peter Manson died

(120) York Deed Book No. 10, p.36.

August 31, 1821.) Then in September 19, 1825, she appeared in court and attested to this transaction and it was recorded. (I21)

Thomas Hansford had a son, ⁸ Thomas Hansford. Proof of this is:

(a) A deed which says in part---"George Fisher and Hannah his wife and Thomas Hansford, Senior of one part and Edward Wright of the other part----- for $330 to them cash in hand, unto him Edward Wright, one piece of land bounded on the west by lands of Edward Wright, deceased, by land of Lewis Burt deceased, and by land of John Hegg, Senior----- on the north by a small bridge on the main road --- on the east by Caleb and George Fisher and on the south by land of George Fisher containing by survey-----thirty-two and three fourths acres being the same land belonging to the heirs of Thomas Hansford deceased, which was sold to said Hansford by Robert Tompkins deceased -----and them, the said George Fisher and Hannah his wife and Thomas Hansford, Senior doth for themselves, their heirs etc.-----a good, sure and perfect title." (I22) August 6, 1822.

(b) June 30, 1819 ----Caleb Fisher complained of Thomas Hansford Senior that he was trespassed upon with arms-----he had sticks, staves knives, and fists and "he did then and there assault, beat, maim, and ill-treat him so that his life was endangered and did great injury to the plaintiff and he is damaged to the amount of $500-----" and must answer this law-suit. (From the loose papers of York County.) Looking further among the loose papers, this was found: the case of Hansford versus Fisher, when on April 1, 1820 Thomas Hansford sued Caleb Fisher on the same charges as he had been earlier accused of. He asked $2000 damages; he won the case and received $75.

(I21) York Deed Book No. 10, p. 40.

(I22) York Deed Book No. 9, p. 189.

(c) The inventory of Mary Manson's estate given on pages I06 and I07 shows a Thomas Hansford and Thomas Hansford, Junior. In the same inventory, Henry Howard, the Younger bought articles. Had Thomas Hansford, Junior been a near relative instead of a son, he would probably have been written as "Thomas Hansford, the Younger", that being a common practice then.

(d) In Grafton Christian Church Register in the notations after May II, 1834, Thomas Hansford was listed as the eighteenth name in the membership; beside his name the word "dead" was written. Thomas Hansford, Junior was the thirty-sixth name in membership and likewise the word "dead" was beside his name. (We do not know when the revision was made in the church record.) There was a Zena Hansford mentioned on page 24 and Sarah Hansford on page 26.

(e) There was a controversy over a debt which Thomas Hansford owed Lewis Moreland and the case was heard January I, 1841. It was "for $\frac{1}{2}$ hire of a Negro man named Frank for the year 1840-----\$30.--- clothing, feeding, and tax on the slave amounted to \$43." Mr John Curtis had this to say (August 22, 1842), "Being called upon to value the services and expences of the above named Frank for 1840, I have done so to the best of my ability without partiality" and he submitted the above bill. At the same time "Thomas Hansford, Junior to Lewis Moreland dr. to balance found to be due on settlement of accounts for wood carried to market for him, the said Thomas Hansford, Junior-----\$39.96," and Mr. William Tabb had this to say, "Being called upon by the parties to settle accounts betwixt them which I did to the best of my skill and understanding, I find due by Mr. Hansford to Mr. Moreland \$39.96." The total amount of the bill was \$82.96. (August 22, 1842 also the date.) This, too, was found in the loose papers of York.

This has been a lengthy way to prove that Thomas^T Hansford had a son³ Thomas Hansford, Junior. But, I have used the documents in their entirety because I found them interesting and even a little amusing now

In Elizabeth City County, Virginia, among the loose wills, this one was found:

"I, Thomas Hansford, Junior of the county of York and State of Virginia do make this my last will and testament. After all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid, I give my neace (sic) Elizabeth F. Elliott all my estate both real and personal to her and her heirs forever and I appoint my friend Robert F. Elliott executor of this my last will and testament as witnessed my hand and seal this 12th day of February 1851. I give my neace (sic) Martha Hogg one barrel of corn."

signed : Thomas Hansford

Witnesses : Thomas Hogg, Junior

Allen Chapman

At a court held for Elizabeth City County September 25, 1851. This last will and testament of Thomas Hansford deceased was this day presented in court and proved by the oath of Allen Chapman, one of the witnesses thereto and contained for further proof thereof.

At a court for Elizabeth City County November 25, 1852, this was further proved by the oath of Thomas Hogg, Junior and ordered to be recorded.

This concludes the material collected about Thomas⁷ Hansford, son of Thomas⁶ Hansford and Martha his wife. (Thomas⁵ , Thomas⁴ , Thomas³ , Thomas² , John^I)

Chapter III. Descendents of Thomas Hansford (Continued)²

Part IV. The Daughters of Thomas Hansford⁶

Thomas Hansford⁶ had two daughters, Elizabeth and Joanna (Hannah) Hansford. Consider the descendents of the older one of these.
⁷Elizabeth Hansford, daughter of Thomas Hansford⁶ (Thomas⁵, Thomas⁴, Thomas³, Thomas², John¹) and Martha his wife, was born before 1793. She is named in a court order dated November 17, 1807 when she chose her guardian; so she was at least fourteen years of age. The order states, "Elizabeth Hansford, orphan of Thomas Hansford deceased chose Zaackariah Shackelford her guardian " and Thomas Patrick went on his bond.(I23)

She married first, Seaton Elliott, son of Bernard Elliott, between November 1807 and March 1808. This is indicated in the case of "Thomas Hansford, Johanna Hansford, and Seaton Elliott and Elizabeth his wife against Lewis Hansford, administrator of Thomas Hansford, deceased" March 21, 1808.(I24) This speaks of each heir desiring a fourth of the estate; Elizabeth was a daughter and heir.

Seaton Elliott died in 1817. On March 17, 1818, Elizabeth Elliott asked the Court "on behalf of herself and children" for support from his estate while the legality of his will was being determined. This matter was in court several months. It was ordered that "George Elliott, curator of the estate of said Seaton Elliott deceased out of the estate of said Seaton Elliott deceased in his hands, pay to her for the support of herself and children the sum of fifty dollars within twenty days from this time."(I25) On May 18, 1818, she was named administrator of Seaton Elliott's estate.(I26)

(I23) York County Orders No. 8 (1803-1814) p.238.

(I24) Ibid., p.263; also p.315.

(I25) York County Orders No. 9 , p.252.

(I26) ibid., p.385

Elizabeth Hansford Elliott married secondly, Edward Wright Junior. The court record for December 20, 1819 shows that Edward Wright, Junior was appointed "guardian of Bernard, Thomas, Seaton, and Washington Elliott, infants and orphans of Seaton Elliott, deceased where upon the said Edward Wright, Junior with Thomas Hansford, Junior and William Wright his securities, entered into and acknowledged their bond in the penalty of three thousand dollars. (Thomas Hansford, Jr. and Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright were brother and sister.)(I27)

On February 21, 1820 the case of "Bernard Elliott, Seaton Elliott, Washington Elliott, Thomas Elliott, and Ann Elliott, infant children of Seaton Elliott, deceased by John A. Rogers their next friend as plaintiffs against Edward Wright, Junior and Elizabeth his wife, late Elizabeth Elliott, administrator of Seaton Elliott deceased defendants" was started in York County court.(I28) The court decided that one third of the real and personal estate which remained after all debts were paid should be given to Edward Wright, Junior in right of his wife as her dower in the estate. The remaining two thirds was ordered to be divided into six parts with each child getting a share and Edward Wright, Junior getting a share because Elizabeth, his wife was due the part of a deceased child of hers also.

Further proof of her second marriage is found in this record from the loose papers of York: "George Fisher and Hannah his wife, once Hannah Hansford and daughter of Thomas Hansford, deceased----- leaving four children: Lewis, Thomas, Elizabeth, who has intermarried with a certain Edward Wright, Junior---"

Edward Wright, Junior, her second husband, did not live long, for she qualified as his administrator June 20, 1825. (Among the loose papers.) On February 6, 1826 a settlement for his estate was made and Elizabeth bought practically the entire personal items and furnishings from the home. This was recorded July 16, 1832. (I29) In the loose papers from York County in box 9, I found a guardian's account dated 1828 and this showed that Elizabeth Wright had been named guardian of Edward Wright's children, namely: Julia Ann (also spelled Julian) Wright, Samuel B. Wright, and Elizabeth Frances Wright. The same information is in the Guardians Account Book for 1823-1846 in York. She gave an account as guardian of her Elliott children also for many years.

Elizabeth Wright bought the real estate of George Fisher, deceased when she became the highest bidder on the one hundred acre tract, paying three hundred and fifty dollars for it. Fisher was her brother-in-law. (I30) recorded in York County; Seaton Elliott (her son) was administrator; also the commissioners of the Court were ordered to examine, state, and settle Seaton Elliott's account of his administration of this estate and make a report to the Court.(I3I)

Herein are given several excerpts from York County records which concern Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright and her descendants:

"Thomas Elliott and Seaton Elliott, two of the children and heirs of Elizabeth Wright, deceased, who was Elizabeth Elliott, and Peter Goodwin, surviving husband and administrator of his deceased wife Julia, who was Julia Wright ---plaintiff against Mary Elizabeth Elliott infant child of Bernard Elliott, deceased, Elizabeth and Samuel Wright, infant children of Elizabeth Wright, deceased, John Allen and Elizabeth Goodwin, infant children of Julia Goodwin, deceased----". March 16, 1841.

(Continuing) "An order dated October 24, 1840---in Court, Samuel Sheild was appointed guardian to the infant defendant Elizabeth Thomas Elliott in said amended bill----- named to defend her in this cause-----Richard R. Garrett, commissioner as aforesaid do distribute and pay the proceeds of sale of said lands as follows, that is to say: To Seaton Elliott the sum of $54.27; to Sarah Elliott for dower $9.05; to legally qualified guardian of Elizabeth Thomas Elliott the sum of $45.22; th Peter Goodwin and wife the sum of $54.27; to Elizabeth Wright's guardian $107.62 ; to the guardian of Samuel Wright the sum of $107.62; to the legally qualified guardian of Allen and Elizabeth Goodwin equally divided between them the sum of $93.73 and to Peter Goodwin for his life estate---$7.89---"(I32)

In the same court as the one already mentioned (March 16, 1841), this other business was attended to: "Thomas Elliott and Seaton Elliott (I3I) York County Orders 1831-1844, p. 296.

From Hapton Christian Church Record:

Bernard Elliott died 29 December 1835 "suddenly in Norfolk". J.H.

Given now is the line through the children of Elizabeth

Hansford Elliott Wright:

I. Bernard Elliott (spelled Barnett in the Guardians Accounts more than once) married Mahala Curtis and had one child. He died late in 1835 or early in 1836. An inventory and account of the estate, with Kemp P. Elliott as administrator, was returned February 25, 1836. (I34) Among statements, this was made: "Paid Mrs Mahala Elliott for herself and intestates child $17.25. To James Ironmonger Sr. for his attention of intestate while sick in Norfolk and bring his corpse to his residence $15.00. By intestates proportion of heirs of Peter and Betty for 1835 due first of present year $57.75. Due the administrator December 31, 1836--$322.78. Continuing on page 248 in the record book one finds this: "Sum paid by Seaton Elliott $50.00 and by F.B.Power $11.00 to the widow of the intestate for support of herself and child 1837--- $61.00.

This child of Bernard Elliott and his wife, Mahala was named ⁹Mary Elizabeth Elliott. She was born before 1836. We learn her name from a lawsuit in York County (Orders No.13, p 418) between Thomas Elliott and Seaton Elliott-----plaintiff against Fred B.Power, administrator of Bernard Elliott, deceased and Mary Elizabeth Elliott, infant child of Bernard Elliott, deceased-----".

It has been stated here that Bernard Elliott married Mahala Curtis. After her first husband's death, Mahala Elliott married Peter Goodwin (a widower and once married to her relative). When Peter Goodwin wrote his will, he named his "loving wife Mahala" and designated his "brother-in-law Jehn Curtis" as executor of his will.

When Mahala Elliott, later Mahala Goodwin, wrote her will ⁽¹³⁵⁾

May 1849 (it was proved the same year) she left her property to cousins but she did not mentioned any child of her ; hence it may be concluded (I34) York County Will Book 12, p 234 also p.246.

Grafton Christian Church Record shows:

that Mary Elizabeth Elliott died rather young. (I36)

2. Thomas Elliott⁷, son of Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright and her first husband, Seaton Elliott, was born in 1810. Proof of his birth date is this: On October 13, 1831, a record in the Guardians Accounts in York County reads as follows: "Received of my mother as my guardian the full amount of money due me from my father's estate and I do hereby release her from all claims whatsoever, given under my hand this day and year above." It was signed Thomas Elliott. It was necessary for him to be twenty one years of age to receive his inheritance. (I37) He died August 31, 1840 (Grafton Christian Church record)

He married Sarah Fisher, daughter of George Fisher and his wife Johannah Hansford Fisher, before September 17, 1838 for on that date he acknowledged receipt of her inheritance which had been in the keeping of her aunt, Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright. This aunt was her guardian. (More about these people will be given elsewhere in the chapter.)

The inventory of his estate was returned to York County Court August 15, 1842 (I38), but Will Book Number 12, pages 352, 357, 358 show the itemized account beginning September 26, 1840. This is found in York records: "Received of Seaton Elliott, administrator of Elizabeth Wright, deceased for intestate's proportion as one of the children of said Elizabeth on settlement of her estate -----". Also, "paid for intestates and his child's coffin----$13.75" The administrator of the estate had this to say: "At the request of -----I subjoin a statement of payment by him during the administration of the estate to Christopher Tompkins, who intermarried with the intestates widow and qualified as guardian of the orphan child-----." istrator gave to Christopher Tompkins "guardian of Thomas Elizabeth Elliott" $40.00 for the child's support. In other records we have found the name written as Elizabeth Thomas Elliott in several instances, so we conclude the child is a girl.

Thomas Elliott had two children:

1. A child who died around the time that he did (see account about the coffins.)

⁹
2. Elizabeth Thomas Elliott, born between 1839 and 1840.

Consider now:

⁸
3. Seaton Elliott, son of Elizabeth ⁷Hansford Elliott Wright and her first husband, Seaton Elliott, married Ann (Nancy) C. Curtis, daughter of Edmund Curtis. She is named in her father's will dated September 21, 1846 and probated July 20, 1857 as Ann Elliott. (139)
There is a bargain of sale between Mercer M. Burt and Dianna his wife; Seaton Elliott and Nancy his wife; and Edmund T. Wynne and Martha his wife of the one part and Fred B. Power of the other part---. (140)
(These three women were sisters.)

⁸
Seaton Elliott died in 1848. When York County Court convened on November 20, 1848, Edmund T. Wynne was asked to attend to settling the estate of Seaton Elliott, deceased. He was later named the guardian (141)

(1) Ann⁹ Maria Elliott⁶, daughter of Seaton⁸ Elliott (Elizabeth⁷ Hansford, Thomas⁵ Hansford, Thomas⁴, Thomas³, Thomas², John¹ Hansford) and his wife, Ann C.Curtis Elliott, was born April 7, 1835. (145) Ibid.

Grafton Christian Church Record shows:

Ann Elliott was baptized December 29, 1835; she died December 1845 with small pox. (J. I. H.)

Consider now :

4. ⁸Washington Elliott, ⁷son of Elizabeth Hansford Elliott

Wright and her first husband, Seaton Elliott was named such when both she and later, Edward Wright, Junior were named his guardian. He died in 1828. Elizabeth Wright (as his mother and guardian) gave a report of her guardianship in 1826 and 1827 (see York Guardians Accounts 1823-1848, p 47); she continued reporting for several years as guardian of her children, but Washington was not mentioned after 1828. We know nothing else about him.

5. ⁸Ann Elliott, ⁷daughter of Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright and her first husband, Seaton Elliott, was born before 1805, because she chose John A. Rogers as her guardian October 18, 1819. (From a Court order bearing that date.) She had to be fourteen years of age in order to do that. She was named in the lawsuit dated February 21, 1820 relative to her father's estate. Evidently, she died soon after because when her mother's estate was settled, neither she nor her heirs were mentioned in the Court action. Correction; she was evidently Seaton Elliott's child by an earlier marriage if born 1805 because he and Elizabeth married later; This also could account for her being from her father but not from Elizabeth. (J. Hansford)

6. ⁸Julia Ann Wright, ⁷(also spelled Julian) , daughter of Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright and her second husband, Edward Wright Junior, was born in 1819. she d. March 11, 1840 (Grafton Christian Church record) (Her mother remarried in 1818 and her brother who was younger, was born 1820 according to the 1850 census.) She married Peter Goodwin, April 16, 1836. The marriage bond in York County states that she was the daughter of Elizabeth Wright, who gave her consent for the marriage. (Page 401) This couple had two children:

(1) ⁹John Allen Goodwin

(2) ⁹Elizabeth (Betty) Virginia Goodwin

Julia Wright Goodwin died March 11, 1840
(Grafton Christian Church Record) I.I.N.

Both of these children were born before December 21, 1840, because a court proceeding on that date attended to the division of land which was due the heirs of Seaton Elliott, and Peter Goodwin's second wife received a portion. Her first husband was a son of Seaton Elliott and she received her dower. (I46) Julia Ann Wright Goodwin died prior to the date just mentioned, and Peter Goodwin married secondly Mahala Curtis Elliott, widow of Bernard Elliott, who was Julia's half brother.

The given portion from a chancery case in York County proves these statements: "Peter Goodwin, surviving husband and administrator of his deceased wife, Julia, who was Julia Wright"; also continuing from the same court record, "John Allen and Elizabeth Goodwin, infant children of Julia Goodwin, deceased". (I47)

Concerning Peter Goodwin's second marriage, this is found: "Commissioners----- do offer and assign to the defendant Peter Goodwin and Mahala his wife ---her dower in the third part of the said land whereof her former husband, Bernard Elliott died seized." (I48)

Peter Goodwin wrote his will June 6, 1844 and it was proved June 17, 1844. (I49) He named his "loving wife Mahala" and mentioned his two children, but did not state their names. He designated his "brother-in-law, John Curtis" to be executor of the will. So Mahala Elliott Goodwin was a Curtis prior to her marriages.

Her will was written May 1849, but because the pages of the record book are damaged, the date it was probated is lost. (I50) However, the account of the estate, with Fred Power as administrator, bears the date December 17, 1849. So, she died in 1849. (I51)

Relative to the children of Julia Ann Wright Goodwin and her husband, Peter Goodwin, this information has been assembled:

- (1) ⁹John Allen Goodwin died without issue. This will be explained later.
- (2) ⁹Elizabeth Virginia Goodwin never married. Her full name was not given in previously mentioned records, but a deed gives it. (I52) Quoting from that deed, this statement is made: "A decree in York Court on the 18th of August 1845-----ordered to execute a deed with special warranty to Mahala Goodwin, widow and John Allen Goodwin and Elizabeth Virginia Goodwin, children and devisees of said Peter Goodwin, deceased-----tract called "Belle Farm" containing two hundred and nineteen acres and moity of the tract called "Brookwood" with fifty-nine acres-----"

She died around 1870. Her property was divided by commissioners appointed by York County Court and they made a report May 1871. The land went to her first cousins who were living, and to the heirs of deceased first cousins. (I53) This record indicates that John Allen Goodwin had died prior to this time without issue, since he did not heir, nor leave heirs for this property. There was no will; instead, the court settled the estate.

Consider at this time the information collected about the son of Elizabeth ⁷Hansford ⁶Elliott ⁵Wright (Thomas ⁴, Thomas ³, Thomas ², John ¹Hansford.)
⁸7. Samuel Benjamin Wright, son of Elizabeth Hansford Elliott

(I52) York County Deed Book No. 14, p.159.
(I53) York County Deed Book No. 18, p.166.

Wright and her husband, Edward Wright, Jr. , was born 1820. (From the 1850 census.) He married Virginia Catherine Amory, a sister of William P. Amory. She was born July 4, 1836 and she died February 19, 1906. She is buried in the Grafton Christian Church Cemetery and these dates are from her tombstone.

A deed dated April 2, 1850 was drawn up between Samuel B. Wright and Virginia Catherine Wright and John P. Smith , showing that the Wrights were selling two hundred and six acres, a tract known as "Patrick's Quarters" located in "Fish Neck".(154) Another deed of interest found in the same book (page 118) states in part:"I, Nelson Wright of the county of York-----have this day given and granted-----to Samuel B. Wright-----all my estate both real and personal, whatever and wherever situated (at the decease of myself and wife) particularly my claims to certain lands in Kentucky, and I do hereby constitute and appoint the said Samuel B. Wright my true and lawful heir at law-----giving him full power to do and transact all my business from this day during my natural life and that of my aforesaid wife."May 16, 1850. The wife's name was not given."This deed of love was acknowledged July 15, 1850 by Richard F. Tennis and William N. Ware (Wade?)".

Samuel B. Wright lived in Petersburg for a while, because this is mentioned in a record in York County. At the August 5th 1854 session of Court, Thomas Hansford reported that "two centers to build a potato house taken without my permission in front of John R. Chandlers and -----they were given to me by Samuel B. Wright when he moved to Petersburg."

Children of Samuel Benjamin Wright and his wife Virginia Catherine Wright were:

- (1) Roberta⁹ H. Wright
- (2) Edward⁹ A. Wright

The next descendent of the Hansfords to be considered is the youngest child of Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright.

⁸
8. Elizabeth Frances Wright, youngest child of Elizabeth Hansford and her second husband, Edward Wright, Junior, was born between 1821 and 1825. She married Robert Franklin Elliott September 21, 1843 (York Marriage Bonds, page 397). When Thomas Hansford, Junior died in Elizabeth City County, he left a will which states in part: "After all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid, I give my niece Elizabeth F. Elliott all my estate both real and personal, to her and her heirs forever and I appoint my friend, Robert F. Elliott executor of this my last will and testament." It was written February 12, 1851 and was proved the same year. (I55)

A court order in York County speaks of Robert F. Elliott and Elizabeth his wife having a bargain of sale of real estate to Samuel White which was acknowledged in the clerk's office August 22, 1845. (I56)

After the death of Elizabeth ⁸Wright Elliott, Robert Franklin Elliott married secondly ⁸Mary C. Elliott, a niece of his first wife.

This completes the material collected relative to Elizabeth ⁷Hansford⁶, daughter of Thomas Hansford. Give attention now to data about her sister, Joanna (Hannah) Hansford.

⁷Joanna (Hannah) Hansford⁶, daughter of Thomas Hansford (Thomas⁵, Thomas⁴, Thomas³, Thomas², John Hansford¹) and his wife Martha Hansford, was quite young when her father died, as Seaton Elliott, her brother-in-law was named her guardian and record shows that he received cash for her needs on September 18, 1809. (157)

(157) Guardians Accounts for York County 1780-1823, pp. 200-227.

She married George Fisher sometime before March 6, 1819. There is a deed between Lewis Hansford of York and Nancy, his wife and George Fisher March 6, 1819, bounded by land of John Hogg Sr. on the North; by Lewis and Harwood Burt on the West; by Edward Wright, Junior on the South; by the Crab Neck Road on the East. It is the same land Thomas Hansford bought from Robert Tompkins and was "one fourth of the said undivided tract, piece, or parcel of land which his (Lewis') father who died interstate was siezed at the time of his death leaving four children unto him." (I58)

As is seen by court proceedings, the case of Fisher versus Hansford, concerning the settlement of her father's estate came up again November 15, 1820. George Fisher died soon after and his will reads as follows: "I do ordain this my last will -----as my worldly goods such as it has pleased God to bestow them on me, I wish it to be divided as the law directs. I nominate and appoint my friend Robert Sheild, Junior as whole and sole executor to sell and take care of my estate for the benefit of my loving wife and children, hoping he will comply with my request." Signed : George Fisher, and acknowledged in the presence of Lewis Hansford and William G. Barnes, September 6, 1823. At a court held September 15, 1823, this will was probated. (I59)

When George Fisher's land was sold, Elizabeth Hansford Elliott Wright (a sister-in-law) bought it in.

An uncle of George Fisher, Caleb Fisher, died around the same time; his will was probated November 17, 1823. He designated that "$100 be left in the hands of William Tabb of this County, to be appropriated to the education of John W. Fisher, infant son of my late nephew, George Fisher of this County." (I60)

(I60) Ibid, p. 466.

According to the wishes of George Fisher, his "friend, Robert Sheild, Junior" attended to the settlement of the estate and record shows "the three slaves were left with the widow and children, as the estate was not in debt." (I61) A balance due the estate "from the executor for this settlement November 27, 1829 was $810.69." The money was apportioned in this manner:

To widow-----	$270.23
To widow as guardian of Sarah Fisher-----	180.15
To widow as guardian of Lafayette Fisher-----	180.15
The sum retained by Robert Sheild as guardian of John Fisher-----	180.15
Total	$870.68

(I62)

The court on May 17, 1830 appointed Hannah Fisher guardian of Sarah Ann and Lafayette Fisher, "orphans of George Fisher, deceased." (I63)

Bearing the date of February 17, 1831, we read, "Received of Robert Sheild, executor of George Fisher, deceased the sum of $630.54 for myself as guardian of my two children, Sarah and Lafayette Fisher according to the above statement with all interest due thereon." It was signed by Joanna Fisher.

Later, in the same year, Joanna (Hannah) Mansford Fisher died. Her will, dated April 5, 1831, probated April 18, 1831 states in part: "I give my daughter Sarah Fisher $150.; one half dozen silver spoons also a trunk containing wearing apparel. I give my son, Lafayette Fisher one hundred dollars" -----the balance (after all debts were paid)-----"be equally divided between my three children namely, John W. Fisher, Sarah Fisher, and Lafayette Fisher----- . My desire is that my friend Kemp P. Charles act as executor----." Signed: Joanna Fisher. (I64)

⁷Joanna Hansford Fisher and her husband, George Fisher had issue:

- ⁸1. Sarah Ann Fisher
- ⁸2. Lafayette Fisher
- ⁸3. John W. Fisher

Thomas Hansford (an uncle) was appointed guardian of Lafayette Fisher August 1, 1832 and he returned an account of his ward's estate when court convened March 18, 1834.(York Orders No. 12, p 286)

⁸No research has been done concerning John W. Fisher. Whether he died here or moved away has not been determined; however, today, there are no Fishers living in this part of the county.

After the death of Joanna Hansford Fisher, her sister Elizabeth Hansford Wright became guardian of her daughter, Sarah Fisher. From the loose papers of York County (box II) this was taken: "Received of Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, guardian of Sarah Fisher (with whom I have inter-married) five hundred and sixteen dollars and eighty-five cents, it being the full of my portion of George Fisher's estate. Given under my hand this first day of September 1838." Signed: Thomas Elliott.

At a court held in York County the 17th day of September 1838, this receipt was acknowledged by Thomas Elliott and ordered to be recorded. So, Sarah⁸ Fisher married Thomas Elliott around September 1838. "Thomas Elliott and Sarah his wife, who was Sarah Fisher and daughter of George Fisher, deceased" were plaintiffs in a case against "Lafayette Fisher, infant son of George Fisher and under the age of twenty-one"-⁹ They wanted the slaves of the deceased party divided; these were ordered to be sold at public auction. (I65)

Thomas Elliott, husband of Sarah Fisher Elliott (and also her cousin) died in 1840. (I66) The inventory and sale were made October 19, 1840 and the "widow" bought many items. An itemized account was given by the administrator September 26, 1840 and part of it is given here:

"Pd. to Mrs Elliott (the widow) for neecessities for her use---	$3.75
For spirits at the sale-----	2.00
Pd. R.B. Moreland's account for intestates and his child's coffin-----	13.75

"At the request of the administrator, I subjoin a statement of payment made by him during the administration of the estate to Christopher Tompkins, who intermarried with the intestates widow and qualified as guardian of the orphan child upon which interest is calculated from the times of making payments-----" (I67) (I66) York Will Book No. 12, pp. 352, 357, 358.

(I67) Ibid. p. 358.

Further on the same page in the Orders book this is found:

"January 17, 1842 to Christopher Tompkins, guardian of Thomas Elizabeth Elliott $40.00; paid on the 20th to the same $35.00."

From these records, one learns that after her first husband's death in 1840, Sarah Ann Fisher Elliott married Christopher Tompkins. She evidently had two Elliott children:

(1) A child who died, since R.B. Moreland was paid for Thomas Elliott's and "his child's coffin", September 26, 1840.

(2) Thomas Elizabeth⁹ Elliott (also written Elizabeth Thomas Elliott), who is named in the record with Christopher Tompkins her guardian.

A record bearing date June 19, 1845 indicates that "Elizabeth T. Elliott, an infant under age of twenty-one years-----suing by Samuel Sheild-----her guardian and next friend" as plaintiff against "Christopher Tompkins and Sarah his wife, late Sarah Elliott," defendants. The suit was dismissed by order of the parties concerned. (I68)

Another record, having an earlier date, give some information about Elizabeth⁹ Thomas Elliott: January 1842, states that Sarah Tompkins desired her dower in the estate of her late husband, Thomas Elliott; also a division of his slaves between her and her daughter Elizabeth T. Elliott was made. (Orders No. 13, p 439)

This concludes the material collected about the daughters of ⁶ Thomas ⁵ Hansford. (Thomas⁴, Thomas³, Thomas², John¹ Hansford)

(I68) York County Orders No. 14 (1842-1851) p. 153.

Chapter III. Descendents of Thomas² Hansford (Continued)Part V. William⁴ Hansford

William⁴ Hansford³, son of Thomas² Hansford (Thomas², John¹)

and Sarah, his wife, married Lucy-----. She is named in his will written July 18, 1734 and proved June 21, 1736.(169) Here are parts of his will:

"I give and bequeath to my loving wife, Lucy Hansford her riding mare-----

I give to my daughter, Catherine Hansford, the horse colt that now runs with the mare-----

I give to my two daughters, Lucy and Sarah Hansford each a gold ring-----

I give to my brother-in-law, John More one of my guns----"

After all debts were paid, William Hansford wanted everything divided equally among his "wife and three children". He named his wife Lucy and John More as executors of his will.

Under the date of June 24, 1736 this record was made at York County : " The last will and testament of William Hansford, deceased was presented in court by the executors therein named, who made oath thereto and being proved by the oath of Mary More one of the witnesses it is ordered to be recorded."(170)

Lucy Hansford, the widow of William Hansford, also had a will . It was written April 13, 1751. In this she asked that her possessions be sold and the cash be divided among her three daughters, Catherine, Lucy, and Sarah Hansford in such a way that the youngest, Sarah would have five pounds more than the others. She further stated that Matthew

(York Co. Deed Bk 6 - 1755-1768 p. 119) deed from Anthony Robinson to his natural daughter Elizabeth Hansford Aug 25, 1757 "in consideration of natural affection which I bear my natural daughter Elizabeth slave —) proved January 16, 1758 to Elizabeth & her heirs forever —

Hill had three pounds which belonged to her and she wished this to be given to her oldest daughter, Catherine. (I71)

These wills give the issue of William⁴ Hansford, (grandson of the martyr, Thomas Hansford) and Lucy his wife:

1. Catherine⁵ Hansford
2. Lucy⁵ Hansford
3. Sarah⁵ Hansford

1. Catherine⁵ Hansford is listed among the tithables for the York-Hampton Parish in 1763. Since she had no brothers, and her father died when she was quite young (1736), it seems from the records that she may have suffered hardships. Also, being the oldest of the three sisters, she possibly felt and assumed most of the responsibility of the family. We find that she became indebted to David Jamison (who appears to have been a person who lent money or legal tender) for twenty-one pounds, seven shillings, and nine pence and she bargained to repay him with the following: "slave goods and chattels viz: Sarah, a Negro woman, three cows, one walnut corner cupboard and one walnut table, to have and to hold the said slave and her future increase and goods and chattles-----" (I72)

A few days later, this transaction took place:

"I, Joseph Eckins of York County, am held and firmly bound to John Wagstaff (trustee and friend to and for Catherine Hansford of the County of York) in the just and full sum of one hundred pounds current money of Virginia to be paid to the said John Wagstaff his certain attorney, his heirs, executors, administrators etc.-----to which payment will and truly to be made, I bind myself, my heirs etc. this

December 17, 1769-----

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above mentioned Catherine Hansford is possessed of one Negro girl named Sarah, a stock of cattle and hogs, a mare and all sorts of household furniture necessary and convenient for house keeping and whereas a marriage is shortly intended to be had and solemnized between the above Joseph Eckins and the said Catherine. Now the said Joseph Eckins nor his heirs (unless it should please God to have heirs by the said Catherine his intended wife in case the marriage should be solemnized) do not claim any property right or title by virtue of the said marriage, to the Negro girl Sarah or other effects above mentioned the estate of the said Catherine or any part thereof, but that the said Catherine shall and may at all times here after peacefully and quietly possess and enjoy the same without the hinderance, molestation or denial of the said Joseph Eckins and his heirs, outsell and dispose of any part thereof to pay debts of her own contracting-----any way as she shall think proper, as if there had never been any such marriage then the above obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue." Signed: Joakin Eckins

The spelling here is Joakin, while through the record it is Joseph; the words are plainly written in the record book, so there was no error in copying them from it.

The record above was acknowledged in court May 19, 1770 by Joakin Eckins and ordered to be recorded.(173)

Thus we see that Joakin Eckins became responsible for Catherine Hansford's debts. However, we have no further record of the marriage and in court meeting February 21, 1774 (four years later) Catherine Hansford appeared as a witness.(174) Evidently, she did not marry.

(173) Ibid.p.41.

(174) York County Orders No. 3, p.518.

~~evidently married a relative.~~ ^{left} In her will which was proved December 15, 1760, she left to her daughter, Mary Hansford, one Negro woman when she became of age or married. After all debts had been paid, she gave all of her estate to her daughter. If the daughter died, she left the Negro and the estate to her sister, Sarah Hansford. She named John Wagstaff the whole and sole executor of this will. It was proved by the oath of Edward Baptist witness thereof and ordered to be recorded on the motion of John Wagstaff, the executor. (I75)

On the same day, the slaves and personal estate of Lucy Hansford were appraised and valued at eighty-six pounds. (The bottom of the record page is gone.)

~~There are several Hansfords whom this writer has been unable to place; among these are Edward Hansford, Senior; Edward Hansford, Junior; Matthew Hansford; and Henry Hansford. It is reasonable to suppose that if Lucy Hansford had an illegitimate child, she would hardly have left a written will. John Wagstaff was a relative. Hence, we conclude that she married a Hansford and was a widow.~~

In abstracts from "Norfolk County Marriage Bonds" in Vol. 5 The Lower Norfolk County Virginia Antiquary, we find that Ralph Pitchett married Mary Hansford, daughter of Edward Hansford, March 25, 1779. (We wonder if the date is related.)

In the settlement of the estate of John Peters, August 18, 1760 Lucy Hansford received six shillings and ten pence. Charles Hansford Junior, Matthew Hubbard, and John Wagstaff were commissioners. (I76) and his wife Lucy Hansford. York County records show that a Sarah Hansford and John McClary were married December 15, 1777; also that a Sarah Hansford and Benjamin Lester were married July 3, 1778. We do not know that either of these women was Sarah the daughter of William Hansford. However, the dates of either marriage coincide with the dates that Sarah (William's daughter) would be of marrying age.

Someone may question how the writer knows which material she has relates to William⁴, the son of William³ and which to William⁴, the son of Thomas³. In either case, the William⁴ is a grandson of Thomas², the martyr in Bacon's Rebellion. William³ settled in Bruton Parish; was a vestryman of that church; the land of William⁴ was in that area and many of the activities of his life centered around Williamsburg, except during periods in Isle of Wight County and across the James River. William⁴, son of Thomas³, lived in York-Hampton Parish and the activities of Thomas³ and his children are in that area and farther down the county. also Thomas³ Hansford left "the seat of land where he lived" to his oldest son Thomas⁴ Hansford and instructions for his Warwick Co farm to be sold and money divided among the children. Hence, son William⁴ Hansford did not heir any land and note when William⁴ died he left a will, but no land!! William³ Hansford left land to his son William⁴ — half to each of his sons Wm⁴ and Thomas⁴ — so the land helps in making correct it. I fixated. J. H.

Part VI. The Daughters of Thomas Hansford

In the will of Thomas³ Hansford (Thomas², John^I), we learn that he had four daughters: 1. Elizabeth, 2. Sarah, 3. Mary, 4. Martha.

1. Elizabeth⁴ Hansford was named along with her mother as an executrix of the father's will which was proved June 20, 1720. This is copied from the bond given by her:

"Know all men by these present, that we, Sarah Hansford, Elizabeth Hansford, Louis Delaney, and Joseph Frith (Firth ?) of the County of York are held and firmly bound unto the worshipful justices of the county aforesaid in the sum of two hundred pounds sterling, payable to the said justices, their heirs and -----executors and administrators joyfully and -----firmly by them present, sealed with our seals dated this 25th day of June 1720.

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bound Sarah and Elizabeth Hansford, executors of the last will and testament of Thomas Hansford, deceased do make and cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattles, and credits of the said Thomas Hansford, deceased which have or shall come to the hand, possession, or knowledge of them-----Sarah and Elizabeth Hansford-----".(I77)

We know nothing further about Elizabeth⁴ Hansford.

2. Sarah⁴ Hansford-----We know nothing specific. In York County Marriage Bonds, there are two records for Sarah Hansfords being married, namely, one to John McClary on December 15, 1777; the other to Benjamin Lester July 3, 1778. If either of these women were this Sarah, then she was old to be marrying (fifty-eight years after her father's death). It is possible, but hardly probable.

When her brother, William Hansford wrote his will July 18, 1734, he left a gun to his "brother-in-law John More". When this will was presented in court June 24, 1736, this record was made: "This last will and testament was presented in court by the executors therein mentioned who made oath thereto and being proved by the oath of Mary More one of the witnesses, it is ordered to be recorded". (I78) (A brother-in-law of William Hansford could have been his wife's brother and we are not overlooking that fact.)

This ends the material at hand concerning the descendants of ² Thomas Hansford, the martyr in Bacon's Rebellion, through his youngest ³ son, Thomas Hansford.

Chapter IV. Charles ²Hansford's Descendents

Part I. Charles ²Hansford and his son, Charles ³Hansford

As has been stated before, Charles ²Hansford married Elizabeth Moody, widow of Josias Moody, and daughter of the Reverend Edward Foliott. Proof of this is in this record: "Indenture between Charles Hansford and Elizabeth his wife, being the relict of Josias Moody deceased, and Humphrey Moody and Mary his wife and Phillip Moody and Elizabeth his wife-----one part----and Joseph Ring---(179)

In the will of the Reverend Edward Foliott proved July 24, 1690 legacies were left to his daughters, Elizabeth Hansford and Mary Powor, his grandchildren, Elizabeth Moody, Martha Hansford, and Lydia Hansford. He also said, "I give unto my sons-in-law, Henry Powor and Charles Hansford all my English Books----to be equally divided----"(180)

1. Charles ³Hansford 2nd son.
2. John ³Hansford (oldest son)
3. William ³Hansford
4. Martha ³Hansford
5. Mary ³Hansford
6. Lydia ³Hansford
7. Elizabeth ³Hansford

A part of the will of Charles ²Hansford follows:

A court order which appears on another page supplies the names of the witnesses and a date of probate July 12, 1702.¹⁸² County records in York show a division of his land among his sons Charles, John, and William Hansford made March 24, 1709.(183)

The records at Yorktown show that an indenture bearing date July 25, 1727 between William Hansford of the County of Spotsylvania in the parish of St. George and Charles Hansford of York in the parish of York-Hampton was made. William--who was brother of Charles--- sold to him one hundred acres of land on Felgate's Creek, this being left to him by his father Charles² Hansford "as decreed by will". It further states that the land "is bounded on one side by John Hansford". (John was another brother of William and Charles.)(184)

Another deed dated July 13, 1727 and on the same page of the record book, between William and Charles Hansford, says two hundred pounds of lawful money was being paid for a tract of one hundred acres.

Charles Hansford wrote his will August 4, 1758 and added a codicille October 13, 1760. It was proved June 15, 1761.(185) Here are excerpts from his will: ^{he was born about 1685 based on his poems composed} 1749 & he said he was 63.

"I give to my son Charles Hansford and his heirs all my land wherever situated, lying and being. I give him all these gifts and bequests of Negroes, stock, household goods and utensils which are now in his possession.

I give and bequest unto my executors hereafter named and their heirs the remaining part of my estate in trust to and for the following issues and purposes and no other, that is to say, for the necessary support and sole use and behoof of my daughter Lucy, now the wife of John Hyde and her children.

It is my will and desire that all my estate viz, namely my three Negroes Silver, Sary, and Sam and my stock of cattle and hogs which are (184) York County Deeds and Bonds Vol. 3 (1713-1729) p.471.

now on the plantation of John Hyde, together with all my household goods, a memorandum of which stook and household stuff may be seen in my book; with what debts or money shall be found due me be applied to sole use and support of my daughter and her children-----"

(Much of this will has been omitted because the old gentleman had rather strong feelings about some of his relatives.)

"Lastly, I constitute and appoint my friend, Captain William Allen and my son Charles Hansford executors of this my last will and testament."

Signed: Charles Hansford, Senior.

The codicil reads as follows:

"Whereas at the wishing and signing of the within will, my grand-daughter Lucy Hyde was not then born and is not mentioned; this is to be known my will and desire that the said Lucy Hyde have and enjoy an equal part of my small estate with her brothers and sisters written with my own hand October 13, 1760."

Signed: Charles Hansford, Senior.

I have given the will-----the approximate date of his death--- before all information about the man has been stated here, but from the will one may learn that Charles Hansford had two children:

1. Charles⁴ Hansford a "boy" whom they lost
2. Lucy⁴ Hansford "Betty" who died when Lucy was young mentioned in Poems.

Although Charles³ Hansford left land to his son Charles⁴ Hansford, he practically gave him a tract containing two hundred acres while he was living. Here is a deed for such land:

"The 21st day of November 1757 "

Charles Hansford, Senior of the County of York, of one part and Charles Hansford, Junier of the same County, planter, of the other part.

Witnesseth that for the sum of five shillings to the said Charles Hansford, Senior in hand paid by Charles Hansford, Junior "all that plantation, tract, or parcel of land, lying and being on the head of Felgate's Creek containing by estimation two hundred acres be the same more or less-----"

One hundred acres of this land belonged to William Hansford of Spotsylvania County and he sold it to Charles Hansford, Senior. The other one hundred acres he got from Stephen Fuller and Elizabeth his wife of New Kent County, and was "conveyed by deed to Charles Hansford Senior October 1, 1737 and recorded in the general court of this colony ----- beginning at a hickory and running along the hillside of the swamp to the lines of land belonging to William Hansford deceased and given by his will to Charles Hansford, son of the above named Charles Hansford, Junior. Then southerly by the said lines to York Road, down the road til it comes against Mr. Nelson's corner post, then cropping said road into Warwick southerly by lines of land of said Nelson to Mathew Hubbard's lines, then by Hubbard's lines Northeast to York Road again and crossing road northerly to the lines of another post that did belong to the said William Hansford deceased (but given by his will to William Harvey) down to a branch-----bargained and sold without the trouble or molestation of any person whatsoever and free from any incumbrances."(I86)

Part II. Charles Hansford

Charles⁴Hansford, son of Charles³, (Charles², John¹) was born around or before 1736, because in 1757 his father sold to him a tract of land and he had to be twenty-one at the time. He married Elizabeth -----. By this marriage were born the following children:

1. Richard⁵ Hansford
2. Charles⁵ Hansford
3. Benjamin⁵ Hansford
4. Elizabeth⁵ Hansford
5. Mary⁵ Hansford
6. Martha⁵ Hansford

The will of Charles⁴Hansford was written June 3, 1777 and was proved December 21, 1778. (187) His death notice appeared in the May 8, 1778 edition of the Virginia Gazette.

A part of his will is given:

"I, Charles Hansford, of York-Hampton Parish, being weak of body but of sound sense and memory, do make my last will and testament as follows:

Item-----I give to my daughter Elizabeth Gamm my Negro woman named Judith and all her increase to her and her heirs forever-----

Item-----I give to my daughter Mary Sheild (after the death of my wife) my Negro woman named Milley and her increase to her and her heirs forever, but the Negro woman named Peg which I lent her to be returned----

Item-----I give to my daughter Martha Harwood a Negro girl named Little Nanny and all her increase to her and her heirs forever

Item-----I give to my two sons Richard and Benjamin when they shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, all my tract or parcel of land lying in Charles City containing two hundred acres, be the same more or less, to be equally divided between them, to them and their heirs forever.

The remaining part of my estate, be it what-so-ever or where-so-ever, I lend to my loving wife Elizabeth Hansford as long as she remains a widow and after her decease, I give to my two sons, Richard and Benjamin, all my land lying in York and Warwick Counties to be equally divided in quality and quantity between them and their heirs forever.

Lastly, after the decease of my wife Elizabeth, the remaining part of my estate shall be equally divided between my five children Elizabeth, Mary, Richard, Benjamin, and Martha Harwood if they be living, if dead, to their children, if any, if none, to the survivors and I do constitute and ordain my loving wife Elizabeth Hansford whole and sole executrix of this my last will and testament where unto I set my hand and fixed my seal this third day of June 1777."

Signed Charles Hansford

"Since the writing of my will, my son Benjamin hath not pleased me in a circumstance which hath been acted between him and Mary---^{Nyde}--- It is my will and desire that if the said Benjamin do or shall at any time intermarry with the said Mary---^{Nyde}---then such part of my estate whether real or personal, which is or was intended by me for the said Benjamin I give unto my son Richard to him and his heirs forever, And as it will be attended with too much trouble for my loving wife (who is heretofore mentioned as my whole and sole executrix of this my last will) to perform such a business, I do therefore appoint my friends, the Reverend John Camm, Samuel Sheild, and Edward Harwood, in conjunction with my said wife to execute this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have set my hand and affixed my seal this thirteenth day of December 21, 1778 this will was proved. (188)

(Ben did not marry the girl mentioned here.)

Elizabeth Hansford, wife of Charles⁴ Hansford, outlived him a number of years. An indenture dated March 21, 1787 between her and Richard and Benjamin Hansford, stated that they were her sons and she gave them two hundred and twenty acres of land "which tract Elizabeth now holds by the last will of Charles Hansford, which will is recorded in York." (189)

From the York County Land Books 1782-1799, located in the Virginia State Library, Richmond this information was found:

"1782---Upper District of York County

E. Hansford-----280 acres, value 140

1783---Elizabeth Hansford---280 acres amount of land;-----229.10;

amount of tax 1¹/₂ = 18--11 "

1784, 1785, and 1786 the same . There is no reference for 1787. Then this is recorded: "1790---Richard and Benjamin Hansford---280 acres value 229.10." From 1791-1799 this tract was listed in the same manner as belonging to Richard and Benjamin.

In the Personal Property Lists for 1786, it stated that Elizabeth Hansford was in the upper precinct of Charles Parish and she listed her slaves Hannah and John (under 16) , 2 horses, and 6 cows.

Hansford of the County of Warwick one part and Benjamin Stroud of the other part - certain tract - 100 A - in York County - being one fourth part of the tract of land containing 400 A held by the late Col. Edward Harwood during his life -

(This land is still in the family because Sarah Stroud grand daughter of Benj. Stroud & daughter of Wm Stroud, married Richard Hansford and brought the land into the family - Landing Rd - from Back Creek to Zion Church originally.)

Col. Edward Harwood married Elizabeth Reade Hewitt, dau of George and Sarah Reade and widow (his 2nd wife) of the late Rev. Richard Hewitt, hence his daughter was given the name Reade (Eliz. Reade Harwood)

Dec. 11, 1823 "Elizabeth R. Hansford, dau of Col. Edward Harwood petitioned aid for herself and her children, her father's fortune having been destroyed by the War"; no. 8030 from the list of petitions from York Co to the Va. Gen. Assembly 1776-1861 - It was rejected.

I saw the family Bible - in the Gillem home on Jamestown Rd., Wmatsg in which the death of Elizabeth Reade Hansford is recorded. Helena Hansford -

Elizabeth Reade Hansford "departed this life April 8, 1836" (in her daughter's Bible)

July 8, 1788---Elizabeth Hansford---taxable persons--2 blacks between 14 and 16 years.

1792 Elizabeth Hansford had a slave and horse.

1795 Elizabeth Hansford ~~was not~~ listed, but the other Hansfords who had been on the tax books for a number of years were there.

The land owned by Charles⁴ Hansford and left to his heirs was partly in York County and partly in Warwick County; therefore, the same members of the family appeared on the Warwick County Land Books 1782-1799 (these are also in the Virginia State Library). From 1782 through 1796, each year, Elizabeth Hansford was credited with having 125 acres valued at 10-----$62.15.

In 1797 we read in the tax records "Richard Hansford from Elizabeth Hansford deceased, 125 acres". Thus it may be concluded that Elizabeth Hansford, the widow of Charles⁴ Hansford died between 1795 and 1797.

1. Richard⁵ Hansford, son of Charles⁴ (Charles³, Charles², John¹) and Elizabeth Hansford, became an apprentice very soon after his father died. (His father's will was proved December 21, 1778). Bearing the date of October 10, 1778, the record reads "Richard Hansford, orphan of Charles Hansford, deceased, made himself an apprentice to James Vaughan, carpenter, to learn his art, trade, and mystery for three years period. and the settlement of his estate which will be given later.

In the Virginia Magazine of History, vol. 26, page 184, there is an article entitled "Virginia State Troops in the Revolution". A statement in it shows that Richard Hansford was paid three pounds, nine shillings, and three pence for provisions furnished Captain Lynn's company.

In the York County Orders Book number 7 (1795-1803) page 311, it states "ordered that Richard Hansford be recommended to the Executive (the Governor) as a proper person to be appointed Captain of the Militia of this county in the room of Captain William Waller deceased." Also in the same book on page 220 under the date of January 15, 1798 it is shown that Richard and Benjamin Hansford, William Waller, and Francis Lee had charge of settling the estate of Elizabeth Hill.

From the Personal Tax Lists for York County (in the Virginia State Library), these excerpts were taken:

"A list of taxable property taken by William Geesley for upper precinct of York-Hampton Parish"

1784-----Richard Hansford had four tithables; he named slaves as Tom, John, Vally, and Abby; he had ten cows and three horses.

March 1785---William Diggs, Junier took the list for taxable property in that precinct and again, Richard Hansford named two tithables, two horses, and six cows.

The property of Richard Hansford was partly in Warwick County and partly in York County. According to the Warwick County Personal Tax Lists, these facts were learned:

1797---Richard Hansford---1 white; 3 blacks

1797-1805 he had 125 acres which he got from Elizabeth Hansford, deceased

Here is the will of Richard Hansford which I found in the loose papers from York County, now kept in the State Library in Richmond:

"I, Richard Hansford of Warwick County, make this my last will and testament.

First, I desire my just debts be paid out of my estate.

Second, I lend to my beloved wife Elizabeth all my lands and other estate of every sort and kind during her widowhood, but should she marry, I then lend her half the plantation whereon I now live, with all the improvements thereon likewise. One half of all my other estate of every sort and kind during her natural life and at her death, I give to the surviving children to them and their heirs forever.

Lastly, I nominate my said wife, Elizabeth Hansford executrix of this my last will and testament without giving security for her administration. In witness thereof, I have here unto set my hand and seal this 20th day of October 1806."

Signed--Richard Hansford

Witnesses:
John Moore
James Kirby
William Kirby

"At a court held in Warwick County the 11th day of February 1808 this will was proved."

At the same time that I found the given will, I found among the loose papers this document:

1837--"Humbly complaining-----your orator and oratrix, Richard Gilliam and Elizabeth his wife of York County-----that Richard Hansford late of the County of York-----left-----the halfway house tract lying partly in York and partly in Warwick, but principally in York about 180 acres, to his widow for life and at her death to his surviving children. That the widow is dead and his children are Benjamin Hansford, Thomas Hansford, Charles Hansford, and John Hansford and your oratorax so that the said land is now to be divided into five equal parts. That John Hansford has conveyed his part of the said land to Benjamin Hansford so that Benjamin takes two parts of the said land.

That your orator and oratorax desire to have the said land divided but the parties have not yet come to an agreement for this purpose."

On another piece of paper, this was found: "Agreeable to a decree pronounced the 16th day of October 1837 by the worshipful Court in Chancery sitting-----having proceeded to divide the land belonging to Richard Hansford's estate---gave Richard Gilliam and wife the east part of the land in York County forty and one fourth acres....."

Evidently, the widow, Elizabeth Hansford remarried, because according to Richard Hansford's will, if she remarried she would have the use of only one half of his plantation. She paid taxes on 107 acres and then 170 acres for several years, but in 1819 her acreage decreased to 75 acres and her residence was changed from Warwick County to the City of Williamsburg.

(I) ⁶ Benjamin Hansford, the son of Richard Hansford ⁵ was born 1792 according to the 1850 census. He married first Sarah Wynne, who was born 1793 (from 1850 census) and second, Janet----- (191). The cen record states that he was a keeper of a tavern. His children were:

- A. Richard ⁷ W. Hansford
- B. Charles ⁷ Colin Hansford
- C. Lucy ⁷ Hansford
- D. Eliza ⁷ Hansford
- E. Sally ⁷ F. Hansford
- F. Rebecca ⁷ Hansford

In Records of Bruton Parish Church, under vestrymen from 1865 to 1939, is the name of Richard Hansford. On page II of Bruton Parish Register 1868-1908 the following were members: 1868 Mr. Richard Hansford; Mr. Charles Hansford; Miss Lucy Hansford; and Miss Eliza Hansford. Under burials page 125, we find Mr. Richard Hansford October 31, 1882, died "of affirmities of old age; buried in Hansford burial place."

This deed is among the City of Williamsburg records: Hansford and Vest to R.R.Reper; a deed made August 11, 1866 between William W. Vest and Eliza A., his wife, and Richard W. Hansford of the City of Williamsburg----$900 paid;----land bounded by Edward Camm----eto.(192)

There is another deed: R.W.Hansford to G.C.Hansford dated February 24, 1868. This is the land held and occupied by Richard Hansford, conveyed to him by Archibald Peachy and Mary L. Wright and James S.C.Griffin

Richard Hansford was a merchant and had a partner. They traded under the name of Vest and Hansford.(I94) This partner was most likely William W.Vest mentioned earlier in a deed.

Charles Colin Hansford was a son of Benjamin Hansford as already stated. In the Bruton Parish Register (I868-I908) page I05, this was recorded: Charles Colin Hansford, age 47 years, and Margaret Tabitha Custis, age 34 years, married January 22, I879 at Williamsburg. He was the son of Benjamin and Janet Hansford and she was the daughter of James and Margaret B.Custis and both families lived in Williamsburg, The minister was the Rev. Henry Wall and the marriage was witnessed by "step-mother, sister, and friends." It does not state whether the step-mother was his or hers and I am led to believe it was his, because when his son was born, he was named Wynne which was the maiden name of Benjamin Hansford's first wife.(It was also the name of another relative.)

Children born to this couple were:

(A) James Custis Hansford

8

(B) Richard Wynne Hansford

The date of the death of Charles Colin Hansford is not known to the writer. However, in the Bruton Parish Register with June I, I893 being the last date, and on page I8 (but no date on that page) this was found:

These last two had moved from the city.

(A) James Custis Hansford, son of Charles Hansford and Margaret⁷ Hansford, was born in Williamsburg October 16, 1879 and was baptized July 4, 1880. The sponsors for this rite were Mrs. Clara W. Custis and Dr. H. Wall. (The parentage of the child is recorded in the Register)(195) He married Pattie Saunders Green, daughter of Captain William W. Green and Pechentas Baytop Green of West Point. She was born 1879.(196) A deed which will be given later, also shows whom he married.

(B) Richard Wynne Hansford, son of Charles Hansford and Margaret⁷ Hansford, was born June 14, 1881 in Williamsburg and was baptized February 1, 1882.(Bruton Parish Record.) The sponsors for this baptism were Mrs. Clara Custis and Mrs. Elizabeth Scott.

Concerning the two sons of Charles Hansford, this material was found:
A land transaction (deed) "between Richard W. Hansford and James Custis Hansford and his wife Patty (Green) Hansford first part and E. W. Maynard of Bruton District, York County, second part"---April 3, 1907(197)

Margaret C. Hansford heired land from her family. Her sister, Kate W. Custis stated in her will written January 21, 1891 and proved October 10, 1892 : "I give to my sister Margaret---Mrs Hansford--the house and lot owned by me in Williamsburg to be held until all my debts are paid-----"(198) On January 21, 1898, she sold the "Old Custis Lot"(199) and on the same day she sold property to L.L.Lane, Sr. (200).

March 20, 1908, she sold to Hugh S. Bird and Margaret W.S. Bird a lot on Francis Street---"a part of property devised by Kate W. Custis to said Margaret Hansford by her will.(201) Later, on September 27, 1910 Margaret Hansford, "a widow in Williamsburg" sold land to William Reeve of New Jersey and this is recorded: "Whereas Margaret C. Hansford being seized and possessed of the lands, messuage, and premises hereunto described is desirous to convey the same in trust for the separate use and benefit of one Rebecca H.C.Reeve during her natural life and after her death for the separate use and benefit of one Charles G. Reeve and after his death for use and benefit of the child or children of said Rebecca H.C.Reeve and Charles G.Reeve, all that tract of land and premises situated in the City of Williamsburg known as the "Peyton Randolph House"-----being the remainder of the lot or premises devised to said Margaret C.Hansford by Catherine W.Custis by will recorded in the clerk's office of the County of James City and the City of Williamsburg on the 10th day of October 1892".(202)

January 4, 1915, Margaret Hansford sold a lot on the Palace Green to James G. Martin-----land known as the "Saunders's Lot".(203) March 10, 1915, this was recorded:"I, Margaret Custis Hansford of Port Norfolk in Norfolk County have made, constituted and appointed James Custis Hansford my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name, place and stead, to bargain, sell, grant and convey-----as my attorney shall deem most for my advantage and property whatsoever kind and description lying, being, and situated in the town of Williamsburg."(204) On the same day, she sold land to Walter Mercer through her son who had power of attorney to attend to this. The land was on the Palace Green in Williamsburg.(205) There is another land transaction handled by her son on May 12th, 1916.(206) So, Margaret Hansford, who was born in 1845 was still living as late as May 12, 1916 (age 71 years).

As has been mentioned before, the Bruton Parish Register, under date of 1868, listed together the names of Mr. Richard Hansford, Mr. Charles Hansford, Miss Lucy Hansford, and Miss Eliza Hansford. In the Williamsburg records, a deed was made March 14, 1884 between Lucy H. Hansford, Sally W. Hansford and Charles C. Hansford and Margaret Hansford, his wife, heirs at law of Richard W. Hansford, deceased of one part and Samuel Harris of the other part. It was a lot known as "Lodge Lot". (207) Evidently, Eliza Hansford died before 1884 when this settlement was made. Also, there is cause to wonder if there really was an Eliza Hansford, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Hansford for this reason: In May 1829 Benjamin Hansford attended to legal matters in the interest of Eliza and Martha Wooten, orphans of Benjamin and Elizabeth Wooten and he was their guardian (Yerk Deed Book II, 1828-1834, pp 66-67). When Benjamin Hansford's family census record was made in 1850, he listed his wife, Hansford; ; Lucy Hansford; Sarah Hansford; Rebecca Hansford; Richard Hansford; Charles Hansford; and Martha Wooten (born 1822) and Eliza Wooten (born 1826). Then in 1880, when the census for that family was taken, Richard Hansford was head of the family; Lucy Hansford "a sister" and single was a school teacher; Sarah "a sister" also single was house keeper; Eliza A. Wooten "a cousin" and single (age 56 years) was living with them. Thus it would seem highly probable that the name of Eliza Hansford written in the church register should have been Eliza Wooten.

According to the 1850 census, ⁷Lucy Hansford was born 1824; ⁷Sarah Hansford was born 1826; ⁷Rebecca Hansford was born 1836. The only time she is mentioned is in the 1850 census, so perhaps, died young.

in his father's will. He married Hannah Davis, daughter of John Davis and Mary his wife, and grand-daughter of Col. John R. Davis, who was born 1805. This information was given in the deposition taken when the government gave land to Col. Davis' heirs for his service in the marines. The military warrant from the land office (No. 8585) was issued June 8, 1838 and the final settlement was made September 27, 1849 at which time Hannah Hansford stated that she was forty-four years old and lived in Elizabeth City County. She received three hundred and eleven acres as her part. Thomas Hansford, in the interest of his wife, also wrote the government about this matter as early as May 26, 1838.

Among the York County records, we find that Thomas Hansford and Hannah his wife conveyed to Benjamin Hansford a tract of land given him by his father, Richard Hansford. This was dated October 30, 1837. (208) The above statements prove the parentage of Thomas and also name his wife.

The issue of this couple were:

- A. Adeline Hansford
- B. Missoura Hansford
- C. Eliza Hansford
- D. James D. Hansford
- E. John R. Hansford

This record proves that Thomas Hansford was the father of the last named women: "This indenture made and entered into this 6th day of March in the year of our Lord 1837 between John Shepherd of the County of Elizabeth City of the one part and Adeline, Missoura, and Eliza Hansford, Daughters of Thomas Hansford of the Town of Hampton of the other part. Witnesseth that the said John Shepherd for and in consideration of the sum of one thousand dollars lawful money of Virginia to him by the said Adeline, Missoura, and Eliza Hansford in hand paid, the receipt (203) York County Deed Book 12, p. 262.

whereof the said John Shepherd doth hereby acknowledge, hath granted, bargained, and sold and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, and convey unto the said Adeline, Missoura, and Eliza Hansford all these certain pieces, parcels or lots of land lying and being in the Town of Hampton in the County of Elizabeth City, whereof Ann Cooper died siezed and possessed, containing by estimation six acres more or less together with the house and improvements thereon, which said lots or parcels of land were sold and conveyed by Kennon Whiting, a special commission appointed by the county court of Elizabeth City to make sale thereof to the said John Shepherd by deed bearing date on the 28th day of February 1835 and duly recorded-----30th March in the same year-----"(209)

There is another deed between William Ham and his wife Louisa and Thomas Hansford for a lot "in Elizabeth City County adjoining the Town of Hampton". This transaction took place March 15, 1837.(210)
 Thomas Hansford was also concerned with another piece of land. "Know all men---that I, Thomas Hansford of the County of Elizabeth City----commissioner appointed by the worshipful county court of Elizabeth City by decree pronounced on the 28th of September 1848 in the suit of Hansford versus Robertson -----in chancery, to collect the bond of said Robertson given for the purchase of the interest of Missoura Hansford in the house and lot of land-----grant, bargain, and convey unto the said John Robertson his heirs-----the one third interest purchased as aforesaid by said Robertson in and to the house and lot of land called the "Old Hospital" situated in the Town of Hampton-----being the portion which belonged to the said Missoura Hansford. March 2 1850.(211)

Records of Court Orders in Elizabeth City County for 1844-1861 (an example is on page 83) show that several times Thomas Hansford applied for license to operate an ordinary in the Mill Creek area.

John Horace Jett & wife Missouri Hansford Jett had the following children:

1. John Davenport Jett - lived on Long Island N.Y.
2. Joseph Jett
3. Robert William Jett
4. Hannah Jett
5. Nancy Jett

John Davenport Jett of Long Island had a son named Robert Jett born 1889 and died 1978 and Robert Jett had a son named Henry D. Jett who lives in Patchogue, N.Y.

Concerning the children of Thomas Hansford and Hannah, h. 172

we know this: 7

A. Adeline Hansford and

7
C. Eliza Hansford owned land in the City of Hampton. No further information is available now.

7
B. Missoura Hansford also owned land there, but sold it. She married Horace Jett; this fact is stated in legal transactions dated March 16, 1869. (212) Also when her mother died in 1855, the record gives Missoura Jett as a daughter.

D. James D. Hansford. We know that he was a son of Thomas Hansford because there is a lawsuit recorded in Elizabeth City County in which "Horace Jett, Missoura his wife, James D. Hansford and John Hansford" were defendants. (213) On page 147 in Surveys and Plats No. 1, Elizabeth City County, this is recorded: "Thomas Hansford's Heirs, Land Known as Wallaces." November 9, 1868. "At the request of C.W. Hickman and Samuel Phillips commissioners appointed by the court-----to divide the farm on Back River known as Wallaces equally----among H. Jett in the right of his wife who was Miss Hansford, John Hansford and T.L. Tennis who purchased James Hansford's interest."

Prior to this time James D. Hansford, on December 4, 1865, purchased an interest in the same tract of land from Charles C. Shelton. (214)

The Civil War Records show that James D. Hansford was in Company D., Ninth Regiment. It is stated that he was wounded at Drury's Bluff May 16, 1864. (Vol. I., p 461 --Civil War Records at the Virginia State Library.)

E. John R. Hansford was a defendant with other members of the Hansford family. He stated that he was the son of Thomas and Hannah Hansford when he acquired license to marry Martha Holloway. She was a daughter of Peter and Sarah Holleway. The marriage was performed February 12, 1877; he was classified as a farmer.(215) Before this wedding, a deed recorded in Elizabeth City County shows that on December 20, 1876, he bought from Benjamin Tennis three-fourths acre of land.(216) He did not live long and in Will Book I. page 167 (Elizabeth City County Records) we find that December 29, 1877 Martha Hansford was named "administratrix of John Hansford, deceased". We have no record of a child born to them.

Hannah Hansford, the mother of these people, died July 15, 1855. In the Register of Deaths in Hampton (Elizabeth City County) , page 5 it states that the cause of her death was consumption; that she was the daughter of John and Mary Davis; she was the "consort of Thomas Hansford" and that the information was given by Missoura Jett, her daughter.

We do not know when Thomas Hansford (son of Richard Hansford) died, except that it was prior to November 9, 1868,(See Survey and Plats No. I, Elizabeth City County, p 147), nor do we have any further information about this line of the family.

(3) Charles Hansford⁶ was named as a son in the settlement of Richard Hansford's estate. This deed will explain further this fact: (York County Deed Book No. 12, page 301) date--January 17, 1838; a deed between Charles Hansford of the City of Williamsburg and Lucius F.Cary of the same city; all right, title, and interest in a parcel of land lying "in the counties of York, James City, and Warwick commonly called Ordinary Land being the same piece or parcel of land of which Richard Hansford, the Father of said Charles died siezes and possessed and from whom the same passed by devise or descent to his five children in equal proportion, the said interest of the said Charles hereby conveyed -----being one undivided one fifth part---containing by estimation -----acres."

Charles Hansford, Thomas Hansford, and Filmer Clarke, on September 20, 1813 gave bond for Charles Hansford who "hath this day been appointed constable for the upper precinct of the county according to law and hath appeared in court and taken oath prescribed by law." This bond was acknowledged in court on the above mentioned date.(217)

On August 2, 1815 Charles Hansford and his wife, Elizabeth sold an interest in seven slaves to John Bailey.(218)The record shows that Charles Hansford and Elizabeth his wife of York County in consideration of two hundred dollars by John Bailey of the County of James "to us in hand paid, sell to John Bailey one fifth part of seven Negroes named James, Jane, Eliza, Frank, Nancy, Sugay, and Henry and their increase, which slaves are now in the possession of John Lee, Senior in the County of York." This was in the Pelgate's Creek area; August 2, 1815. 6

Charles Hansford married Elizabeth Lee, daughter of John Lee. This is told further in a court order as follows: May 20, 1834,"On motion of Charles Hansford----ordered that it be certified that it appears to the court from the affidavit of Sarah Lee that Major John Lee was an officer in the army of the Revolution and who was attached to the regiment commanded by Col. William Brent deceased, that the said John Lee deceased interstate in the County of York on the ----day in February 1821 and left issue Alpha who intermarried with William Scott; Elizabeth who intermarried with Charles Hansford ; Sarah who has intermarried with Walker Hubbard who is now dead, she surviving; Martha

Mary E. Waterbury age 17 and in the household

Charles Hansford and Robert Hankins were witnesses to the will of Susannah Hubbard written January 20, 1818 and proved September 18, 1820.(220)

In the Personal Tax list for York County in 1809, Charles Hansford declared one white person and one horse; his taxes were 12¢.(One might laugh at this figure, but it would be no joke if present taxes were less.)

(4) John Hansford also is mentioned as a son of Richard Hansford when the settlement of his estate was made. He sold his interest in his inheritance to a brother.

In the loose papers from York County, now kept in the Virginia State Library, there are numerous instances where people were summoned to court to settle bills amounting to very small sums by our standards today. It was explained to the writer that often court day was an "outing" or time for "good fellows to get together", and many of these petty debts were mere pretexts for attending court sessions. Quantities of these differences were settled out of court by the parties concerned. Here are some examples:

September 3, 1825, John Hansford was summoned to appear before Elijah Smith because he owed someone $6.37½.

April 6, 1826, John Hansford summoned by Augustine Hubbard to whom he owed $4.50. It was countermanded by the plaintiff.

June 22, 1827, he was summoned to court because he owed John Allen $2.12. Here is the bill against him at the Raleigh Tavern:

Elizabeth Reade Harwood Hansford was not the wife of Benjamin⁵ Hansford; instead, she was the wife of Benjamin's brother, Richard⁵ Hansford. Her death date is recorded in the Bible of her daughter, Elizabeth Edward Hansford William. It appears that the last named Elizabeth was named for her grandfather, Col. Edward Harwood. (Helma Hansford)

"Elizabeth Reade Hansford departed this life April 8, 1836."

Part III. Charles⁵ and Benjamin⁵ Hansford

2. Charles⁵_I Hansford⁴, the son of Charles³ Hansford (Charles³, Charles², John Hansford) and Elizabeth his wife, died before his father wrote his will December 1778. We know that Charles⁴ Hansford had this son because of a deed dated November 21, 1757 between Charles Hansford Senior (that would be Charles³) and Charles Hansford, Junior (Charles⁴). It states the lines as "beginning at a hickory and running along a hillside of the swamp to the lines of land belonging to William Hansford deceased and given by his will to Charles Hansford son of the above said Charles Hansford Junior." (222) He left no issue and the land mentioned here reverted to heirs of William Hansford. (Harvey, Collier etc)

3. Benjamin⁵_I Hansford⁴ was a son of Charles³ Hansford (Charles³, Charles², John Hansford) and Elizabeth his wife. He is named in his father's will. The following also proves his parentage: An indenture dated April 16, 1787 between Elizabeth Hansford one part and Richard and Benjamin Hansford of the other part, states that "these are her sons" and she "gives" two hundred and twenty acres of land to them which tract she "now holds by the last will of Charles Hansford which will is recorded in York County." (223) In the land taxes for York County 1801, it is stated that Richard and Benjamin Hansford had 280 acres valued at $431.20; they paid $2.07 taxes.

At this writing, I do not know the name of the wife of Benjamin Hansford, ~~but believe it may have been Elizabeth R. Harwood~~ ^{note opposite page 180} (See p 180) On February 19, 1816 there was made an indenture of bargain and sale between Benjamin Hansford and Elizabeth his wife one part and James Kirby. (224) This may have been Benjamin⁵ or his son Benjamin⁶, who did have a wife named Elizabeth. On June 20, 1808, Benjamin Hansford sold fifty-five acres of land to John Jones "during his life" for twenty-five pounds in cash.(225) Then in September 18, 1815 John Jones sold to Benjamin Hansford fifty acres, a part of the same land.(226)

Benjamin Hansford had a son, Benjamin Hansford. Proof of this statement is in this court record:

August 21, 1815 "an indenture of bargain and sale between Benjamin Hansford, Senior of the one part and his son, Benjamin Hansford the younger of the other was proved by the oaths of Edmund Harwood and Benjamin Hansford, Jr. witnesseth thereth."(227) Also an indenture and sale between Benjamin Hansford, Senior of the one part and his son Benjamin Hansford, Junior of the other part was acknowledged by said Benjamin Hansford, Senior party thereto and ordered to be recorded September 18, 1815.(228)

Here is an excerpt of a deed found in York County records:

August 9, 1815, Benjamin Hansford, Senior of James City County one part and Benjamin Hansford, Junior of York County of the other part. Witnesseth that the said Benjamin Hansford, Senior in consideration of the sum of $1200 to him in hand paid by the said Benjamin Hansford, Junior -----have bargained and sold-----the whole of my tract of land lying and being in York County bounded as follows: on the West by lands of James Kirby; on the North by land of William G. Hubbard; on the East by Philgate's Creek; on the South by the stage road leading from York to Williamsburg together with all buildings, orchards, woods, etc.----to have and to hold said lands-----".(229) months as a corporal, that his slender circumstances are such as to require the assistance of his country. Whereupon, it is ordered that it be certified to the Secretary of the War Department of the United States of America that this court is satisfied that the said Benjamin Hansford did serve in the late Revolutionary War in Nelson's and Harrison's Corps as aforesaid more than nine months and that the slender circumstances of said Benjamin Hansford requires the assistance of this country."(230) (I feel that this war record is very worthwhile since, in all my research, I have found no other Revolutionary War record for Benjamin Hansford and as the reference states, this was in an orders book.)

Here is the Revolutionary War record of Benjamin Hansford:

Benjamin Hansford (with Richard, his brother) appears on the land books of York County in 1790 when they declared jointly 280 acres of land. Their names were present through 1799; the tax book was for 1782-1799. In land books for 1814, Richard and Benjamin Hansford had 230 acres declared by Benjamin Hansford, Junior.

In the upper precinct of York County, an inventory taken by William Goosely for York-Hampton Parish-----personal property for 1784, Benjamin Hansford named six slaves: Cromwell, Harry, Will, Kerrell, Nannie, and Alice; he had five tithables; two under sixteen years; one cow and one horse.

In the personal tax list taken on June 7, 1788, Benjamin Hansford named one white above sixteen; four blacks; two horses and mules. These are on the tax lists for June 5, 1789 through 1813. In 1806, Benjamin Hansford still had one white; four slaves; two horses; his taxes were $2.00. In the York County Personal Property list taken by William Diggs Junior for the upper precinct of York-Hampton Parish March 1785, it is stated that Benjamin Hansford was issued "one ordinary license"; had ⁵three tithables; two horses; three cows. The fact that Benjamin Hans-that had five children and then three children ⁶

he had other children besides Benjamin Hansford. (Benjamin, Jr.) We believe that a second child was Rebecca Hansford and will discuss her later. ⁵ These tax dates give the approximate ages of the children of Benjamin Hansford. It appears that he had three children, with possibly two under sixteen years in 1784, and four years later, he had one over sixteen.

Mr. Pleasants Murphy kept a journal and in it he wrote that on January 4, 1815 he rode to Ben Hansford's about seven miles distance to a ball. Also on January 8, 1815 he drove down there and stayed until nine o'clock. (231) (stated elsewhere also.)

The statement has been made that Elizabeth R. Hansford was a Harwood. Here is proof of that fact: "December 11, 1823 Elizabeth R. Hansford, daughter of Colonel Edward Harwood, petitioned aid for herself and her children, her father's fortune having been destroyed by the war" No. 8930 from the list of petitions from York County to the General Assembly from 1776-1861. This deed also proves that fact: February 16, 1807 Between Elizabeth R. Hansford of the County of Warwick one part and Benjamin Streud of the ether part-----certain tract----100 acres in York County "the said one hundred acres being one fourth part of the tract of land containing four hundred acres held by the late Colonel Edward Harwood during his life and bounded as follows: on the South by land of John Streud, orphan and Anne C-----; on the West by land of John Chapman; on the North by lands of Elizabeth Throckmartin; on the East side by the water courses of Back Creek and Bernard Elliott's land to the corner line near Crabneck Road----- (York County Deed Book 7, p 511 (Col. Edward Harwood married Elizabeth ~~Reade~~ Hewitt, daughter of George and Sarah Reade and widow of the Rev. Richard Hewitt. Most likely, the R. initial in Elizabeth R. Hansford's name was for Reade.) see page 177

More will be given about Elizabeth R. Hansford when her son is discussed.

(231) William and Mary College Quarterly, Vol. 3, second series, pp 234-235.

(Col. Edward Harwood married first Elizabeth Reade & had four daughters; he married 2ndly Elizabeth Burwell Hewitt, widow of Rev. Richard Hewitt. But, this does not concern Hansford. It was just that one of his four daughters, Elizabeth Reade Harwood married a Lee, had several Lee children & then as widow married Richard Hansford.)

able to substantiate the fact that Rebecca Hansford was a daughter of Benjamin Hansford. She married Colonel Bennett Kirby. This Kirby-Hansford information was copied from that belonging to Mrs. Rachael Leona Powers and much of it was given to her by her uncle, Frederick L. Ten-nis (born 1864; died 1946). Since this concerns her own immediate fam-ily and direct line, it would seem to be authentic.

Colonel Bennett Kirby, son of ^{William} Kirby, married Rebecca Hansford and they had eight children, among these being Benjamin Hansford Kirby. The tax list for 1784, York County, indicates that Benjamin Hansford had possibly three children, since he had five tithables; it would not be amiss to conclude that he had a daughter, Rebecca, since Rebecca Hansford Kirby named a son Benjamin Hansford Kirby, born 1805. When the settlement for the estate of Bennett Kirby was made November 8, 1842 (York County Records No. 12, 1834-1847, page 536) we read "de-duct a horse sold at the sale, afterwards recovered by suit by Benjamin H. Kirby-----$46.00;" also "paid bond and interest to B. Hansford $20.00". Later, other instances when Benjamin Hansford, Junior was a party to legal affairs with Kirbys will be given.

Children born to Col. Bennett Kirby and Rebecca Hansford Kirby were:

1. John Kirby, born 1801; married Betty Baily.
2. Mary Howard Kirby, born 1803; married James Kirby.
3. Benjamin Hansford Kirby, born 1805 d. July 4, 1851
4. Ann Kirby, born 1807; married first-----Harwood and second-----Smith.
5. Lucy Kirby, born 1809; married Edmund Harwood.
6. Amander Kirby, born 1811; married John Baily.
7. Adelia Kirby, born 1813; married James West.
8. Frances Kirby, born 1815; never married.

Rebecca Hansford Kirby died before 1819, because when her husband's estate was settled (1842), the widow was "E. Kirby"; he had married a second time. (Concerning the date---1819--- record show that on January 5, 1819, a division of the property of Benjamin Lester was called on that date. Elizabeth, wife of Bennett Kirby, was "formerly E. Lester" and one of the legal heirs of Benjamin Lester, deceased.)

Continuing is a part of the Kirby-Hansford line:

Benjamin Hansford Kirby^{d. July 4, 1851}, the third child of Col. Bennett Kirby and Rebecca Hansford Kirby, was born 1805 and married Sarah Frances Wade, daughter of Thomas Wade, (born 1781) and Lucy Kirby Wade. She was born in 1822 (DAR Papers)

1810 and died^{March 12} 1890. Benjamin Hansford Kirby had a deed in trust on "all my interest in the right of my wife in the estate of Thomas Wade, deceased" with Robert McCandlish dated October 21, 1836. (232) This further proves that marriage. It has been said that Sarah Frances Kirby was the last of the Kirbys to be buried in the family burying ground on the Ann Kirby Wade plantation, which is located in what is now the Naval Mine Depot, Yorktown. Their children were:

1. ^{March 8 Ann b. 1835 d. March 1864, mar Oct 7, 1852} Patsy Kirby who married Samuel Charlton and had a son,
Nemo Charlton. ^{d. March 31, 1860, living in 1932}

In the loose papers of York County, now kept in the Archives at the Virginia State Library. a statement bearing date August 15, 1821 shows that Thomas Smith and John Tabb complained of Benjamin Hansford and Bennett Kirby. The last two men owed "the sum of one hundred Spanish dollars of the value of six shillings each, amount money of Virginia with interest from 29th day of March 1817"---. Another notation shows that the debt was fully paid October 18, 1821 and Thomas Hansford was a security for Benjamin Hansford.

December 7, 1835 Benjamin Hansford, Jr. and John H. Kirby were trustees for a deed in trust taken by James Kirby, Jr. to settle an account he had with William F. Hamilton. Later, on December 25, 1839 James Kirby, Jr. and Benjamin Hansford, Jr. were securities for John H. Kirby in a similar manner. (York Deed Book 12, pages 94 and 397)

The land sold to Benjamin Hansford by Thomas Hansford (son of Richard Hansford) was bounded by Kirby property: "land known as Half-way House land-----bounded on the North by James Kirby and Bennett Kirby; on the South by Willis Wooten and Polly Booth; on the East by Willis Wooten, Benjamin Hansford, Jr. and Richard Whitaker; on the West by Bennett Kirby-----One hundred and ninety acres----one fifth of said land----acquired by descent to said Thomas Hansford from his father Richard Hansford. (Deed Book 12, page 362, York County) Dated October 27, 1837.

These excerpts have been included to show that there was a definite relationship between the two families.

 A deed dated August 24, 1821 between "Benjamin Hansford, Junior and Elizabeth his wife of York County and Thomas Kirby of the City of Richmond of the other part" shows her given name. They received $388.75 for a parcel of land bounded on the East by Wood's Mill Pond; South by land of James Kirby; West by the estate of Richard Hansford; and North by the land of Benjamin Hansford, Junior containing by survey 77' and 3/4 acres. The wife signed her name as "Elizabeth S. Hansford".(233)

A deed in trust drawn up between Benjamin Hansford, Junior and Elizabeth S. Hansford his wife with Robert McCandlish on February 5, 1841 shows that they gave as security "Tract of land situated--- in York, containing by estimation 200 acres being the land on which said Benjamin Hansford lately resided, adjoining the lands of James Kirby and others; also the following slaves and personal property to wit: slaves named Frank, Ned, John, and Molly and other personal property consisting of 8 head of cattle ; 2 horses; 1 gig and harness; one tumbril cart; 4 beds and furniture; all his household and kitchen furniture and all his interest in right of his wife in the estate of Humphrey Harwood with all and singular the appertinences to the said tract-----of land"(234)

In the loose papers of York County (in the archives of the Virginia State Library) this document was found: March 15, 1824 a sale of land between James Kirby and Benjamin Hansford, Junior. In proving the title it says "among the owners of the land had been the Richard Hansford estate and James Kirby" and the description states that it had a "beginning at a corner thence to a corner ash adjoining the land of Benjamin Hansford". Later it says that the owner was James Kirby and Benjamin Hansford. (233) York County Deed Book No. 9, p. 127.

(234) York County Deed Book No. 13 (1840-1843) p. 94.

jamin Hansford " beginning at a corner ash thence to a corner pine adjoining the land of William Gilliam." The owners of the land lists James Kirby and the estate of John Chapman and the "present person" was James Kirby. Among the "persons present" the names of Elizabeth R. Hansford, Benjamin Hansford, and Thomas Harwood were given. This land was in the area of Felgate's Creek. (John Chapman married Mary Harwood March 31, 1788 according to York County Marriage Bonds; she was the daughter of Col. Edward Harwood; records also show that Elizabeth R. Hansford was a daughter of Col. Edward Harwood.)

In box 3 of the loose papers from York County in the State Library this tax information was found: A list of taxable property within the district of Thomas Fester, Commissioner of Revenue of York County, for the year 1830; the date of receiving the list from the individual was April 13, 1830. For Thomas Hansford:

White male above the age of sixteen----	1
Slaves above the age of twelve-----	1
Slaves above the age of sixteen years--	2
Amount of tax-----	$1.05

For Benjamin Hansford:

White male above the age of sixteen years----	1
Slaves above the age of twelve years-----	1
Slaves above the age of sixteen years----	3
Horses, colts, and mules-----	1
Carriages and description-----	1 gig valued at $50.
Amount of tax-----	$1.98

Among interesting records about Benjamin Hansford, Junior these two were found: "On motion of Benjamin Hansford, Junior a witness for James City County for Thomas Hansford against Thomas Griffin, administrator of Lawrence Gibbens, deceased. It is ordered that Thomas Hansford pay him $3.03 for attending the court three days and traveling six miles three times and returning". August 18, 1817 (235)

In the loose papers this was found: "Benjamin Hansford, Junior gave bond for $7500 to serve as executor of the last will and testament of Mary D. Charles, deceased at a court held in York the 20th day of August 1838; to be recorded." This likewise, was among the loose papers: "The School Commission of York County, for tuition for certain children entered by Benjamin Hansford, Junior, School Commissioner for the quarter ending September 15, 1831 in account with Elizabeth R. Hansford, dr. " The students were Henry Lee, Elizabeth Lee, and Lucy Lee, children of Elizabeth Lee. (Henry Lee married Elizabeth Harwood and these were their children; ~~Elizabeth R. Hansford was also a Harwood prior to her marriage, as there was a relationship.~~) The amount due Mrs. Hansford was $2.68. This was also found: "To the treasurer of the School Commission of the County of York pay Elizabeth R. Hansford or order $2.68 for the tuition for children entered by me at her school agreeably to the above account". Signed: Benjamin Hansford, School Commissioner. "This day Mrs. Elizabeth R. Hansford appeared before me and made oath to the correctness of the account". Signed: E.W. Moore J.P.; January 13, 1832.

April 14, 1834, this order was issued in York County court: Benjamin Hansford, Junior against whom a rule at the last court was made to show cause why he should not be fined according to the law for failing to attend this court as a witness for the Commonwealth against Delaware Bryan. to the Court, it is ordered he be discharged for the same." (236)

Benjamin Hansford was a Justice of Peace for York County. (237)

The Land Books for York County give the following information:

1831-----Benjamin Hansford, Junior had one hundred acres of land bounded on the North by J. Jones; West by James Kirby; East by Felgate's Creek; South by Thomas Kirby.

1856-----Benjamin Hansford had ninety-eight acres with a residence in Williamsburg. Contiguous tracts were: Kirby and the stage road; it was six miles from the Court House; the value of the house and land for taxing purposes was $588 and the amount of tax was $2.35. In the Personal Property Tax lists for 1868 Benjamin Hansford had "one white male who had attained the age of 21 years."

⁶
Benjamin Hansford did not leave a will, nor do we have a settlement of his estate. We believe his issue was as follows for the reasons given:

1. Humphrey H. Hansford ⁷ H. H. Hansford
2. Mary E. Hansford ⁷
3. Benjamin Franklin Hansford ⁷

⁶
Here is a military record of Benjamin Hansford:

"Robert Anderson as Captain, Benjamin Hansford, Junior as Lieutenant, and William S. Mallicette as Ensign produced commissions as officers aforesaid in the Sixty-eighth Regiment of Infantry, Second Brigade and Fourth Division of the Militia of this Commonwealth whereupon they appeared in Court and took the several oaths required by law and qualified to their commissions." (238) Date July 21, 1834.

Benjamin Hansford, Junior and James Kirby were witnesses to the will of William G. Hubbard dated December 30, 1820 and proved April 16, 1821. (239)

When William B. Hubbard and Miss Martha Ann Kirby obtained a marriage license November 19, 1838 in York County, Benjamin Hansford Jr. was a bondsman.

-----⁷ Humphrey H⁶ ^{Harwood} Hansford. Benjamin ⁶ Hansford (Ben Jr.) married the daughter of Humphrey Harwood sometime before August 24, 1821. (A deed shows that they were married then.) For her son to bear the family name Humphrey Harwood Hansford seems quite likely. Any proof that this is an error will be appreciated by the author.

⁷ Humphrey H. Hansford was born 1823 in York County according to the 1850 census for Warwick County. He married Ann Eliza Brooks September 26, 1844. Elder E.S. Amory officiated and the marriage notice appeared in the Religious Herald. The census shows that she was born in 1824. The York County Marriage Register, Number ⁷ I, carries a record of a daughter of Humphrey Hansford and Eliza Hansford being married. More about this will be given later. The census states that he was a wheelwright. Children of ⁷ Humphrey and Eliza Hansford were:

- (1) Mary M. Hansford, born 1846⁸
- (2) Edward B. Hansford, born 1848 ; these were given in the census. (Was the ⁸ B. for Benjamin?)
- (3) Ann C. Hansford, born 1854⁸

Nothing further is known about the first two children; however, York County Marriage Register, Number I. indicates that Ann C. Hansford born 1854, and daughter of Humphrey and Eliza Hansford, married Edmund C. Crafford November 8, 1871, with the Reverend H.W. Wynne performing the ceremony.

In the loose papers from York County, kept in the Virginia State Library, in Box II there is a petition dated April 21, 1851. This was addressed to Judge George P. Searburgh and concerned a road. Among the "citizens of York County and in the neighborhood of the road referred to" we find the following signers: William H. Sheild, Boliver Sheild, Robert Saunders, R. Copeland, William Pettite, ~~Sima~~ Whitaker, William H. Amory, Francois H. Lee, William B. Hubbard, Reger H. Lee, Joseph Hubbard, John Kirby, H. H. Hansford, James Kirby Sr., Thomas Hansford, John Jones, W. Mallioott, and Benjamin Wooten.

In the loose papers another statement dated February 27, 1852 shows that Humphrey H. Hansford called for two men who owed him a small debt to be tried at Benjamin F. Kirby's shop.

2. ⁶Mary E. Hansford was a daughter of Benjamin Hansford. Proof is given by the following excerpt from the will of Mary D. Charles, written May 28, 1838 and proved August 20, 1838: "I desire that my Negro man Bill be hired out for two years successively after my death and the money arising from such hire I give to Mary E. Hansford, daughter of Benjamin Hansford, Junior, to her and her heirs forever." (240) Benjamin Hansford was named the executor of the will.

3. ⁷Benjamin Franklin Hansford. All information about him was taken from his family Bible in the possession of a daughter-in-law in Richmond, Virginia. ^{She gave me several family pictures} Consider his immediate family now:

⁷Benjamin Franklin Hansford was born 1846; he was seventy-six years old when he died May 11, 1922. (The record at the Bureau of Vital Statistics in Richmond has his death date as May 12, 1922; his father was Benjamin Hansford, but the mother's name was not recorded.) He married Martha Charles, daughter of Absolem Charles, December 27, 1866. On October 21, 1873, Benjamin and Martha Hansford, with Thomas and Susan Charles one part, gave a deed to Willis Boykins. (241) In this transaction one reads: "the said Susan and Martha being the sole surviving (240) York County Will Book No. 12 (1834-1847) p. 143.

H. ⁸Lucie K. Hansford was born May 4, 1888 and died September 1, 1888. ⁸

I. ⁸Sherry Lewis Hansford was born January 7, 1890 and died February 18, 1953. He married Daisy Clare Goodman (Heheret) November 29, 1922 in Richmond and they had one child, Doris Rose Hansford, ⁹born May 4, 1925 and died January 5, 1929. It was Mrs. Sherry Lewis Hansford who copied these dates from Mr. Benjamin Hansford's Bible. The author is most grateful for this service and interest. Otherwise, some of these dates would be lacking here.

Chapter IV. Charles Hansford's Descendants (Continued)

Part IV. Elizabeth Hansford

4. ⁵Elizabeth ⁴Hansford was a daughter of Charles Hansford and is named as such in his will. She married the Reverend John Camm July 1769, a few days before July 13th. This appeared in the Virginia Gazette July 13, 1769: "On Saturday last, the Reverend John Camm, Rector of York-Hampton Parish and Professor of Divinity at William and Mary College was married to Miss Elizabeth Hansford, eldest daughter of Mr. Charles Hansford in York County, a very agreeable young woman." It has been said that he baptized her as a baby. He was born in 1718 and was a native of England before coming to Virginia.(242)

To this couple were born five children:

- (1) Anne ⁶Camm
- (2) Thomas ⁶Camm
- (3) Robert ⁶Camm
- (4) John ⁶Camm
- (5) Elizabeth ⁶Camm

The Rev. Camm died at the Hansford residence at the Half-way House which was six miles from Williamsburg in 1779.(243) York County records show that "Elizabeth Camm made oath with Samuel Sheild her security and entered into and acknowledged bond as the law directs. Certificate is granted her for obtaining letters of administration on the estate of John Camm deceased-----"; date given was February 15, 1779.⁽²⁴⁴⁾ His estate was appraised on the same date and a value of 7258 pounds 10 shillings was placed upon it.(245)

Elizabeth Hansford Camm died the same year as shown by this record dated July 19, 1779 : "On motion of Samuel Sheild and John Brackan who made oath as the law directs together with Thomas Nelson Jr.
and Jaacquelin Ambler their securities, entered into and acknowledged bond, certificate is granted them for obtaining settlers of administration on the estate of Elizabeth Camm deceased." Also John Dickenson, Arthur Dickenson, John Chapman, and John Cosby appraised her slaves and personal estate.(246) At the same time (same page in the record book) Samuel Sheild and Robert Brackin were "appointed guardians to Anne, Thomas, Robert, John, and Elizabeth Camm , orphans of John Camm."

College Quarterly Vol. 4, pages 61 and 275; and Ancestral Records and

Part IV. Mary Hansford⁵ and Martha Hansford⁵ (Sheild Intermarriages)

5. ⁵Mary Hamsford² ^Iwas the daughter of Charles ⁴Hamsford (Charles ³, Charles, John Hamsford) and his wife Elizabeth. She was named in her father's will. In 1775, she married the Reverend Samuel Sheild. The July 7, 1775 issue of The Virginia Gazette carried the announcement of "Rev. Samuel Sheild, Rector of Drysdale Parish, Caroline County, to Miss Mollie Hamsford of York County." He then became minister of York-Hampton Parish following the death of the Reverend John Camm. In 1792 he also assumed the pastorate of nearby Charles Parish in York County. Mollie Hamsford Sheild died before her husband and he married secondly, Lucy Howard. The Rev. Sheild's will was proved in York County court June 20, 1803.(247) In this he named his three sons: two by the first marriage and one (Henry Howard Sheild) by the second wife. Issue of Mary (Mollie) Hamsford Sheild were:

(2) Captain Samuel Sheild
(3) Mary Sheild (No further information about her.)

A beautiful tribute to Samuel Sheild, and one worth noting here, is in a paragraph of the will of his son Robert Sheild. The son wrote: "I wish my brother Henry E. Sheild to have the gold medal conferred on my father, Samuel Sheild, by the College of William and Mary as a mark of his literary advancement and acquirements at that institution."

Sheild, a cousin, and daughter of Robert Sheild and Martha Mansford Sheild. His second wife was Mary Reade, daughter of Harkins Reade and Elizabeth Mess Pescud Reade (the widow of Thomas Pescud). He was Justice of Peace in York County, was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and was a prominent citizen. His will was dated September 3, 1823 and was proved June 20, 1825.(249) In it he named his children: Samuel, Richard Henry, Elizabeth, Martha Ann, Rebecca. Roberta was born seen after her father's death.

Power, their guardian." The case concerns the sale of a tract of land and a division of the receipts. Decemhor 16, 1833 was the date.(250)

We do not have the ^{death} date of Elizabeth Sheild Cooper, but on June 22, 1837 George Cooper married Catherine J.H.McWilliams, so Elizabeth died prior to that date.(From a record in the author's family, the McWilliams-Lindsay families)

Record shows that "Winton" which belonged to the "estate of Capt. Samuel Sheild, deceased which was alotted to the children of his brother Col. Robert Sheild, deceased-----" was sold and George Cooper bought it, May 20, 1834.(251)

For a long period of time, Boliver Sheild was Clerk of the Court for York County and it was because of his thoughtfulness that the records of York County were preserved during the War Between the States. Return now to considering other children of Samuel and Maria Sheild:

I. Penelope Sheild⁷ and
 J. Alfred Sheild⁷, twins of Samuel Sheild (Martha Hansford Sheild,⁶ Charles Hansford,⁴ Charles Hansford,³ Charles Hansford,² John Hansford,⁵^I) and his wife Maria were born March 8, 1828.

K. Frederick Sheild⁷, the eleventh child of Samuel and Maria Sheild, was born May 10, 1830.

L. Maria Louisa Sheild⁷, the twelfth child of Samuel and Maria Sheild, died as a child.

M. James Hagarty Sheild⁷, the thirteenth child of Samuel and Maria Sheild, married Mrs. Susan Wright. Issue were:

(A) Charlotte Marie Sheild⁸

(B) James Hagarty Sheild Jr.⁸

(C) Emily Harwood Sheild⁸

He evidently had two wives because Samuel Sheild, the father of James Hagarty Sheild Sr. left James' share in his estate to his "two children by his first wife."

(4) William Sheild⁶, fourth child of Martha Hansford Sheild⁵ (Charles⁴, Charles³, Charles², John Hansford) and her husband, Robert Sheild died in infancy.

(5) Robert Sheild⁶, fifth child of Martha Hansford Sheild⁵ and her husband, Robert Sheild, was born October 30, 1789 and died November 10, 1840. He married Martha Deummond. He is buried at Point Pleasant in Dare, York County and his grave is marked with a tombstone. He was a magistrate in the county and a member of the Virginia House of Delegates. Among the issue of Robert Sheild were:

A. Mary C.H. Sheild⁷

B. Martha Maria Sheild⁷

C. Elizabeth Ann Sheild⁷, born February 7, 1828 and baptized March 29, 1828 in Charles Parish by the Rev. Mark Lindsay Chevers, Rector of Elizabeth City Parish. (From his book.)

D. Robinette Virginia Sheild⁷.

The names of these children are given in his will dated February 1, 1837 and proved December 21, 1840. (255) There was also a law suit when Charles H. Sheild their guardian, acted in their behalf. (256)

There are two other Sheild births recorded by the Rev. Chevers which are hereby given because they may be a help to someone interested specifically in Sheild family: Baptized, "Roberta Henrietta Sheild,

(255) York County Will Book No. 12, p. 231

(256) York Orders 1848-1851 p. 394.

daughter of Robert and Mary Sheild, born February 23, 1825, baptized July 15, 1827."

"At Winton in York County, Lucy Jane Sheild, daughter of Robert and Mary Sheild, born November 19, 1831, baptized June 15, 1832."

The writer does not know if Robert Sheild had a second wife named Mary or not. If this were the case, then it is reasonable to suppose that the Lucy Sheild who was one party in the lawsuit mentioned above was also one of Robert Sheild's children and the birthdate and baptismal record kept by Rev. Chevers was that person. Also, since all of the early records are handwritten, the names Robinette and Roberta might easily have been meant for the same person.

 (6) John Sheild⁶, the sixth child of Martha Hansford Sheild⁵ and her husband, Robert Sheild, was born October 1, 1791 and died March 15, 1837. He married Susan Archer, who died March 7, 1843. In his will written October 25, 1833 and proved May 15, 1837 he named his wife. The settlement for both John and Susan Sheild was returned to York County Court April 13, 1843. (Will Book 13) Known issue of this couple were:

A. John Roderick Sheild⁷, born January 28, 1828 and was baptized March 29, 1828 at the same time that a cousin was baptized by the Rev. Chevers. He married first, Ellen A. Barry, May 20, 1856. His second wife was Frances M. Heward, daughter of William and Catherine Howard; they were married February 9, 1869. She was born August 18, 1837 and died September 23, 1906. (From her tombstone in Grace Episcopal Church cemetery.) John Roderick Sheild had issue:

- (A) Mary H. Sheild⁸, born 1863 (by first wife)
- (B) Richard W. Sheild⁸, born July 24, 1866; died August 28, 1909. (by first wife)
- (C) Conway Howard Sheild⁸, born March 17, 1870; died April 28 1928. (by second wife) He was a prominent lawyer and served as Commonwealth's Attorney for York County many years. His son, Conway

Howard Sheild, Jr. is the Circuit Court Judge for York and the surrounding counties.

⁸
(D) Patty R. Sheild, born September 20, 1872; died August 5, 1907. She married Edward Mathews.

⁸
(E) John G. Sheild, born 1875; died February 28, 1895.

Dates for the family of John R. Sheild were gotten from the 1880 census and the tombstones of those buried in Grace Episcopal Church yard.

⁷
The will of John Roderick Sheild was written January 9, 1882 and was proved December 7, 1882. (258) In it he named his wife and five children.

⁷ ⁶
B. Susan Mary Sheild, daughter of John Sheild and Susan Sheild was born February 12, 1831, and was baptized April 16, 1831 at Charles Parish by the Rev. Mark L. Chevers. In each instance when Rev. Chevers recorded births and baptism dates, he stated the parentage of the subject.

⁶
John Sheild may have had other children.

⁶ ⁵
(7) William Sheild, the seventh child of Martha Hansford Sheild and her husband, Robert Sheild, died in childhood.

⁶ ⁵
(8) Charles Hansford Sheild, the eighth child of Martha Hansford Sheild and her husband, Robert Sheild, was born October 23, 1796. He married first Susan M. Walke, sister of Anthony Walke, November 20, 1819. (259) The second wife was Mary Dale Waten; his third marriage was to Cornelia Arnistead.

(258) York County Will Book No. 14, p. 284

Issue of Charles Hansford Sheild were:

A. ⁷Robert Anthony Sheild (by the first wife) died in infancy.

C. ⁷Charles Henry Sheild (by Susan, the first wife) was born November 16, 1824 and was baptized March 4, 1825 in Princess Anne County by the Rev. Mark Chevers. (He gave the parentage as well as the dates). He married first Jane Barton, daughter of David Barton of Winchester, Virginia; his second wife was Martha Barton, another daughter of David Barton. He was a minister; he died January 16, 1894 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. His children were:

(A) ⁸Charles Hansford Sheild (by the first wife), a lawyer who settled in Louisville, Kentucky.

(A) ⁸William Walke Sheild

(B) ⁸Howard Sheild

F. ⁷Mary Hansford Sheild died in infancy.

Part. VI. ⁴Lucy Hansford

⁴Lucy Hansford, ³daughter of Charles Hansford (Charles ², John ¹Hansford) and Susannah Hansford his wife, married John Hyde, a lawyer, before 1761 when her father's will was written. He was the son of Samuel and Sarah Hyde. (260) This excerpt from a York County record names some of the children of Lucy Hansford Hyde and John Hyde:

August 10, 1762 "--between William Allen and Charles Hansford executors of the last will and testament of Charles Hansford of York deceased, of the first part and John Hyde of the same county and Lucy his wife of the second part, Samuel Hyde, Elizabeth Hyde, Mary Hyde, John Hyde, and Lucy Hyde, infant children of the said John and Lucy of the third part and John Chapman of the County aforesaid of the fourth part.

Whereas the said Charles Hansford, deceased by his last will and testament and a codicille thereto proved and recorded in the court of-----County the 15th day of June in the year one thousand--- hundred and sixty-one did among other things give and bequeath unto executors and their heirs the remaining part of his estate. In ----- to hire out three Negroes, Silver, Sary, and Sam, part of such estate and to apply the profits arising there from to and for the support and behoof of his daughter, the said Lucy Hyde, and her children herein before named-----but John Hyde hath set up a claim to the said slaves alledging that they were given him by the said Testator in his lifetime---

Now this indenture-----for settling all disputes concerning said slaves for advancing the children aforesaid of the said John and Lucy-----in consideration of the sum of five shillings by the said John Chapman to the said executors and the said John Hyde in hand paid at and before the sealing and delivering of these presents, the record (260) William and Mary College Quarterly Vol. 6, p. 126 whereof they do hereby acknowledge. They, the said William Allen, Charles Hansford, John Hyde, and Lucy Hyde-----sell to John Chapman the three Negroes-----and use the money for their children's behoof!

This was signed by Phillip Burt, Thomas Cobb, and Fred Bryan. This indenture was acknowledged at the court held August 16, 1762.(261)

John Hyde wrote his will January 15, 1774 and it was proved August 15, 1774. In this he named his "six youngest children". This will and the above court record show that Lucy⁴ Hansford Hyde and her husband, John Hyde had the following children:

1. Samuel⁵ Hyde
2. Elizabeth⁵ Hyde
3. Mary⁵ Hyde
4. John⁵ Hyde
5. Lucy⁵ Hyde
6. Charles⁵ Hyde
7. Robert⁵ Hyde
8. Rebecca⁵ Hyde

Since Lucy⁴ Hansford Hyde is not mentioned in her husband's will, it is reasonable to suppose that she had preceeded him in death.

The information which we have about the Hansford-Hyde branch of the family is fragmentary and much additional research should be done.

1. Samuel⁵ Hyde⁴, son of Lucy⁴ Hansford Hyde and her husband, John Hyde, was born before 1758 when his grand-father, Charles³ Hansford wrote his will. His uncle, Charles⁴ Hansford wrote a codicile to his will April 13, 1778 and this was witnessed by Samuel Hyde, Elizabeth Jackson and Mary Yeatman.

2. ⁵Elizabeth Hyde, daughter of ⁴Lucy Hansford Hyde and her husband, John Hyde, was born before 1758 when her grand-father, ³Charles Hansford wrote his will.

3. ⁵Mary Hyde, daughter of ⁴Lucy Hansford Hyde and her husband John Hyde, was born before her grand-father, ³Charles Hansford wrote his will. She died June 1838 "aged upward of 80 years" - Hyde Bible record never married so born by or before 1758.

4. ⁵John Hyde, son of ⁴Lucy Hansford Hyde and her husband John Hyde, was born before 1758 or around that time.

5. ⁵Lucy Hyde, daughter of ⁴Lucy Hansford Hyde and her husband John Hyde, was born shortly before October 13, 1760. On that day her grand-father, ³Charles Hansford added a codecile to his will and stated that she was born since the writing of his will and he wished her to share with her brothers and sisters in his estate.

6. ⁵Charles Hyde, son of ⁴Lucy Hansford Hyde and her husband John Hyde, was born after the writing of the codecile to her grand-father's will in 1760.

7. ⁵Robert Hyde, son of ⁴Lucy Hansford Hyde and her husband, John Hyde, was born 1762. He married Anna Ayscough East and moved to Richmond around 1788. He served as an artificer in the American Revolution. December 11, 1835, "in his 73rd year" he died. (262) A deed dated January 21, 1836 shows the heirs of Robert and Ann (Anna) Hyde. (263) In this transaction real estate was conveyed to William Retter. A partition deed, dated April 27, 1841 also gives the heirs of this couple. (264) Here is a part of this deed:

"This indenture made and entered into-----between Charles H. Hyde individually and as administrator of the estate of Robert Hyde deceased and also as the administrator of Ann Hyde, deceased, and Eliza his wife of the city of Richmond of the first part, George R. Myers and Lucy A. (262) William and Mary College Quarterly, Vol. 6, series I, p 126.

The only child born to this couple and known to the writer was Virginia Myers Hopkins, born 1826 and died October 1, 1898.

She is buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Richmond, Virginia. She was married to Edwin M. Leftwich of Richmond, December 6, 1843. Edwin M. Leftwich's will was proved in Richmond Chancery Court January 4, 1904 (266) and we learn that his heirs were:

In the William and Mary College Quarterly, Vol. 6, Series I., page 126 a reference is made concerning Dr. John Hansford Hyde, who died in Lexington April 1, 1851. Upon corresponding with the Administration at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, the fact that he studied there was confirmed, but Mr. Hyde did not give a record of his parentage or indicate where his home was, other than Lexington.

The First Census of the United States 1790 , Virginia shows that in Mecklenburg County these Hydes lived:

Sarah Hyde had six whites and seven Negroes

John Hyde Jr. declared one white

John Hyde Sr. had six whites and fourteen Negroes

Robert Hyde had three whites and four Negroes

John³ Hansford was appointed guardian of Samuel Hill's orphans May 19, 1718.

(note: Martha³ Hansford married Samuel Hill I. who left a will naming his 3 children: Mathew Hill, Samuel Hill II., Lydia Hill.)

P272 John Hansford settles estate of Samuel Hill I., deceased - unadministered by Martha Hill his executor - inventory was ordered that day.

P297 The inventory June 25, 1718

Martha³ Hansford Hill had died before finishing the settlement of her husband's estate so the court appointed her brother as guardian of her children and ordered him to complete the settlement of the estate.

John³ Hansford born around 1683 based on brother Charles' age, he having been born about 1685 according to Benj. Waller in the Poema and brother William³ who was younger could have been born about 1687.

In Part I. of this chapter and on page 153, we have a list of the children of Charles Hansford². In this section we shall consider the line through the ^{1st} ~~second~~ son of Charles Hansford², namely, John Hansford³. b. ca. 1683

John Hansford³, son of Captain Charles Hansford² (John Hansford¹) and his wife, Elizabeth Feliott Moody Hansford, married Rebecca¹. Her name is mentioned on a deed for land which he gave to his sister. It reads:

"Know all men by these present that I, John Hansford of the Parish of York-Hampton in the County of York, for good causes and considerations, but more especially for the natural love and affection which I have and bear to my loving sister, Martha Hill, the wife of Samuel Hill¹ of the county aforesaid, do grant-----unto my said sister, Martha Hill and to her heirs and assignees forever a parcel of woodland containing one acre lying and being in the parish and county aforesaid and is a part of the tract of land which I now live on and is to be understood to be near adjacent to the place where the said Samuel Hill is building a new house near adjoining to the York Road-----and to my said Brother or my said Sister to lay out the one acre of land at his own costs where they shall think fit contiguous to the new house, and do by these presents freely, clearly, and absolutely, give-----unto my said sister, Martha Hill, her heirs and assignees forever to have and to hold forever against me the said John Hansford, my heirs, executor or assignees forever," Dated: January 24, 1709

Witnesses: John Power
Charles Hansford

"John Hansford, in open court, presented and acknowledged the within deed of one acre of land to Martha, the wife of Samuel Hill and it was admitted to record as also Rebecca, the wife of the said John appeared then and relinquished her right of dower therein and it was admitted to record." (268)

As may be seen by this record, John and Rebecca Hansford were married before January 1709.

At a court held September 21, 1713, "George Fuller, orphan of Edward Fuller, by his petition, moved for liberty to make choice of a guardian for the better preservation of his estate and it being granted, made choice of John Hansford, who is admitted, he having together with William Bohart, William Park his security, entered into bond for the performance of his trust in relation to the said orphan-----". (269)

March 20, 1731, he was named the guardian of Martha Hansford orphan of Matthew Hansford. (270) We do not know who Matthew Hansford was, but evidently he was closely related to John Hansford for him to assume this responsibility. Probably a son.

For many years John Hansford kept an ordinary located on the road midway between Williamsburg and Yorktown. July 17, 1734 he received a permit from the county court to carry on this business and many years thereafter, his permit was renewed. Bond had to be posted in order for one to engage in that business.

Record also shows that he was named guardian of Samuel Hill "an orphan" on June 16, 1746. This was a nephew, the son of another sister, named ~~Martha~~ Martha. (271)

Children of John³ and Rebecca Hansford were:

1. William⁴ Hansford
2. John⁴ Hansford
3. Anne⁴ Hansford
4. Lydia⁴ Hansford

By consent of both parties all matters in difference between them regarding the estate of Matthew Hansford were referred to William Robinson and Edward Bassodell - whose award to be the judgement of this Court. They agreed as follows: "we award that the defendant pay to the p^r. 100 pounds 11 shillings 7 pence and 3 farthings in full for the balance of the estate of Matthew Hansford in the hands of the defendant" November 15, 1736.

³John Hansford's will was dated December 21, 1748 and was proved September 17, 1750. (272) In this he named his living children and some of his grandchildren. Here are excerpts of his will:

"I give my land in York to my son William Hansford and his heirs forever-----

I give to Matthew Hubbard one hundred acres of land being part of the land I bought of Robert and Titler Hubbard in Warwick-----

My will is that his mother, Elizabeth Hubbard, shall have peaceful possession of the plantation and housing where she now lives with fencing and fire wood during her life.

I give the remaining part of my land in Warwick to my son William, excepting the plantation whereon Charles Miles now resides, with housing grounds, fencing stuff and fire wood for the plantation uses; I lend to my daughter, Ann Hansford, during her life or marriage and in case my son William should die without issue I give to the said Matthew Hubbard and his heirs the plantation and land where Robert Hubbard now lives including one hundred acres.

I lend the use of my Negro wench Libby and her child to my three grand-children, by name, Susanna Harvey, William Harvey, Rebecca Harvey----- (These were daughter Rebecca's children, she being dead.

I lend the use of my Negro man to my daughter Elizabeth Collier during her life and after her death to my grand-daughter, Rebecca Collier----

I give my daughter Lydia Wagstaff twenty shillings to buy a ring."

The inventory of John Mansford's estate is included because,

as has been stated before, this tells something of the way people lived at that time in history.

November 15, 1750. (Wills and Inventories for York County 1746-1759 page 193) The following Negroes were named: Peter, Gray, Toby, Locust, Jubbey, Bess, Sue, Libby, Lettice, Phillis, Harry, Cupid, Brister, Edmund, Cuffee, Brandy, Phoebe, Chloe. Signed by William Hansford (his son)

Consider now the issue of John³ Hansford (Charles², John¹) :

I. ⁴William Hansford, ³son of John Hansford, left no children and apparently never married. His will was dated July 12, 1753 and was proved August 20, 1753. Here are parts of the will:

"I give and bequest to my godson, Charles Mansford, the son of Charles Mansford, the plantation I now live on.

I give to my nephew, Willian Harvey, a piece of land in York seventy-five acres where my sister, Lydia Wagstaff now lives.

I wish equal division of my land in Warwick, including the plantation Charles Miles lives on to Edward, son of John Wagstaff nephew, the other to Walter, the son of John Chapman and my sister Ann.

My brother-in-law, John Chapman-----

I lend to my sister, Elizabeth Buck use of slaves Hannah and Grace (in the possession now of Elizabeth Hansford, the widow of my brother John, deceased) and after the death of my sister Elizabeth Buck, I give the Negroes to Judith Collier, the daughter of my sister Elizabeth.

I lend my sister Ann Chapman a Negro-----

I give a Negro to Walter, son of my sister Ann-----

William Harvey, Rebecca Harvey, Susanna Harvey, children of my sister Rebecca, deceased."(273)

These statements were made when the will was probated:

"At a court held for York County the 20th day of August 1753, the will was proved by the oaths of Josias Moody, Thomas Taylor, and Mary Taylor, the witnesses thereto sworn to by Charles Hansford, Junior and Matthew Hubbard, the executors therein named and ordered to be recorded on the motion of the said executors, who together with Charles Hansford and William Fuller their securities entered into and acknowledged their bond as the law directs. Certificates were granted the said executors for obtaining a probate in due form. John Chapman and John Buck, who intermarried with two of the testators sisters and heir at law personally appeared in court and declared they had no objection to make to the said will. At a court held for the said county the 17th day of September 1753, Francois Lee, who intermarried with the other sister and heir-at-law of the testator appeared personally in court and declared he had no objections to the said will.(274)

(273) York County Wills and Inventories (1746-1759) p. 300

The Charles Hansford named as godson of William Hansford⁴ also died without issue, so the land went to the heirs of William⁴. In reading over the lengthy inventory of William Hansford's estate (Wills and Inventories No. 21, pp 10-12 in York County) one notes that his goffin cost one pound, one shilling, six pence; also a gallon of wine at six shillings was the item listed following the coffin. (Was wine used at "wakes" to drown the sorrows of grieving relatives?)

2. John Hansford⁴. We know that John Hansford³ had a son by this name because his widow, Elizabeth Hansford is named in William Hansford will. He probably died before December 21, 1748 when his father wrote a will, since he is not mentioned in that will. Another record gives us this information:

"York County, May 20th 1751, we the subscribed are appointed and chosen by William Hansford and Betty Hansford widow to value and lay off the widow's thirds of the Negroes belonging to the estate of her deceased husband John Hansford, Junior did accordingly meet on the 14th day of this instant at the house of the said Betty Hansford and valued the said Negroes as follows ~~vaz~~:

a Negro woman named Linder-----	pounds 30
a Negro girl named Hannah-----	" 20
another Negro girl named Grace----	" 14

The amount of the whole is----- pounds 64

Whereof we found for the above said widow Betty Hansford twenty-one pounds, six shillings, and eight pence for which she has the girl Hannah value to twenty pounds. The said William paying to her one pound six shillings and eight pence the over-plus."

signed: Charles Hansford, Junior William Fuller
Edward Potter (275)

This was returned to York County court May 20th 1751 and upon motion of William Hansford was ordered to be recorded.

The given inventory was made for the "estate of John Hansford, Junior deceased, with Betty Hansford administrator:

To sundry payments on account of the said estate---56 pounds, 17 shillings, 10½ pence.

Edward Peters (276)

3. ⁴Ann Hansford, daughter of John Hansford, married John Chapman between 1748 and 1753. She was single when her father wrote his will, but was married and had a child when her brother, William Hansford, wrote his will in 1753. ⁵Walter Chapman was her son and there may have been other children.

⁵Walter Chapman (⁴Ann Hansford Chapman, ³John Hansford, ²Charles Hansford, John Hansford) married Judith-----and his will written

May 27, 1799 and proved September 21, 1812 named his daughter, Mildred and a son-in-law, Matthew Hubbard. Mildred received only five shillings, while the son-in-law received the bulk of the estate. It was witnessed by William Chapman, Susanna Hubbard, and John More. (277)

-----⁴
4. Lydia Mansford³, daughter of John Mansford, married-----
Wagstaff. They had a son, John Wagstaff⁵ and possibly other children. William⁴ Mansford, in his will, spoke of "Edward Wagstaff, the son of my nephew, John Wagstaff", so John⁵ Wagstaff had a son, Edward Wagstaff⁶.
John Wagstaff⁵ (Lydia⁴ Mansford Wagstaff, John³ Mansford, Charles² Mansford, John¹ Mansford) married Elizabeth-----. The given excerpt from a deed dated December 17, 1768 proves this marriage:----- "between John Wagstaff of York and Elizabeth his wife one part and Charles Mansford-----for thirty-five pounds current money of Virginia paid by Charles Mansford-----for twenty-six acres of land, being the one fourth part of that plantation tract formerly belonging to William Mansford deceased, lying and being in the said County of York-----containing by estimation 104 acres be the same more or less, and by the last will and testament of said William Mansford, devised to his godson, Charles Mansford and the lawful heirs of his body, but the said Charles deceasing and leaving no such heirs, the land returned to John Wagstaff, William Harvey, Walter Chapman, and Lockley Collier, as being sons and heirs-at-law to the co-heirs, which twenty-six acres of land above mentioned is the said Wagstaff's part-----".(278)

In the Virginia Gazette November 21, 1771 issue, John Wagstaff advertized about a lost horse. He stated that if such horse should be found and delivered to Mr. Charles Mansford at the Half-Way House between Williamsburg and Yorktown, twenty-five shillings would be the reward.

(278) York County Deed Book No. 7 (1764-7) p.477 and 510; see p.88.

John Wagstaff and his wife had issue:

- (1) Edward Wagstaff ⁶ evidently died young, no issue; not in father's will, 1775.
- (2) Judith Wagstaff ⁶
- (3) Elizabeth Wagstaff mar. William Harris; got 100A from her brother 1783
- (4) John Wagstaff ⁶ got 8 slaves, will 1786 ~~no wife, no children~~ mother still living.

Here is a part of John Wagstaff's will, written February 16,

1775 and proved September 10, 1775, in which he named his children:

"I give to my loving wife, Elizabeth Wagstaff as long as she remains my widow, all my estate both real and personal and I likewise give my loving wife Elizabeth Wagstaff liberty to sell and dispose of any part of my estate without being answerable to anyone for so doing and further I desire that there be no appraisement of my estate.

I give to my daughter, Judith Wagstaff seven Negroes, viz.: Sue, Joe, Jack, Else, Charity, Nanny, and Tom-----and if Judith should die before she arrives to the age of twenty-one years or marries, then my desire is that my daughter Elizabeth Harris shall have five of the Negroes bequeathed to my daughter Judith-----

I give and bequeath to my son, John Wagstaff -----Betty, Dick, Stepney, Jack, Claack, Will, Jane and her two children Will and Hannah--

My will is that my tract of land in the County of Mecklenburg be sold and the money arising from the sale to be applied toward discharging my debts and -----be divided among my three children, Elizabeth Harris, John Wagstaff, and Judith Wagstaff."

William Baptist.(279)

On the previous page it was stated that John Wagstaff's wife was Elizabeth-Baptist. She ~~might have~~ ^{probably was} been the daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Baptist; each of these left wills and each left legacies to (279) York County Wills and Inventories No. 22 (1771-1783) p.307.

a daughter Elizabeth Wagstaff.(York County Wills and Inventories 1746-1759, pages 69 and 77)

(1) ⁶Edward Wagstaff was named in his great unole's will (William Mansford). Since he was not mentioned in his father's will, there is reason to believe that he died rather young. Ner is there a will for an Edward Wagstaff in York County.

(2) ⁶Judith Wagstaff evidently died young or before her brother died, as she was not named in his will but the other sister was.

(3) ⁶Elizabeth Wagstaff married ^{William}William Harris. She was referred to in both her father's and her brother's wills ^{see York R.B.L p 188.}

(4) ⁶John Wagstaff wrote his will March 26, 1781 and it was proved July 16, 1781.(280) ^{no issue}Here is a portion of his will:

"I lend to my mother during; her life all my land and at her death I give unto my cousin, William Harwood Baptist that part of the tract of land I now live on where my house stands containing fifty acres-----

The other part of my tract of land over the swamp commonly called Morris's after my mother's death I give to my sister Elizabeth Harris-----

I lend unto my loving mother during life all my Negroes viza: ^{same ones}Dick, Stepney, Jack, Clack, Will, Tom, Jane and her children and ^{he}at ^{heired}her death I give the aforesaid Negroes to my sister Elizabeth Harris ^{from his father}

I give unto my cousin Willian Harwood Baptist and cousin Rachel ^{will}Baptist one cow each.

I do appoint my friend Edward Baptist executor to this will.

Lydia Hansford Wagstaff was evidently a widow when both her father and brother referred to her in their wills. Since Francis Lee⁴ was concerned about the disposition of William Hansford's property and had married "with the other sister and heir at law of the testator" (meaning William) we conclude that Lydia Hansford Wagstaff married secondly, Francis Lee. There is on record in York County a will for a Francis Lee proved December 17, 1753, but no mention was made to a wife. However, this was written March 30, 1752 and it is possible that he had not remarried. (281) This will was witnessed by Charles Hansford Junior and William Fuller.

-----⁴
5. Rebecca Hansford, daughter of John Hansford³ (Charles², John¹) married -----Harvey. She died before December 1748 when her father wrote his will, because he remembered her children in the will, but he did not leave her anything. Also, her brother, William stated in his will that she was "deceased".

⁴
Issue of Rebecca Hansford Harvey were:

- ⁵
(1) Suzanna Harvey
- ⁵
(2) William Harvey
- ⁵
(3) Rebecca Harvey

We have no further information about (1) Suzanna and (3) Rebecca Harvey. Relative to (2) William⁵ Harvey, this material has been found:

He married Elizabeth-----and died before September 18, 1769. She, as his widow, sold the land that he heired from his unole. This record tells how Charles Hansford, godson of William Hansford, died without children and how the land went to ether members of the family. Elizabeth Harvey, the widow of William Harvey and his administrator lived in Gloucester County. The deed is partially given here, because it also states whom the daughters of John³ Hansford married.

(281) York County Wills and Inventories 1746-1759 p. 307.

"Harvey to Hansford, May 21, 1770 between Elizabeth Harvey of Gloucester, widow and administrator of William Harvey, late of the said County of Gloucester, deceased on one part and Charles Hansford of York County the other part: for consideration of thirty-five pounds current money to her in hand by said Charles Hansford at a court hearing September 18, 1769 twenty-six acres of land being one fourth part of that plantation tract-----that formerly belonged to William Hansford, deceased, lying in York County and containing 104 acres known by name of Ordinary Land or Half-Way House and by last will of William Hansford to his godson, Charles Hansford and the lawful heirs of his body. But said Charles deceasing and leaving no such heirs, the land returned to John Wagstaff, William Harvey, Walter Chapman, and Lookley Collier, being sons and heirs to the co-heirs which twenty-six acres of land mentioned above was the said William Harvey's part" (282)

 6. ⁴Elizabeth Hansford, daughter of John ³Hansford (Charles ², John ^I) married first Lookley (Lockey) Collier. When her father wrote his will he named her and her child, Rebecca Collier (1748) . When her brother William wrote his will five years later (July 12, 1752), he called her Elizabeth Buck and mentioned her daughter Judith Collier. In Tyler's Historical and Genealogical Quarterly Vol. 6, page 57 this is found:

"There is a deed recorded in Yorktown in 1769 by Lookley Collier of Elizabeth City County and Margaret his wife to Charles Hansford for one-fourth of the plantation formerly belonging to William Hansford--" Dr. Tyler also said, "In a record at Hampton dated August 1, 1758, Lookley Collier, the father of Charles Miles Collier is spoken of as 'the orphan of Lookley Collier'".

court record August 20, 1753 when William Hansford's will was probated already given in this book.) Her known children were:

(1) ⁵Lookley Collier ⁴(Elizabeth Hansford Collier, John Hansford, ³Charles Hansford, John Hansford) married first Martha----- and had:

⁶A. Charles Miles Collier, who married Anne Marshall, daughter of James Marshall. They had ⁷children:

(A) ⁷Charles Miles Collier Jr.

(B) ⁷Lookley Collier

(C) daughters (mentioned in will)

There is a marriage bond in York County dated December 1819 which authorized the clerk of the court to issue license to "my son, Lookley Collier for to marry Miss Frances C. Howard" and it is signed by Charles M. Collier.

⁶B. Diana Collier, born April 14, 1768; baptized June 5, 1768.

After the death of his first wife, he married Margaret----- and had issue: ⁶

C. Mary Collier, born March 28, 1773 and baptized May 9, 1773, but this child died young, because the parents had another child by the same name: ⁶

D. Mary Collier, born June 8, 1775; baptized July 9, 1775.(283)

(Names of the wives were given when the children's names and births were recorded; also the second wife's name was stated in a deed) His will was written September 2, 1778 and was probated November 6, 1778 in Elizabeth City County, Virginia.

⁵(3) Judith Collier, ⁴daughter of Elizabeth Hansford Collier, and her husband, was named in William Hansford's will as "daughter of my sister Elizabeth".

 Elizabeth⁴ Hansford Collier married secondly, John Buck and Charles Parish Register carries this record:

(4) "Anne Buck, daughter of John and Elizabeth of Elizabeth City County, born February 3, baptized March 6, 1756."

 We do not know ^{for certain} who Matthew Hansford was. It is reasonable to believe that he was ^{probably son of} ~~closely related to~~³ John Hansford and we have these facts:

First: Matthew Hansford had a daughter, Martha Hansford. We read from the record "on a petition of John Hansford against John More praying that he may be appointed guardian for Martha Hansford, orphan of Matthew Hansford, deceased." This order that More be summoned to appear at the next court to answer to the said petition; dated March 20, 1731/2.(284)

Second: Matthew Hansford married Elizabeth-----who after his death married John More.(Moore) Consider this record: "John Hansford against John Moore and Elizabeth his wife, administratrix of Mathew Hansford, deceased. By consent of both parties, all matters in difference between them regarding the estate of Matthew Hansford were referred to William Robinson and Edward Barradell-----whose award to be the judgement of the court. They agreed as follows: 'we award that the defendent pay to the P.V. one hundred pounds, eleven shillings, seven penoe, three fartherings in full for the balance of the estate of Matthew Hansford in the hands of the defendent'". white state.

and settled in St. George Parish, Spotsylvania County, Virginia. He was a member of the first court at Germanna in 1721-22. On October 14, 1723, he received a patent for four hundred acres of land on Massapon-nax Branch, but on May 3, 1726 he sold this to William Arven and William Beehman. (286) On July 25, 1727 he sold to his brother, Charles Hansford, the tract of land in York County, at the head of Falgate's Creek; this had been given him by his father in his will. (The will was proved 1702) (287) August 11, 1727 he bought one hundred acres from--- -----Atkins. (288)

³ William Hansford married Sarah Sallis Deniphan February 25, 1726. She was the daughter of Samuel Sallis of Essex County, Virginia and was the widow of Alexander Deniphan, Junior, who died about 1725. (289)
From her first husband she heired one hundred and fifty acres and record shows that on July 13, 1726 she relinquished her dower rights and she and William Hansford sold this tract to Anthony Thornton. (291)

In the Spotsylvania County Orders Book 1724-1730 page 355 we read "Captain William Hansford and his officer, John Grayson, Junior took oath October 7, 1729." Also in Will Book A. (1722-1747) page 22 same county, Captain William Hansford was spoken of as a Justice.

William Hansford and Sarah his wife, sold to the Reverend James Mayre, for two thousand pounds of currency, land in Spotsylvania County Virginia "where said Hansford now lives". This tract was granted James Canne by patent July 15, 1717. At the same time, they sold one hundred acres "in the same parish purchased by James Atkins from John Blackle as by deed April 11, 1727". This sale was executed October 4, 1743. (292) In the St George Parish Vestry Book 1726-1745, on page 2 William Hansford is listed as "gentleman of the Vestry."

William Hansford's will was written June 7, 1750 and proved October 17, 1754. (293) In this he named his wife and children, also one grandson. The grandson heired a slave, the same as the chesne of Wm³ which certainly indicates he was a child of a deceased son. He heired a full chesne's portion of Wm³ estate.

The grandson mentioned in the will was Bennene Hansford, also spelled Benoni.

The inventory for the estate of Sarah Sallis D. Hansford was made May 15, 1755. (294)

The material about this branch of the family is by no means complete. What is included is correct, but there has to be much more.

Consider the second son of William Hansford (William⁴, Charles², John^I) :

(2) ⁵John Hansford⁴, son of William Hansford and his wife ----- Hyde Hansford, was born February 16, 1765. He married Jane Morris (born November 3, 1770), daughter of Major William Morris and his wife Catherine Carroll Morris, November 15, 1787. (From a Marriage Register kept by John Andersen, a copy of which is now owned by the Virginia Baptist Historical Division at the University of Richmond. Rev. Andersen performed the ceremony.) He died August 12, 1850, past his 85th birthday and she died in 1854 in her 84th year. He is listed as a land owner and among the tithables in 1792 in Kanawha. (295)

William Hansford "son and heir" died 1779; Orange Co., Va. Minute Bk 2 p 116 "at a court held for Orange Co., Va. Spencer writes that Rev Thomas Hansford (1762-1835) many years pastor of Sinking Creek, in old age, imagined himself slighted by younger brethren. He joined the Campbellites & moved to adjacent Wayne Co., Ky - deceased 1841 of excellent character - did much good -

(I don't know why the difference in the dates 1835 & 1841 J.H.)

He served in the American Revolution as a major. (296)

As assignee of William Morris, he received a land grant for five hundred and thirty acres in the Kanawha Valley, December 17, 1793. (297) There he proceeded to establish his home. Ruth Dayton (298) describes this as the finest in the Valley at that time. Being situated on a hillside, surrounded by cedars and tall trees, the location was ideal for the splendid frame two-story building. This was almost spectacular, since the neighboring houses were constructed of logs. The interior was likewise finished with excellent taste, having considerable paneling of cherry and walnut.

Major Hansford was a prominent man in his time. He was Representative from Kanawha to the Virginia Assembly from 1811 to 1819. (299) It seems that prior to the election in 1817, John Hansford and Lewis Summers, two of the candidates for the Legislature, assured the voters that if they were elected, they would use their efforts in getting a new county established in that area. They were successful in both winning the election and in having Nicholas County organized, which was really a relief to the citizens, many of whom had been travelling eighty miles to court. (300) Another record shows that Nicholas County court started April 1818 on the second Tuesday in the month. John Hansford, because of an act of the Virginia Legislature, was appointed to administer the oath of office to the Justices who had been chosen member of that court. (301)

He organized the first Baptist church in the Kanawha Valley, meeting for a time in his home at Crown Hill.

John Hansford was Captain of the local militia and a magistrate.

According to Dyer's Index to Land Grants in West Virginia

Felix G. Hansford had four hundred acres at Boomer's Branch in 1835.

⁶F. ⁵John ⁴Hansford, son of John Hansford (William ³, William ², Charles, John) and his wife, Jane Morris Hansford, was born January 1, 1798. He was a member of a commission which provided "poor relief money" in 1831 for Kanawha County. (303) In 1854 he was a Justice of the Peace in Kanawha County. (The same record mentions Alva Hansford and Vieteria F. Hansford.) (304) He was killed by a train October 10, 1867. Dyer's Index to Land Grants in West Virginia shows that John Hansford of Tucker County had fifty acres west of Pleasant Run in 1867.

⁶I. ⁵Marshall ⁴Hansford, son of John Hansford (William ³, William ², Charles, John) and his wife Jane Morris Hansford, was born January 28, 1807. He was a physician and lived in the Paint Creek area near Pratt, West Virginia.

⁶J. ⁵Albert Galliton ⁴Hansford, son of John Hansford (William ³, William ², Charles, John) and his wife, Jane Morris Hansford, was born December 17, 1808 at Crown Hill, Kanawha County, West Virginia. He was a merchant, shipping coal and salt. He married Nancy Harriman, who was born in 1818 in Cabell County, West Virginia, and died in East Bank, Kanawha County, in 1904. Among their children was Sally Summerfield Hansford, born 1847 in East Bank (Kanawha County) and died June 15, 1913 in Richmond, Virginia. She married Chapman Morris (born 1847

(B) ⁸Harvey Hansford Morris, born April 11, 1873 at Coalburg, West Virginia. He married Annie Belle Davis September 7, 1892. She died January 25, 1920. Harvey Hansford Morris married secondly, Mary Elizabeth Van Weikin Snyder, a widow, on March 16, 1920. He had ⁹issue by his first wife, Julia Summerfield Morris, who married Robert Francis Carter, a graduate of the West Point Military Academy. (305)

K. ⁶Milton Hansford, son of John Hansford and his wife, Jane ⁵Morris Hansford, was born January 22, 1811; he died 1871. He married Mary Parks, daughter of Andrew Parks. Because of a relationship with George Washington, several pieces of furniture from Mount Vernon were given to these kinfelks and are in the Hansford house in West Virginia today.

(7) ⁵Mary Hansford, daughter of William ⁴Hansford, Junior and his wife-----Hyde Hansford. The old manuscript from which the issue ⁴of William Hansford were taken stated that his daughter, Elizabeth Hansford married a -----Short from Virginia. The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Vol. 35, page 294 has a query about the Short-Hansford marriage or family relationship. This states: Mary Hansford, born January 13, 1756, married John Short of Nigart Valley, Virginia January 20, 1780. She was the daughter of William Hansford.

⁴Since one of William Hansford's daughters married -----Short, it seems more likely to have been Mary instead of her sister Elizabeth. Also, William Hansford and his wife were married 1753 and this Mary's ⁴(305) Callahan, James M. History of West Virginia, Vol. III. p 271.

birthday was 1756 which coincide. The Shorts moved to Kentucky and carried her brother Thomas Hansford with them. Later we find that Thomas⁵, son of William Hansford⁴, lived in Crab Orchard, Kentucky before he moved to Missouri.

2. Sallis⁴ (Sallis) Hansford³ was a second son of William Hansford³ (Charles², John¹) and his wife, Sarah Sallis Hansford. He married Lucy-----and they had a son, William Hansford⁵. Here are parts of his will:

"I lend to my loving wife two Negroes named Harry and Pegg during her life and in case my son should die before he comes of age or marries-----

I give and bequeath to my son, William Hansford two Negro boys named Gabriel and Tom, and after the decease of my wife, Harry and Pegg-----

I give to my nephew, Benone Hansford after the decease of my wife-----

I give to my nephew, Benjamin Porter, son of Nicholas Porter----

I desire that my son, William Hansford, and Gabriel the Negro be bound out at the age of sixteen-----".

Thomas Slaughter and Nicholas Porter were named executors. The will was written March 28, 1764 and proved November 1764.

"This will was exhibited at the court by Lucy Hansford, widow of the said decedent and was proved by the oath of John Frazier and Judith Hookley, witnesses.(306)

This will shows that Sallis Hansford died before November 15, 1764; also that his son, William Hansford⁵ was under sixteen years of age.

services. Among these was Sallis Hansford "Serjiant" who received 1710 pounds of tobacco. He was also given two hundred and thirty pounds of tobacco "for a horse impressed and employed in the service." (307)

Sallis Hansford may have served in the French and Indian Wars judging by the given quotation taken from Henning's Statutes (Vol 7, pp21-22) "and whereas divers companies of the militia of the several counties of Prince William, Fairfax, and Culpepper were lately drawn into actual service for the defence and protection of the frontiers of this colony against the incursions and depredations of the French and their Indian allies, whose names, and the time they respectively continued in the said service, are contained in a certain schedule to this act annexed, and it is just and necessary that they be paid for such their service." (308)

-----⁴ 3. Charles S. Hansford³, son of William Hansford (Charles², John¹) and his wife, Sarah Sallis Hansford, left a will which was presented in court February 25, 1762 and proved March 25, 1762. (309) In this will we find such statements as this: "my sister, Ann Finell, wife of Thomas Finell-----: my cousin, Benone Hansford---; but if he dies without issue then the Negro boy goes to my cousin, Ann Porter, the daughter of Nicholas Porter-----; my well beloved brother, Nicholas Porter named executor of my will-----."

⁴ Apparently Charles S. Hansford did not marry.

Benone Hansford was a nephew instead of a cousin; Ann Porter was likewise a niece.

These last two came to America in 1730 and settled in Orange County, Virginia. Concerning Benoni⁵ Hansford, we know that he was a grandson of William Hansford, because he was called such in his will. Whether he was the child of one of his sons named (William or John) or if he was the son of a deceased son of William Hansford is not known. Benoni³ Hansford served as First Lieutenant in the Revolutionary War and was sworn in August 27, 1778. He was from Orange County, Virginia. (312) married Samuel Hill. This is proved by a deed dated January 24, 1709 when John Hansford gave a small piece of land to his "loving sister Martha Hill, the wife of Samuel Hill." (313) She was married before July 1702 because in her father's will Samuel Hill was called Charles Hansford's son-in-law. John Hansford, her brother, was appointed guardian of the orphans of Samuel Hill, deceased, May 19, 1718. (314) We also find that John Hansford settled the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased, administered by Martha Hill. An inventory was made the same day. (315)

The inventory and appraisal of the estate was recorded June 25, 1718. (316)

Martha Hansford Hill after becoming a widow, operated an ordinary. The following record is included here because it tells what was expected of a proprietress and regulations to which she had to conform:

3. Lydia Hansford², daughter of Charles Hansford (John^I), married Henry Duke some time before 1702. Both she and her husband were named in her father's will.

Historians disagree as to who Henry Duke was. In Tyler's Historical Genealogical Quarterly Vol. 7, page 213, it is stated that Henry Duke was a Justice of the Peace in James City County in 1680; was a member of the House of Burgesses 1692, 1699; Councillor of State in 1703-1713. Dr. Tyler further stated that he married Lydia Hansford.

On July 21, 1746 the case came up again and " Samuel Hill, through his guardian, John Hansford, agreed to a division of the land

When Samuel Hill wrote his will some thirty years later, he told much about himself. Here is the will abstracted:

"I lend to my brother, Hansford Hill two Negroes, by name Hester and Old Doll during his life and after his decease, I give the said two Negroes to my daughter Lydia Hill .

I give and bequeath all the remainder of my estate both real and personal to my said daughter, Lydia and her heirs forever after my just debts are fully paid and discharged, but if it pleases God that my said daughter should die before she comes to the age of twenty-one or before she marries, I give one sixth part of my estate to my half sister, Elizabeth Fuller, daughter of William Fuller, deceased and her heirs forever.

I give and bequeath to my mother-in-law, Ann Goodwin, my late wife's part in the estate of her deceased father, Robert Goodwin .

If my said daughter should die as above stated before she becomes twenty-one or marries, I give two sixths of my estate to my other half sister, Mary Dedman, wife of Phillip Dedman and her heirs forever and the remainder of my estate I give to my mother, Elizabeth Fuller and her heirs.

Joe Morris, Rebecca Goodwin, daughter of Robert Goodwin, and Edmund Peters, son of Francis Peters.

This will was written November 30, 1769 and was proved February

Charles², John Hansford) married -----Goodwin, daughter of Robert⁵ and Ann Goodwin. He had one child, Lydia Hill, not twenty-one in 1769 the approximate date of her father's death.

Lydia Hill, daughter of Samuel Hill married James Dudley, Nov.
18, 1773 and Charles Hansford, into whose care she had been entrusted by her father, was security.(321)

In the May 6, 1773 edition of the Virginia Gazette this appeared:
"Sundry likely Virginia born Negroes, belonging to the estate of Mr.

the half-way house between Williamsburg and Yorktown on Tuesday the

There is recorded a deed between Elizabeth Fuller and Samuel a tract of land of two hundred acres formerly in the possession of Richard Burt, deceased, being in the Parish of York-Hampton----- dated January 16, 1758. At the same time, Samuel Hill sold to Elizabeth

(2) ^{Sam} Hansford Hill, son of ^{Burt} Elizabeth Hill
(Charles, John Hansford) and her first husband, Samuel Hill received a small amount from the estate of his step-father, William Fuller July 20, 1760. The most that we know about him is given in his will dated April 24, 1779 and proved January 17, 1780. Here are portions of the will:

"I give my mother, Elizabeth Fuller one of my Negroes--^{of which she may choose during her life.}
I ^{lend} leave the remaining three to my daughter Elizabeth Hill during her life if she should live to come of age----

If my daughter dies before she comes of age, I leave the Negroes to my sisters, Mary Dedman and Elizabeth Davis". (323)

We do not know whom Hansford Hill married. Evidently she died before he wrote his will. He had one child, Elizabeth Hill, not of age when her father died. In York County Orders Book Number 7 (1795-1803) on page we read that Elizabeth Wright was appointed to take care of the person and estate of Elizabeth Hill. Elizabeth Wright was an aunt of the last named Elizabeth.

^{These are 1/2 sister to Sam Hill III}
(3) Elizabeth Fuller, daughter of Elizabeth Hill
Fuller (~~Charles~~, John Hansford) and her second husband, William Fuller, married James Davis around February 2, 1774 when marriage license were issued. The record is taken from York Marriage Bonds: "Be it known to all men by these presents that I, Elizabeth Fuller, widow, guardian of Elizabeth Fuller of York County do acknowledge-----granted unto James Davis---license to be married to said Elizabeth Fuller". Signed by Elizabeth Fuller and witnessed by Henry Lee and John Cannon. April 24, 1779 her brother Hansford Hill named her as Elizabeth Davis in his will. In York County Orders Book Number 7, page 74, there is (323) York County Wills and Inventories No. 22 p. 464.

recorded this: "On motion of Richard Hensford a witness for Thomas Dwey, administrator of Elizabeth Hill deceased, ^{d. 1795} against Elizabeth Wright late Elizabeth Davis, executor of James Davis deceased. It is ordered that said Thomas Dwey pay him $1.06 for attending court two days." (This happened in 1795).

This indicates that Elizabeth Fuller ⁴ married James Davis and after his death (being his executor), she married Mr. Wright. (She was married a third time.)

James Davis, husband of Elizabeth Fuller (Elizabeth ⁵ ~~Hensford~~ ^{Burt} Hill Fuller, ^{Phil Burt, Ely, Hensford, Imr + John} ~~Charles, John Hensford~~) left a will dated May 12, 1779 (324). He named his wife Elizabeth Davis, his sister, Mary Davis, his daughter Mary Davis and his daughter, Elizabeth Davis. The will states: " if both my children should die I give all that part of my estate-- to wife---to whom she thinks proper as I received of her by marriage with its increase and the remainder of my estate after the decease of my wife I agree to be divided equally between the children of my mother, Winefred Lester."

Lastly, I do constitute and appoint my wife Elizabeth Davis and my brother, Benjamin Lester whole and sole executors."

November 2, 1779 Ishmael Mereland and Benjamin Lester Junior made oath that Elizabeth Davis, daughter of James Davis, deceased, died in the time of her father. So, Elizabeth Davis, the daughter, died between May 12 and November 1779. The estate of James Davis was divided January 10, 1783 and was in this manner: to Elizabeth Wright (the widow had remarried) two grown Negroes and two young Negroes; to Mary Davis, his daughter, two slaves, Jenny and Peg. In charge of this division was Edward Baptist, Francois Lee, and John Cosby. (325)

York County records have this:

to be had and solemnized between Humphrey Garrett and the said Eliza-

There is a deed in York County between Phillip Dedman and his wife, Mary and Edward Wright. It says, "being the same tract of land which descended to the said Mary by the death of her father William on the east by Anne Rowen.

The will of the younger Phillip Dedman was written May 8, 1802

I

Elizabeth Hansford, daughter of John Hansford and his wife, Elizabeth Hansford, was under sixteen and unmarried when her father's will was written May 9, 1654. She married first, Christopher Wilson, and after his death, she married Randolph Helt (often written Randall Helt) of Surry County, Virginia. Proof of these marriages is given in a record dealing with the "settlement of John Hansford, Sr. estate between Randolph Helt of Surry County intermarrying with Elizabeth Wilson, widow of Christopher Wilson and daughter of John Hansford, Senior and Edward Leekey of York County as intermarrying with Elizabeth Hansford, widow of John Hansford, Sr.(331)

In the inventory of John Hansford's estate April 1667, Elizabeth Helt is mentioned and the property she received is listed.(332)

Randolph or Randall Helt's will was written April 26, 1679 and was probated September 20, 1679. In part it states:

"I give and bequeath to my eldest son, Jno Helt all my land, to him and his heirs forever, but if he dye (sic) without issue or before he comes to age then to my son William Helt in like manner and if he dyes without heirs of his body to my son Thomas Helt and his heirs----

I give and bequeath to my loving wife, Elizabeth Helt all my goods, chattles-----

----loving wife and my son, John my executors-----."(333)

Elizabeth Hansford Helt wrote her will March 4, 1708/9 and it was proved May 3, 1709.(334) In this she named three grand-children: Charles, Joseph, and John, sons of John Helt. Children of Elizabeth Hansford Helt and her husband were:

1. John Helt
2. William Helt

-----³ 2
I. John Holt³, son of Elizabeth² Hansford Holt and her husband, was born about 1664 and died 1705. He was listed in the cavalry of Surry County in 1687. He probably married Mary Binns, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Binns. (335) Children of John Holt and his wife were:

(1) John⁴ Holt

(2) David⁴ Holt

(3) Charles⁴ Holt

(4) Joseph⁴ Holt

(5) Benjamin⁴ Holt

(I) John Holt⁴, son of John³ Holt (Elizabeth² Hansford Holt, John¹ Hansford) lived on Hog Island. He petitioned the Colonial Government in 1720 that a bridge be built across the creek to the mainland. His will was written July 19, 1723 and was probated December 18, 1723 in Surry County, Virginia. He left all of his land to his son Thomas; legacies were given his daughters, Mary and Elizabeth; the "sum of one hundred and forty pounds current money" was appertioned to his son, John who was also designated as "whole and sole execeuter" with "my loving breether, Joseph Holt and Charles Binnis Jr.-----assisting to my said execeuter by their advice-----." (336) In this he named his children:

A. Thomas⁵ Holt

B. John⁵ Holt

C. Mary⁵ Holt

D. Elizabeth⁵ Holt

(335) Tyler's Historical and Genealogical Quarterly Vol. 6 p 277

(336) Surry County Willis and Deeds 1715-1730 p. 491.

Relative to the children of John Helt,⁴ we know that:

A. Thomas Helt⁵ was an attorney. Surry County records have many legal transactions that were handled by him. On page 325 in Wills and Deeds 1715-1730 is one of numerous examples. Thomas Helt and Arthur Allen gave bond of twenty pounds sterling for Helt to operate a ferry from Hog Island to Archer's Hope, April 25, 1725.(337)

B. John Helt⁵ married Elizabeth_____. His will was dated September 21, 1759 and was probated October 16, 1764.(338) He named his children:

- (A) John Helt⁶
- (B) Josiah Helt⁶
- (C) Randolph Helt⁶
- (D) Keziah Helt (a daughter)⁶
- (E) Elvira Helt⁶
- (F) Mary Helt⁶
- (G) Anna Helt⁶

also a grandson, John Randolph Wilkerson was named and was to receive ten pounds and a gold ring.(339) He left all of his land on Hog Island to his son, Randolph Helt; his daughters, Kezia and Elvira each received fifty pounds; daughters Mary and Anna each were given three hundred pounds "current money when they reach age twenty or marry."

Consider the descendants of :

(A) John Helt⁶ (John Helt⁵, John Helt⁴, John Helt³, Elizabeth Hansford Helt, John Hansford)² wrote his will February 6, 1782 and it was probated January 28, 1783 in Surry County, Virginia. In it he named his sons, John Helt⁷ and Roland Helt⁷; his wife (no name given); his brother Josiah Helt; his daughters (no names given). Executors were Nicholas Faulson Jr., William Clinch Jr., Jacob Faulson, Christopher Clinch, and his sons. It was witnessed by William Spratley, William Boyce, Carter, Crafford, William Clinch, and Michael Blow.(340)

(B) ⁶Josiah Holt (nothing except being named in his brother's will)

(C) ⁶Randolph Holt evidently did not marry as he left his property to his brother, Josiah Holt and his sisters, Mary and Anna Holt . His will was written October 4, 1765, but does not state when or if it was probated.(341)

This writer has no further information about the descendants of John ³Holt, (son of Elizabeth Hansford ²Holt).

³2. William Holt, second son of Elizabeth Hansford ²Holt and her husband, R. Holt, married Elizabeth Seward, daughter of William Seward. She is named in the will of William Seward dated March 6, 1702/3. The will of William Holt, written September 28, 1725 and probated May 18, 1726 gives the names of his issue. Statements from the will indicate that he desired "son William Holt (have) my Troopers Arms." His wife Elizabeth was chosen executor.(342) Children of William ³Holt were:

- (1) ⁴William Holt
- (2) ⁴Thomas Holt
- (3) ⁴Charles Holt
- (4) ⁴Sarah Holt
- (5) ⁴Elizabeth Holt
- (6) ⁴Mary Holt

7
b. Phillip Holt

c. Mary Holt (an Eliza Mary Holt and Moody Collier were married May 27, 1794)

Surry County records (Deed Book 17, 1783-1787 pp 130, 312) show a Joseph Holt and wife Mary selling land to James Adams, September 27, 1785; also a Joseph Holt , with Mary his wife, gave a deed to John Andrews July 23, 1787.

No further information is at hand concerning off spring of William Holt⁴ and Mary Holt except this which follows about Francis Holt, their third child.

This account was examined by Hamilton Usher St George and Willis Wilson

(2) ⁴Thomas Helt, son of William ³Helt and Elizabeth Helt, was spoken of as "Captain Thomas Helt".(348) A settlement was made of the estate of Captain Thomas Helt in Dinwiddie County November 15, 1774, but it was also recorded in Surry County; also in Surry a long inventory was made September 26, 1775.(349) He evidently had two sons:

- A. James Holt
B. Henry Holt

(3) ⁴Charles Holt³, son of William Holt and Elizabeth Holt, married Elizabeth Presson, daughter of Richard Presson. His will was written October 9, 1767 and proved April 27, 1773.(350) He named his children, his wife, and his father-in-law, saying that he left to his wife during her life time or widowhood "all the estate that I had that came by her father, Richard Presson." - A. Thomas Stubbs⁶
- B. William Stubbs⁶

C. Samuel New Stubbs, born 1765, died 1845. He married Mary W. Stubblefield, daughter of Simon Stubblefield, of Ware. Among their children was John Smith Stubbs⁷, born 1811; died 1883; he was a lawyer. (362)

(6) Jane Robins⁵, daughter of William⁴ and Elizabeth C. Robins, married Thomas Chamberlain Amory, according to her father's will. Her daughter, Jane Amory⁶, was also mentioned in the will.

Anyone interested in the Robins family history as such will find much material in the Compendium of American Genealogy, Vol. VI. page 162; also, Mr. W. G. Stanard has developed the line to some extent and this may be found in Virginia Magazine of History, Vol. 2, pages 316; 187-189.

Edward Hansford worked as an artisan at Carter's Grove. He went to Portsmouth to work on the building of the forts for Revolutionary War. His death is recorded in Charles Parish Register, York Co., Va. as August 1781 and states he died in Portsmouth thus tying him to York Co, Charles Parish Hansfords. He married Mary - & her will written 28 July 1795 Norfolk Co., Va. of Town of Portsmouth, was probated Sept 16, 1805 (will Bk 4-1802-17p 78A+B of Norfolk, Va.). She named a daughter, Elizabeth Goffigan, wife of Labon Goffigan, Virginia Litchfield by Woodson, shows Edward Hansford (insolvent) 1768. 4 Litchfield, 278A in James City Co., Va.

In conducting a piece of research this size, it is not unusual to find a few persons who pose a problem in being properly placed. This is due to records being lost by ravages of war and time. However, in some instances, it seems certain, because of circumstances linked with their names, that they belong to this branch of the family. One such example is Edward Hansford.

Edward Hansford appears first on the York County records when he, as assignee of John Blair, was involved in a case versus John Hubard. (York County Orders No. 3 1760-1765, page 292.) The loose papers of York County include this item: "A warrent for Edward B-----to satisfy Edward Hansford-----pounds which said Hansford late in the court hath recovered against him for a debt, June 29th in the second year of our reign----" Signed: Thomas Everend.
"George III., By the Grace of God"; total three pounds, ten shillings.
That would have been in 1762.

The Bruton Parish Church Register carries a record of persons having slaves baptized. In 1763, Edward Hansford had slaves baptized; this would indicate that he had a home or plantation at that time.

The November 8, 1776 edition of the Virginia Gazette excused itself for not publishing an advertisement or notice sent to them by Edward Hansford. It seems that the comments he wished to make were phrased in rather strong language.

Edward Hansford lived part of his life in the Norfolk-Portsmouth area. He worked on the construction of the forts there. January 3, 1777 he was paid seventy-eight pounds for such work. (Calander of Virginia State Papers; also Virginia Magazine of History, Vol. IX.
pages 77, 79.)

The Charles Parish Register shows that "Edward Hansford of Portsmouth" died August 1781. So his death, although occurring some distance away, was of interest in York County.

Norfolk Marriage Bonds indicate that he may have had at least three children:

1. Mary Hansford, daughter of Edward Hansford, married Ralph Pickett March 25, 1779.

2. Elizabeth Hansford, a spinster twenty-three years of age, married Labon Goffian December 30, 1779. This does not state that she was Edward Hansford's daughter.

3. Edward Hansford and Ann Kidd, daughter of John Kidd, were married July 15, 1784. (This could not be the first named Edward, because he died 1781.) The Calendar of Virginia Papers Vol. IX. page 302 states that a petition was sent to the Council and the Governor by citizens of Norfolk May 19, 1802 and among the signers was Edward Hansford.

Henry Hansford obtained an attachment against the estate of Anthony F-----for four pounds, five shillings, six pence March 19, 1764. (York County Orders 1760-1765, p 174).

Several Hansford men had wives named Elizabeth, but we have no way of determining their surnames. Here is one mentioned in the will of Elizabeth Baptist, widow of Edward Baptist: (363) "I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Hansford the sum of ten pounds in the hands of Mr. Thomas Smith with interest on said money--

(363) York County Wills and Inventories 1746-1759 p. 77.

I give to my son Lee Harris the sum of ten pounds current money--- ".

She named her other children: Mary Baptist, Catherine Baptist, Edward Baptist, Elizabeth Wagstaff, Ann Baptist. This indicates that she had two daughters named Elizabeth but it appears that Elizabeth Hansford may have been Elizabeth Harris before her marriage. Her mother further stated in the will: "My will and desire is that none of the above legacies (except that to Elizabeth Hansford) may be paid in less than two years until the estate may be sold to the best advantage for more than one years credit." It was written December 16, 1747 and was probated February 15, 1747/8.

Augusta B. Fethergill, a historian, explained in one of ^{her} ~~the~~ books that when a woman used her maiden name and added "alias" and her married name, it was written in that manner to identify her with her father's family and never in Virginia was it meant to imply a common-law wife of anyone. In the York County records, there is a will of Anne Robinson alias Hansford dated May 14, 1781. Here is a part of it:

"Rebecca Irvin widow, maketh oath that being in the house of Margaret Baker in the company with Anne Robinson otherwise Hansford, who lay dangerously ill, she the said Anne desired the de----- to take notice that if she died it was her will and desire that the said Mrs. Baker who was her relation, might have all her things. That the words or declarations above mentioned were offered by said Anne on Saturday, the 12th instance, in her last sickness and that she died on this day."

(York County Wills and Inventories No. 22 1771-1783 p.574)

I definitely believe that Stephen Hansford descended from the Gloucester County, Va. Hansfords who disappeared from that area. Traveling north, up present day Route 17, or going by water, is reasonable. Note that a Gloucester record shows Stephen Gill having property joining Hansford. There is no proof, but a strong suspicion that there was a relationship between Stephen Gill and Stephen Hansford.
(J.H.)

1979 - Wo!!! We have now learned that Stephen Hansford was born in England and is another immigrant! (Helene Hansford)

He was born in Dorset County, England 1699 learned from a deposition relative to a family in Lancaster Co. Va. (see: Register of Overwharton Parish - which carries record of marriage of Stephen Hansford and Margaret McCarty, Oct. 14, 1755 and a foot note gives this: "On July 8, 1743 Stephen Hansford late of the town of Abbotsbury in the County of Dorset, England and now of King George Co. Va. aged 44 years, made a lengthy deposition in regard to the genealogy of the Chickerton family, formerly of Dorset England who settled in Lancaster Co., Va.

(James / Jim Hansford of Oak Hill, Md is of this line of Hansfords & has done extended research; Lucille Hansford Brooks of Fredericksburg is also from this line of Hansfords.
J.H.

Years after John Hansford had established his family in Virginia, others from the family in England migrated here. Stephen Hansford settled in King George County. We do not know the year that he came over, but he and his wife Elizabeth transacted a deed with John Grant of Brunswick Parish, King George County, October 1, 1736. He married secondly, Margaret McCarty October 4, 1755 according to the record of Overwharton Parish, Stafford County, given in Vol. 2, series 2 of the William and Mary College Quarterly, page 176. (Another source gives the date as October 14, 1755.) The inventory for his estate was presented at court May 4, 1758. (364) He had a son, Stephen Hansford.

Stephen Hansford married Elizabeth-----as shown by his will written June 10, 1772 and proved October 1772. In this he named his wife, Elizabeth, his "grandson Stephen Hansford, eldest son of my son Alexander Hansford and Ann his wife, one hundred twenty acres where I now live;-----my grandson, William Hansford---; my daughter, Ann Tull-----; my daughter, Alice Hansford-----; my two grand-daughters Mary Ann Armstrong and Lucy Elkins-----". (365)

A large family of Hansfords descended from Stephen Hansford and some research has been made of that branch of the family by a genealogist in that area. Mrs. Floyd E. Brooks ne Lucille Hansford of Fredericksburg, Virginia, who contributed much help in the preparation of this book, is a descendant of Stephen Hansford. She, likewise, has information about her family. Horace Edwin Hayden in Virginia Genealogies* has assembled information relative to these. Prominent names among these Hansfords were Theodosius Hansford, Escheator of King George County in 1779 and Addison Hansford.

(364) King George County Records, Inventories 1745-1765

(365) King George County Will Book I p.330

In the Old Rappahannock County Records, Virginia, there is mentioned a Samuel Hansford in 1685 and James Hansford November 20, 1686.

Joseph Hansford appears on Westmoreland County, Virginia records under the date of September 29, 1686.

From the Virginia Gazette :
November 5, 1767---Lewis Hansford advertized for sale a new house and lot in the city of Williamsburg "next door to Mr Lewis' store."

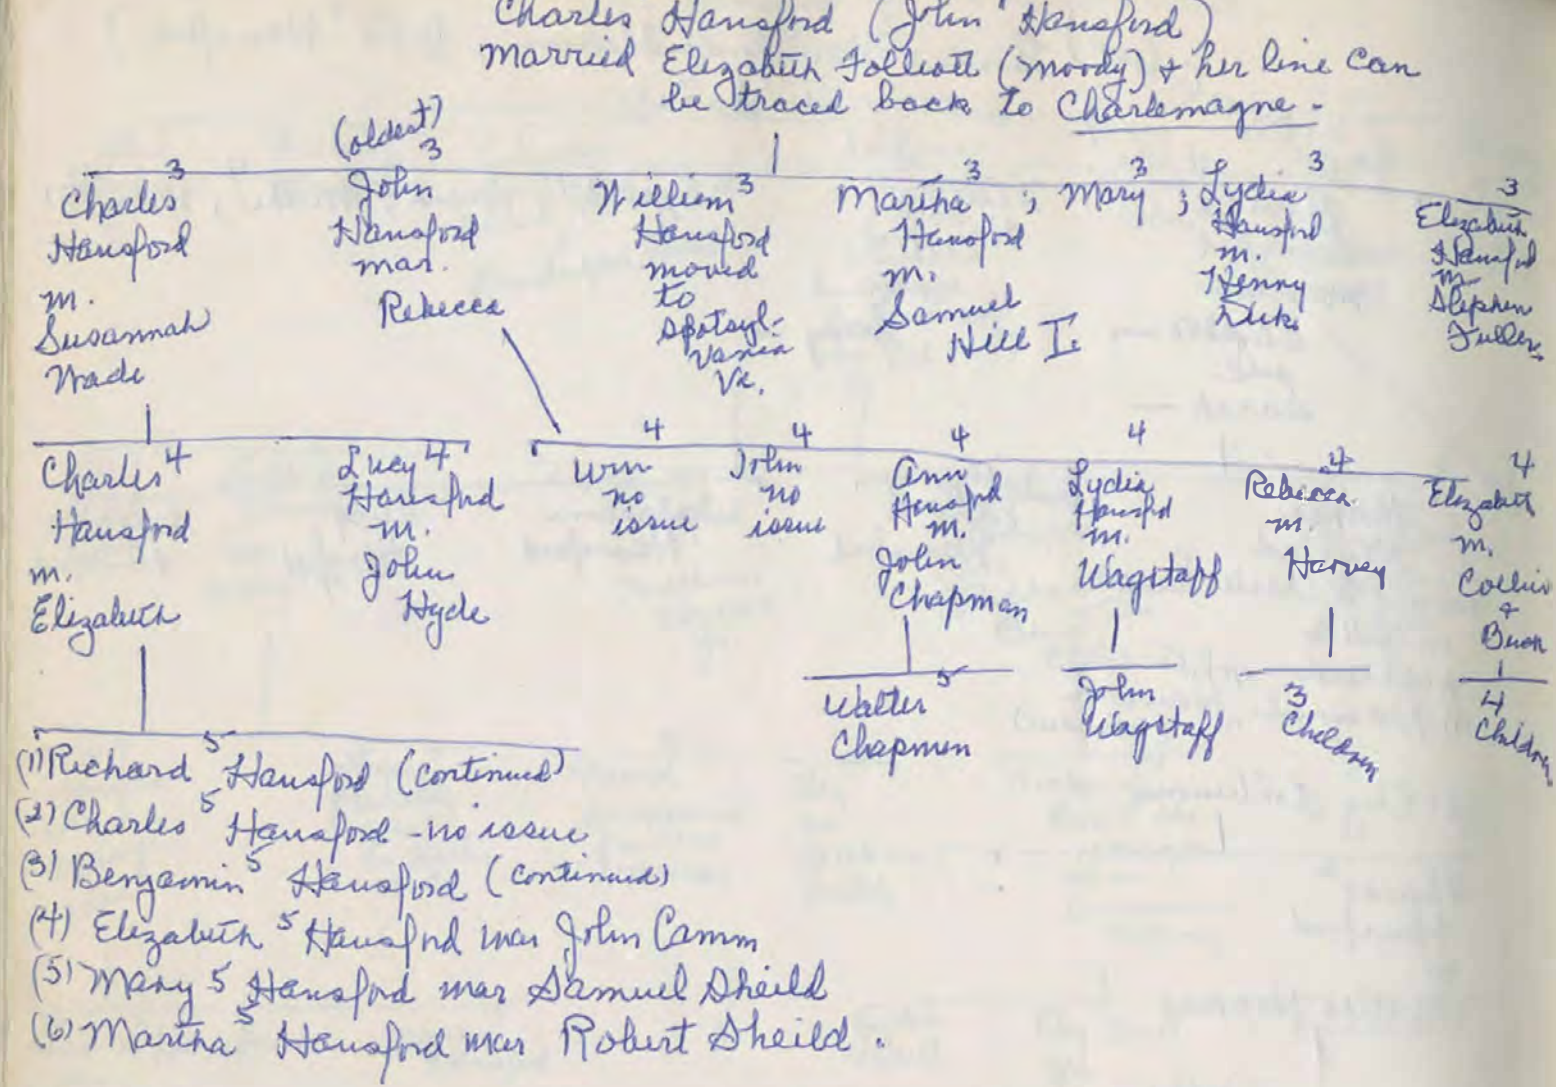

December 31, 1773 ---Brig Hansford, for Antigua, with 228I bushels barrels of pork; "cleared outwards of James River."

Norfolk, July 27, 1772---for sale: "70 pieces of best Irish Mutton and Christopher Wilson, Master; Gilchrist and Taylor.

In the December 2, 1773 and the December 16, 1773 editions William Hansford of Prince Edward County had notices; one concerned a mare he had found; the other was about getting a clear title to a tract of land.
